

Depend on the Men! Who Depend on You!

How much does the peddler value your good will?

He is here today and gone tomorrow. Today's customers are tomorrow's memories

Your dissatisfaction means nothing to the peddler. He is off to new fields. He is a once over man.

Consider this with your local dealers' position; they must have your good will. Not a transaction between you and your local stores is complete until you are satisfied.

Dissatisfaction on your part means the probable loss of a good, steady customer, the loss of customers, influenced by your dissatisfaction. No established merchant can afford the short-sighted policy that would leave you other than thoroughly satisfied.

True, the peddler often gives an elaborately worded guarantee, but---have you ever known any one who has ever secured an adjustment thru such a guarantee?

It has been proven by a large number of bankers and lawyers that in most cases such guarantees are practically valueless. Besides, with whom will you deal to get action on your guarantee? How can its provisions be enforced? Play safe. Depend on the men who depend on you. Buy your merchandise from your home stores.

Your local merchant carries staple goods, known from coast to coast. Back of his merchandise is a well established, reputable wholesaler ready to make good any defective merchandise to his customer, your home merchant. Back of the wholesaler is the manufacturer, who will make good to the wholesaler any defective merchandise. Established business prizes the good name of its products and you, in dealing with your local merchant, enjoy this triple assurance of fair treatment and good merchandise.

after spending some time in this section with relatives and friends

The Renick and Wilson families spent Sunday last among the shade and cool breezes of Clear creek. While there Oscar managed to entice 16 fine mountain trout to take his lure.

Miss Evelyn Henton, who has been attending school at Portland, arrived here Tuesday and will spend a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Henton, on upper Bakoven.

The Rainbow cafe is now blazoned to the world by means of a beautiful sign, depicting a scene on the Deschutes with a rainbow over the hills. It was designed and painted by Mrs. B. F. Turner and is a real work of art.

Dr. W. A. Short is in town this week taking care of his dental patients. He is at the Home Hotel over Wilson's store, and will remain until the 31st. Dr. Short will return some time in September. Watch this paper for notice of his coming.

The Richmond service station has installed the latest thing in oil tanks. There is a battery of eight square oil receptacles, each filled with motor oil, and are located on the curb between the two gas pumps. The new tanks add greatly to the facilities and appearance of the station.

Mrs. Jack Pullen accompanied her husband on the work train, which is here for repair work.

Andrew Cunningham and wife and Frank Brown and wife visited at the Mott ranch Tuesday night.

Grandma Morris of Dufur visited her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Davison, at Hotel Kelly on Monday.

Lester Crofoot successfully passed an examination as track walker and has been assigned the Cove Creek section. He went up yesterday.

H. E. Fischer and wife, taking little Verna Lea with them, visited the Fischer family at Troutman's ranch Tuesday. While there "Dad" indulged in his longing to catch a big rainbow trout.

David Morisy left for Portland Sunday afternoon, after spending a few months at Hotel Kelly. Mr. Morisy is an ardent fisherman and his stay here was to gratify a longing to land many big redsides. He was successful in catching the limit many times.

Bates Shattuck Appears In Magazine Pictures

The current issue of the Sportsman and Fancier, a sporting publication devoted to fishing and hunting, contains several pictures of Bates Shattuck. One of the pictures depicts Bates standing behind a large catch of trout, another landing a fish while the third shows the catch made by the Maupin man at Gold lake. The first two were taken at Rosary lake. The story accompanying the pictures is by "Old-timer," whoever that may be.

Light Fingred Gentry

People who seem to have something in their fingers which attracts property of others have been busy in Maupin lately. One of the latest to report depredations of this class is W. H. Williams. Bill neatly packed his auto tools in a box Friday night and placed the receptacle on his work bench. Sunday morning he went to the garage after a particular tool and discovered that box, tools, and all had vanished. Whoever took the outfit did not leave a single wrench, plier or anything else for Bill to work with, Bill is pretty mad about it just now.
