A GOOD BUY

We've preached right along the value of investing in real estate; we are still of the belief that no man in Maupin can make a mistake in owning a piece of mother earth. Now we are going to offer proof that it pays by pointing out that just 49 years ago Uncle Sam bought Alaska for exactly $7,200,000. Last year this country's total revenue from Alaska amounted to $11,042,861, or just $53,824,862 more in one single year than the whole territory originally cost. In the 46 years he has owned Alaska Uncle Sam's cash profit from the investment have been $500,000,000. Of course you can't buy Alaska, and you can't clean up that big a profit anywhere in the United States. But you can invest a small amount and make as much in proportion—and you won't have to buy outside your home county to do it.

LARGELY "BUNK"

"What is so rare as a farm day in June?" asks the editor of a neighboring paper, imagining, we suppose as too many imagine, that the farmer is leading a care-free life at this season of the year. If he had to battle cut-worms and corn borers, striped cucumber beetles, bean beetles, tobacco worms, cabbage worms and sticky fingered auto tourists, along with raising another installment on the farm mortgage or paying off the semi-annual tax assessment he would soon forget that "rare day in June" stuff and sing a different song. In fact, if every fellow who writes about the carefree days of June could be forced to spend one week on a farm—any farm, any place—something tells us that after the blisters healed up and his back stopped aching he would be found humming something more appropriate than "bunk" about June days in the country.

A preacher who is paid for preaching doesn't do it all the time, but in every community are men and women who are not paid for it who are preaching all the time.

Looking at pictures of the 1926 bathing suits we're willing to admit that beauty is only skin deep.

The real farm problem around

Maupin is how to transfer the surplus from the farm to the pocketbook.

With the Dalles, Dufur and Tygh Valley celebrating the Fourth of July there is bound to be a lot of noise made in Wasco county this year.

When a barber talks all the time it's apt to be a sign that his razor is as dull as his conversation.

Eleven Years Ago

From The Times July 2, '15

Sheep Notes—Jim Mace sold 1200 yearling ewes Wednesday to Edwin Mays for $5.50 per head. Jim Abbott sold 11 mixed yearlings to a California buyer for $4.50 a head this week. Jim Mace shipped six carloads of mutton to Portland this week.

The annual school meeting of Criterion was held Monday evening last. The personnel of the board now is: D. L. Rutherford, chairman; H. M. Greene, who has two years yet to serve; A. A. Canfield, elected for three years, and C. A. Duus re-elected clerk for this year.

Mrs. Calvin A. Syron passed away at her home on Smock Prairie Saturday, June 26, at the age of 39 years, death being from heart failure.

A. F. St. Dennis has completed laying the new plank on the bridge.

While at Wamic this week Herman Gesh called the attention of a Times representative to a crop of barley on the Haltie Johnson place which, it is estimated, will go 60 bushels to the acre. Mr. Gesh is harvesting some fields of hay which he expects to go better than three tons to the acre.

Miss Vera and Laura Goetjen are hard at work in The Times office picking up type, and are in a fair way to become capable compositors.

Program of Music

A musical program with refreshments will be given by the members of the Maupin U. B. church, assisted by other talent, Thursday, July 8. Place will be announced through hand bills.

For Sale

12-foot McCormick header. Platform draper and one spout draper in good condition. Machine needs some overhauling. Cheap for cash. Phone or call T. B. Slusher, Maupin, Ore. 32-t3.

NEWS OF PINE GROVE

At the recent school election Ted Endersby was elected director, N. G. Hedin is now chairman, O. S. Walters being the third director, Mrs. N. G. Hedin was retained as school clerk.

Miss Flossie B. Overman will teach the Pine Grove school the coming year and has been granted an increase of $20.00 a month in salary; she is to receive $120.00 a month.

J. S. Brown and Banker Conklin made a flying trip to Boyd and Wamic on business last Sunday.

Many quail and prairie chickens have been noticed around the western end of the Wapinitia plains. This shows the effect of a few seasons' protection and mild winters.

Mrs. Appling, mother of Mrs. Roy Ward and Mrs. Ted Endersby, is visiting her daughters at Pine Grove.

Ed. Davis and sons have completed homestead buildings on the George Davis land.

Gottlieb Teshner has completed his logging contract for the Linns and now is employed on the new road.

The session of Sunday school that was to be held last Sunday was dispensed with, as the paint on the school house was too green to permit use of the building. There will be no Sabbath school there on Sunday, the Fourth of July.

Many Indians from Simnasho are passing through Pine Grove enroute to the Willamette Valley for a Fourth of July celebration.

J. S. Brown and Ed Mathews have baled some hay for Heller & Co.'s teams.

HOGS

In 1925 Oregon and Washington brought in from the east of the Rocky Mountains, live hogs and pork products to the value of $9,000,000.00

It is estimated that each year, California consumes pork products to the value of $50,000,000.00 of which 90% is brought in from outside that state.

This money is being sent away from the Pacific Coast territory because our farms are not producing sufficient hogs to supply the Pacific Coast market.

Here is a home market for a home product that is being overlooked. A few more hogs on each farm will keep a lot of this money in the west. Think it over.
