Bill Collector Used

Method That Worked

A manufacturer of Union City, Ind., known to his friends as Bob, tells how he has made a reputation around Union City for collecting bad bills. He says:

"I had a bill against a man in this vicinity, and it had been standing for so long that it had grown whiskers. I decided to send the man a statement every morning for an entire month, so every day my office girl addressed a 'dun' to him. At the end of the month I sat down at my desk and wrote my friend a little note and sent it to him by registered mail. The note read: 'For heaven's sake, man, go down to the post office—you've got mail.'"

"And on the following day the fellow appeared and made full settlement of a bill I thought would never be paid."—Indianapolis News.
