

Think This Over

We are endeavoring to give the people of Maupin and those living tributary the same advantages in purchasing that the city people have with their chain stores.

To those who can meet their bills within 30 days, we wish you to carefully examine the price list mailed to you last week. They were our regular prices, not just specials. These lists will be sent you at intervals.

We are offering you prices that were never before offered in Maupin. Spend your money here and help us to give you better and still better prices. Don't pay the profits that the store must demand that does a long-time credit business. Your cash, in that instance, pays a part of every bill that is not paid and there are always losses in long credit terms.

When you have a few dollars to spend, bring them to us and convince yourself that we are giving you the best of merchandise at lower prices than anywhere else in our town, and outside of paying more freight and straight specials or bargain offers, you are doing as well as you can anywhere else. We want your business. Our increased sales during the past 15 days show there are many people here who appreciate our efforts to give them lower prices and merchandise that is absolutely right.

Yours respectfully,

R. E. Wilson Co.

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

Tum-A-Lum Renick says that now that the company has an auditor checking up on him he may have to get hard boiled and demand cash for fuel. If that comes to pass there will be many of us who will have to shake ourselves to keep warm. It's a good thing for shivering humanity around here that warm weather is soon due.

The boys who "swiped" Frank McCorkle's kindling and built a fire on the high school basement floor were more than foolish in their prank. Their act might have meant a new school house, with a consequent greater bond issue with which to build it.

Bob Wilson says he is after all the currency dust that he can get hold of but that the dust raised by dancers from the hall floor is not the kind he appreciates.

A move is on foot to compel all milk dealers to pasturize their product. This will be done as a measure of good health. Most milk dealers have enough to contend with in "pasturizing" the cows so that they may give milk sufficient for their customers.

Ben Fraley is posing as a fish dealer. Last week he received a consignment of fresh smelt from the Cowlitz river and had no trouble in disposing of even the smell of the smelt.

Notice to Recorder Woodcock:—Our dog has become a country dog, having been adopted by Phil Mott, and is now in training as a sheep hound. We, therefore, are absolved from paying city taxes on the canine. Get us, Jim?

Gus Derthick can withstand most any pain but when Old Man Inflammatory Rheumatism takes hold of him, well, then, it is time to emit a groan or two and lay back and grit teeth.

Gee, there must have been a hungry crowd at the Legion dance last Saturday night. In the rush for the dining room at the supper call one young lady suffered a badly bruised foot and ankle by being stepped on by some one in a hurry to get his feet under the table.

Tony Seifert was in a peck of trouble last week. He sent to Portland for a sheep herder. When the woolly's nurse arrived at The Dalles he immediately got busy with other people's property, was arrested, indicted and sentenced to the pen. Information showed the fellow had but lately been released from Salem, and shortly before going there had served a term in Walla Walla for larceny. Tony has an honest herder now.

Anyone want to hire a dance orchestra? This happy family possesses two radios a banjo-uke and two cats, sufficient to make a noise loud enough for any dance crowd.

School Student Ill
Miss Gladys Smith, who is attending high school at Portland, came home on a short visit Friday. While here she was taken ill and for a few days the first of the week was confined to her bed at the O. P. Weberg residence.

Addington Boys On Sick List
Jessee and Orville Addington are ill at their home, suffering with an attack of flu. The two younger sons of Mr. and Mrs. Mose Addington are also confined to the house, being afflicted with what is known as pink-eye.

Former Engineer Here
Engineer Peck, who was in charge of the local office during the construction of this section of The Dalles-California highway, was in town a short time last Saturday. Mr. Peck is now stationed at Vale, to which place he is bound.

Farlow Visits Monmouth
Leonard Farlow made a trip to Monmouth last Friday afternoon, remaining there until Monday morning. Leonard says the reason for his trip was "strictly business," but there are those who think otherwise.

Addington Won Prize.
Mose Addington was winner at the "Solo" tournament at the Rainbow on Tuesday evening, he receiving a carton of "Royal Bengo" baby cigars. J. H. Temple, having the low score, was contented with a large stick of candy as a recompense for his "skillful" playing.

You need no longer be without a Haag Vortex

Owmpower

The Owmpower gasoline motor is a four-cycle motor—a new type—different and better—having major advantages:

Haag Brothers Company now manufactures a Haag Vortex for every home. Probably you are one of the many women who have wanted a Haag Vortex Washer but have not the electricity to operate the Electric model, nor a stationary farm engine to operate the Haag Vortex Beltpower model.

You may now have the selfsame Haag Vortex Washer, which washes absolutely clean without soaking or hand rubbing, in the independent Owmpower model.

- 1 The "Owmpower" does not leak grease on your kitchen floor.
- 2 The "Owmpower" starts easily all the time—no "messing" with it—no batteries or switches to get out of order.
- 3 The "Owmpower" uses 50% less oil and 20% less gasoline—less refilling bother.
- 4 The "Owmpower" does not require bothersome proportioning of oil and gasoline. This eliminates smothering.
- 5 The "Owmpower" is quieter because of the high-grade muffler at the end of the 8-foot armored exhaust hose, which extends through window or door.
- 6 The "Owmpower" has surplus power. It is air-cooled. The finest construction throughout insures long life.
