PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

Clarke Richardson says the recent rains brought down so much feed for Bill Stat's trout that they refuse to recognize him when he goes to feed them.

"Dad" Richmond says that with the number of service stations already operating and the new ones contemplated it might be proper to change the name of Maupin to "Oilville."

The fellow who ran into and killed several of the Fargher sheep last Sunday on the Criterion grade, took precautions against prosecution for his act. When approached by an officer regarding the mishap, the driver said: "Send the bill to my house, it carries insurance against such contingencies."

The man who attempted to wheel his car loaded with a barrel of gasoline on the rear through the Job Crabtree field, found, to his sorrow, that the roads crossing that tract had no bottom. By the aid of part of the fence and a team of horses he extracted the car from the mud, and will confine his travels to the hard highways hereafter.

Milo Wood has embarked in the garage business on his own. Milo is a good garage man and what Maupin loses by his going away from among us is the gain of Tygh. Thus do the good men vacate Maupin.

Jim Chalmers has some memory. When a man can remember the names of such a crowd as went from Maupin to Tygh last Saturday night, and spied them off as though they had been written down, it is evidence that he takes an interest in the reason for their going. And that is Jim every time.

Chouinard's island was anything but an island a few days this week. It looked more like the channel of the Deschutes, judging by the amount of water rushing over it.

Rumors that he was going to take charge of the repair shop of the new garage have no effect on Verne Fischer. He says his East side business requires all his attention, and the report that he is to leave that and work for someone else is rumor pure and simple.

In traveling over the highway one is confronted with the fact that considerable work will be necessary before that roadway is in condition to take on an oil coating. Holes and soft places are numerous and recurrent rains are working havoc in many places.

Bob Wilson's sentence of all offenders against his credit policy is 30 days—not incarceration but 30 days in which to meet monthly bills.

Flu Closes Tygh Schools
The flu had so many students of the Tygh Valley schools in its grip that it was thought best to close the schools a few days the first of the week. Schools all around Maupin are closing because of the prevalence of flu, but so far comparatively few Maupin students have been compelled to remain away from their studies on that account.

Crofoot Under Weather
Charley Crofoot is one of the latest to succumb to an attack of flu. He makes the last one of his family to be taken down, his wife, son and daughter having been suffering with the same ailment for a week past.

"Slim" In Maupin Again
"Slim" Nosker, well known among the sheep nurses, has returned to Maupin and has taken up his vocation with the Fargher flocks. "Slim" has been in The Dalles during the winter, but says that town is too tame for him, so came to Maupin on Tuesday's stage.

Bob Fortune Flu Victim
Bob Fortune is not living up to his name, for he was so unfortunate as to be confined to his bed at Hotel Kelly the first of the week with an attack of flu. Dr. Elwood attended him and now our redoubtable sheep herder is out, although still very weak.

Healthful Maupin
While the schools are closing all around us, caused by an epidemic of influenza, Maupin is virtually free from the disease. While there are a few isolated cases, still the school attendance is nearly normal. The flu seems to be attacking the older people, leaving the younger generation alone.

FARMERS UNION WILL MEET

Called For Monday Next at Dufur—To Discuss Farm Relief Bill

Representatives of the Wasco Co. Farmers Union met at Dufur yesterday for the purpose of endorsing the agricultural surplus control bill and to plan ways and means of getting the measure before the people, especially the wheat growers of the county.

C. F. Emerson, president of the Wasco county organization, presided at the meeting, with the assistance of the secretary, J. C. Godknecht. By a unanimous vote of those present, it was decided to call a meeting to be held in the Odd Fellows hall in Dufur next Monday afternoon, February 28, at 1:00 o'clock, at which the public generally is invited. President Emerson is especially anxious that all wheat growers of the county be present for, as he has stated, this said bill embodies many features of vital interest to the wheat growers, and it will be the purpose of the meeting to explain in detail the advantages to be gained by its final enactment into law.

Mr. Emerson further stated that this bill, while patterned after the McNary-Haugen measure, contains provisions not originally embodied in the parent bill, the importance of which is not thoroughly understood by many people.

The following resolution also was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the most effective and far-reaching legislative ever enacted in an agricultural nation has been passed by the Congress of the United States, vitally effecting every wheat grower;

And, Whereas: The bill names the method of election;

And, Whereas: A full understanding of the provisions of this legislation is necessary, in order that the grain growers may exercise their privileges;

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That an emergency exists and action should be taken immediately to prepare for the governing board as provided in the bill;

And Be It Further Resolved; That a meeting be held in the Odd Fellows hall in Dufur, Monday, February 28, at one o'clock p. m. for discussion and action;

And Be It Further Resolved: That every grain grower make this meeting a special order of business.

Adopted and released to the press this 23rd day of February, 1927.

Signed: S. M. Hix, L. E. Hendricks, W. H. Hillgen, O. W. Moore, J. G. Godknecht, C. A. Harth, Herbert Eggert, H. R. Richards, J. W. Hix, C. L. Look, F. B. Ingels, C. F. Emerson.

The dining room of the Odd Fellows hall has been secured for use of those who come and bring their lunches. Everybody remember the date, Monday, February 28, 1927, and the place, Odd Fellows hall in Dufur.
