PRAISE—AND FACTS

The Wisconsin Journal, an ably edited daily paper, prefers facts to fiction. That is easily understood when one reads words like these from one of its recent issues:

"The local newspaper in the United States is each year getting a firmer foundation and becoming more and more useful to its home town and its community. It is the home newspaper which boosts the town, year in and year out; which takes the lead in every enterprise; which has for its purpose the upbuilding of the community. The local newspaper is the principal booster for its community, and it does its boosting often and without hope of material reward. Unfortunate is the community which neither appreciates nor supports its local newspaper.

A Chicago burglar escaped several times by saying he was in the wrong house. They caught him with the goods and we're wondering if he is now arguing that he is in wrong jail.

A lot of young fellows attract far more attention when they turn up their trousers than they do when they turn up their toes.

The man who tried to abrogate the position of watermaster to himself was made wiser by his enforced visit to the court.

They are holding a Buyers' Week in Portland this week. We find that every week is buyer's week with The Times family.

A ROYAL ENTERTAINER PERFORMS

Amir Bux, a genuine East Indian conjurer, produces a Liberty Bell from a reporter's hat. He is one of the artists in the India Building at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, which opened in Philadelphia June 1 to December 1 to celebrate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

THE SESQUI FROM THE AIR

An idea of the size and scope of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, which will be held in Philadelphia from June 1 to December 1, to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Declaration of American Independence, is given in this photograph. In the foreground is the great Municipal Stadium, which seats 100,000 persons. North of the stadium can be seen two of the vast exhibition buildings. The first is the Palace of Agriculture and the second the Palace of Liberal Arts. Opposite the latter building is the big auditorium, which seats 20,000 persons on a single floor. To the left of the stadium can be seen the world famous Indian building, the Taj Mahal.

MRS. HOOVER TURNS BRICKLAYER

Mrs. Herbert Hoover, wife of the Secretary of Commerce in President Coolidge's cabinet, is shown laying the cornerstone for the model home being erected by Better Homes in America organization at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, in Philadelphia, June 1 to December 1 to celebrate 150 years of American Independence. Opposite Mrs. Hoover stands Mrs. Vance McCormick of Harrisburg. The Girl Scouts grouped around the women will operate the house.

London owes much of its charm and fascination to its plan, or rather its lack of a plan. Much of it was built before the days of town planning and before the invention of the deadly "gridiron" which makes hideous so many American cities, and as London's streets, squares, places and lanes developed apparently by no fixed plan, the buildings which face them were built with apparent defiance of all rules of architecture, and yet they possess charm and distinction which it would be difficult to secure today, when the building is changed, and design is a state of flux.

You Can't Laugh This Off

It has been figured out that if the sum of $1.00 had been deposited in a saving bank at 6 per cent on the day of Christ's birth, the interest on it up to the present day would pay off all of the national debts of all of the nations in the world.
And interest piles up just as fast today as it has at any time in the history of the civilized world.

Did You Know that the only reason more people are not saving is because they have not learned how fast interest on money mounts up? Why not start on the one road that leads to Comfort and Happiness—the Thrift Road?

Our time is yours if you will ask for it—Drop in and let's talk over the benefit of a saving account—A dollar will start one.

Unfortunate Genius

One of the greatest female geniuses of the early Nineteenth century was Louise Brachman, who was born in Rochlitz, Germany, in 1778. She was an intimate friend of Schiller and Novalis and was herself a writer and poet of great ability. In her case, as in many others, genius brought with it an unevenness of temperament, at times bordering on insanity, with long and continued fits of melancholy. Having been disappointed in two love affairs, the blasting of another fond hope of hers in 1822 drove her to suicide by drowning in the River Saale.—Chicago Journal.
