Eleven Years Ago

From The Times: June 25, '15

Last Thursday occurred the wedding of Miss Dollie DeCamp and Carl A. Duus, which took place at the home of the bride's parents at Criterion on that date.
After the ceremony the young people repaired to the home prepared for them by the groom and hereafter will reside there.

J. W. Ayres of Wamic went to Tygh Valley Saturday last and purchased a flock of Jersey cows.
He says there is more money in Jerseys than in any other kind.

Jack Staats left Sunday morning with three pack horses to be away three months in the mountains. He will pack for the Hunt sheep camps.

C. A. and L. W. Yackey were in from Smock with a load of strawberries this week. C. H. brought in a load of hogs last week, they being shipped to the Portland stockyards.

At the annual school election held last Monday F. D. Stuart was elected clerk, G. L. Harp-ham director for three years and Geo. Vanderpool director to serve one year.

Mrs. R. F. Smith has a baby eagle, which she brought home from Prineville a couple of weeks ago. It is as old as a baby chick but of the size of a full grown chicken.

The final examination in our schools last week showed the pupils were strongest in grammar and weakest in spelling.
The studies in the order of standings are: Language, history, bookkeeping, mathematics, reading, literature, physiology, geography, spelling.

Last week E. J. Fischer sold Ford automobiles to John Mc-Corkle and Ed. Mays, completing the sale of another carload of that make of auto.

Sold Dalles Grocery

F. C. Butler has disposed of his Ninth Street Grocery at The Dalles, R. L. Ireland of Prineville being the new owner. Mr.
Butler took over the store last fall, and while it proved to be a good investment, still its conduct took the Maupin man away from his home store and required more attention than Mr.
Butler cared to give it. French still retains an interest in the City Market at The Dalles.

Pioneer Answers Summons

Thomas C. Fargher, a pioneer of this county, passed away at his home near Dufur last Thursday, being 86 years of age at the time of death. He was a brother of Wallace Fargher of Maupin.
Mr. Fargher came to Wasco county in 1874, settling on a piece of land, and which he occupied from that time until death called him. Funeral services were held at The Dalles Saturday last, interment taking place in The Dalles cemetery.

Picked Up About Town

Jim Woodcock went to the postoffice one day this week.
While there he found a letter his wife gave him to mail ten days previously. Jim said "the sensible thing for a woman to do when she gives her husband a letter to mail is to date it two weeks ahead."

Postmaster Turner says "some people go to the postoffice to get their mail; others to fill their fountain pens."

Oliver Resh springs this one:
"Wouldn't a woman yell if she could not afford more clothes than she is wearing?"

"A man recently settled near Newberg," so tells Bob Wilson.
"He said he had labored in the greens of California and came to Oregon to get rid of some of the 'long green' he accumulated in the southern state." Not so green at that.

When it comes to the hardness of a crowbar Jim Woodcock's head proved to be the softer of the two. As evidence, the plaster that worthy is wearing on his coco.

Bob Bell says "the reason they have honeymoons before they settle down is the same reason two prize fighters shake hands before they start pummeling each other."

In describing the beauties of the roads emanating from Maupin Lew Henneghan says "the scenery is the green stuff you see between the billboards."

Verne Fischer says "the member of the Maupin baseball team are near cripples. They nearly ran their legs off during the game between Maupin and Culver last Sunday, making 15 scores."

"Maupin people do love each other," according to Leonard Farlow. "The charivari of a pair of newly-weds Sunday evening proves that fact."

Now that the fruit season is at hand Dick Johnson reiterates that old saying regarding his fruit crop: "I sell what I can and what I can't sell I can."

HOGS

In 1925 Oregon and Washington brought in from the east of the Rocky Mountains, live hogs and pork products to the value of $9,000,000.00

It is estimated that each year, California consumes pork products to the value of $50,000,000.00 of which 90% is brought in from outside that state.

This money is being sent away from the Pacific Coast territory because our farms are not producing sufficient hogs to supply the Pacific Coast market.

Here is a home market for a home product that is being overlooked. A few more hogs on each farm will keep a lot of this money in the west. Think it over.
