months, 75 cents; three months, 50c

Entered as second class mail matter September 2, 1914, at the postoffice at Maupin, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

With Maupin taking better than 600 loaves of bread as well as divers other samples of pastry three times a week from a Dalles bakery, the need of an institution of that kind here is evident.

SHANIKO HAPPENINGS

Pat Reilly of Ashwood delivered three carloads of lambs here Saturday for Tom Boylan.

J. W. Fisher's sheep are now on the home range.

Mrs. J. M. Reeder of Orchards, Washington, was calling an old friend Friday.

A. L. Hanna and Max M. Schmidt are thru seeding fall wheat.

Mr. Quinn, a Portland horse buyer, is stopping in town a few days.

Ed. Grey of the P.L. and L. S. company was in town Tuesday for a load of supplies.

John Conroy of Grass Valley was transacting business here Monday.

John McHargue reports work on the new ranch house at Bakeoven is progressing rapidly.

Frank Dillon, a new arrival from Ireland, was visiting over the weekend with his brother, Charles.

Elgin and Eldo McKinley of Bridge Creek are spending a few days in town. Elgin is sporting a new Chevrolet coach and Eldo a Ford.

Wm. Ureidt has returned to his home in Antelope.

Rod Grant made a flying trip to Madras Sunday.

Olle Weberg informs us that serving on the grand jury is no snap.
His late service was so hurried that his body had time only to consider two cases, and both of them were open and shut before the jury convened, but the law provides that a jury must pass upon them before actual trial.

Hauling Winter Wood
Art Fargher is busy these days.
He thinks we are going to have a hard winter and is preparing for it by hauling wood from Maupin to his "Dead Dog" ranch. We hope he will be nice and warm for we would like to hear some more from the pen of "the poet of the Cascades."

Whiz Radio batteries, all kinds at Maupin Drug Store.

The Opportunity of a Lifetime

WHAT would you give, Mr. Farmer, to have set before you for inspection and study the very best bred livestock in all America? A year of your life or ten acres of your best land, wouldn't you?? The lessons learned would be worth it.
Yet, you can have that opportunity without sacrifice. At Portland, October 30-November 6, the 16th Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition will exhibit the largest and greatest assemblage of livestock ever shown under one roof or at one time in the land. Dairy and Beef Cattle, Horses, Hogs, Sheep, Goats, competing for the largest premium list ever published—$100,000.

Also you will see the great Fox exhibits. There will be the world-famous Horse Show, too, and a Land, Industrial and Dairy products Exposition. The Maupin State Bank deems the Pacific International an opportunity of a lifetime for every farmer in this vicinity and we say: Go!
