DAIRYMAN INSTALLS MILKING MACHINE

M. J. Shearer, who supplies Maupin with most of the milk used here, has just installed a modern convenience in the shape of a milking machine. With this equipment Mr. Shearer is now able to milk a larger number of cows and do it in a minimum of time. The machine is of the DeLaval make and is one of the most sanitary automatic milkers manufactured. Besides being sanitary the machine extracts all the milk and does not injure the cows in any way. The machine was purchased from R. E. Wilson Co. of Maupin.

The man who milks 10 cows or over can hardly afford to be without one of these mechanical milkers. They have been proven to be the most economical in operation and a great milk saver. The DeLaval people were the first to begin experimenting with a milking machine, and it was 25 years from the beginning before they offered one for sale. At this time they have a machine that positively does not injure the cow. There has never been a machine of this make thrown out were once installed. Send to us for literature and then investigate the labor-saving attributes of the DeLaval milker. It is used in nearly all the large dairies of the country.—Paid Adv. R. E. Wilson Co.

Passing of Peter Risch

Peter Risch, a pioneer of Wasco county, passed to his last home last Sunday, dissolution taking place at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ovel C. Wilson, at Bend. Mr. Risch was nearly 80 years of age at the time of death.

Deceased had been in failing health for some time and that he would not die alone went to Bend, where he was taken care of in his last hours. He was laid to rest in The Dalles cemetery, the funeral taking place Tuesday of this week. He was laid away beside the remains of his wife, who preceded him in 1905.

During his last illness he was attended by another daughter, Mrs. T. L. Hatt, a trained nurse of Portland. As the end drew near his other two daughters, Mrs. Lucille Cantrell of Maupin and Mrs. Marie Wilson of Dufur, were summoned and they reached his bedside before death ensued. He was conscious until the last. The four daughters mentioned are the only children left to mourn the taking away of a devoted father.
