LETTER GOT THERE

SHE didn't have Santa Claus' address, but she knew that Aunt Mary must have it, so she wrote the following letter to him and sent it in care of "Aunt Mary, New York," having first read it to her mother:
 "Dear Santa Claus:
 "I hope you are well. Are you? Won't you have to come this year in your airplane, or your automobile? Here is my list:
 "Too teddy bears in dresses. A doll's writing desk. A doll, not a girl doll. A doll's house (it is in the corner bookshop that is kept by Miss Sinclair). One bear brown and the other white, I think that is all. Your loving friend."
 The letter must have arrived, for the presents did.—C. G. Hazard.

14th FAIR

EVERYBODY'S GOING

To the Biggest, Best and Most Entertaining

Southern Wasco County

FAIR

TYGH VALLEY, ORE. SEPT. 2-3-4

The Southern Wasco County Fair for the year 1926, will far exceed all other expositions given by the association. In the Matter of Stock Departments, there will be more entries, and also greater varieties than ever before. Many stock raisers have written for entry blanks and will make an endeavor to have as large and varied displays as were ever seen at any fair of the size of this one in the Northwest. The displays of fine horses at the Tygh Valley Fair have always been above the average, and this year's exhibit promises to eclipse all other attempts to make this exhibit bigger and better than ever before. In the matter of poultry, sheep, goats, rabbits and all pet stock, the Boys' and Girls' Clubs will make an especial effort to excel all other years. In the Domestic Arts department promises have been received of many new and original articles for competition for premiums. The Indians from the Warm Springs Reservation will have a large and varied exhibit of Indian bead work, fancy sewing, and various other articles of Indian handicraft. The race program has been so arranged that all classes of fast horses will have a equal chance on the purses. These range from pony races to races for the fastest horses in the country. A big free open-air attraction has been engaged for the three days, and such exhibitions will be given in front of the grand stand. The grand stand has been made more comfortable by the addition of seats, with aisles between, thus making it possible to pass up and down without disturbing those already seated. The new pavilion will hold nightly dances and picture shows, and a fine boxing carnival has been arranged for Thursday night. There will also be a full complement of refreshment stands. Water is being piped from a large spring above the grounds, and this means an abundance of pure drinking water for all. Come to the fair.
