C. W. Semmes and E. R. Semmes, Publishers

Published every Thursday at Maupin, Oregon

Subscription: One year, $1.50; six months, $1.00; three months, 50 cts.

Entered as second class mail matter September 8, 1914, at the post office at Maupin, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The attempt of the student council of the state university to "gag" the editorial policy of the editor of The Emerald, student daily paper, is like shaking a red flag in the face of an angry bull.

Because Editor Abramson saw fit to criticize certain acts of students paralleling hazing, the student council seeks, by ballot, to have the editor submit plans for future campaigns against obnoxious practices to the members of the body committee before launching them.

That's right. Gag the press; make editors see things as you want them to be seen; do not allow them to think for themselves, but demand they follow your dictates, then see how long the papers would last and just how much influence they would have with the general public. Use the gag. But before putting it into full use on the editors, place a big one on those who would hamper free thought and free voice.

The bringing home of the rifling of the Maupin postoffice to a young boy need not necessarily reflect on the parents. Some children have a perverted idea of the property of others, and they follow that idea without giving heed to the teachings of their parents against wrong doing.

If Oregonians would only stop and consider the real good Governor Patterson's income tax measures would benefit the state, and at the same time reduce other taxes, there would be no doubt of its success at the special election to be held on June 28. Read it over, then decide you want it.

Thanks For The Picture. The Times man was presented with a fine photograph of this city, taken by Prof. Broughton from a vantage point on the reservoir bluff. The picture shows the whole town, surrounding hills and part of the river as well as a long stretch of the highway. It is superbly finished and mounted on a 7x11 board. Thanks Mr Broughton.

Came After Rainbows. Carl Goehler, John Young and Lloyd Wisner, three of the store force of the Docherty-Powers company of The Dalles, came over Sunday morning after a mess of Rainbows. The Times man accompanied them to Buck Hollow, which by the way, is some hollow, but none of the party were successful in coaxing a trout to take a hook.

Mrs. Turner Ill. Mrs. B. F. Turner has been compelled to lay aside her duties as chef at the Rainbow restaurant and remain at home, all because of an attack of rheumatism. Mrs. Strong of Wapinitia is substitute for Mrs. Turner, and she will have charge of the restaurant kitchen until the regular cook is able to return.

Large Greenback Conignment. Well equipped with greenbacks one of the most numerous and novel "parties of travelers" ever to visit sunny California arrived last week, according to P. J. McGrath, of the Southern Pacific mail and express department.

The party consisted of 20,000 bullfrogs enroute from Louisville, Kentucky, to Yokohama, Japan, where they are to stock a frog farm. The company's fast train, the Argonaut, carried the frogs to Los Angeles whence they set sail for the Orient. The visitors occupied 200 specially designed cases.

Optician Coming. Dr. Clarke of the Clarke Optical Co., 304 Salmon Street, Portland, Oregon, Eye Sight Specialist, will be in Maupin all day and evening Saturday, April 30th, at the Home Hotel. See him about your eyes.

Snow on Plains. The weather took a decided turn for colder Monday evening and snow fell on Wapinitia Plains, it first being seen at the Kelly church and continued from there to the timber line. Snow fell at Wamic, there being fully two inches on the ground Tuesday morning. Hail fell in Maupin Tuesday a. m., but not sufficient to cover the ground.

Stray Horse to Be Sold. The horse which came onto my premises, and which was advertised according to law, will be sold on Monday, May 2, 1927, unless owner comes after it, pays for its keep, advertising charges and all other expenses connected with the stray animal.

Dated this 21st day of April, 1927. C. B. DAHL. Spalding's base ball goods. Special prices to schools and base ball clubs. Maupin Drug Store.

While searching for eggs in a hay loft last Friday, Mrs. J. L. Hingsworth fell into a narrow feed chute, being rendered unconscious. Her little nephew saw her fall and ran screaming to the field where Mr. Hingsworth and John were working, and summoned them to assistance. The lady had fallen on her head and if help had not arrived when it did, she surely would have died.

F. O. Stall, Wapinitia rancher.

died at The Dalles hospital last Tuesday. He was a victim of Bright's disease and was 38 years old. The funeral was held at the Kelly church, the Maupin I. O. O. F. lodge having charge of the services. Interment was made in the Kelly cemetery.

One night last week an intruder visited the chicken coop of Mrs. N. W. Flinn at Wapinitia and killed an old hen and 10 little chicks. The next day Mr. Flinn set several traps and the following morning found a big owl in one of them. The bird measured four feet 10 inches, from tip to tip of its wings.

Maupin defeated Gateway at baseball on Sunday by a score of 6-5. It took 10 innings to turn the trick. Gateway scored five in the fifth, owing to an error on the part of a Maupin player. That put them in the lead, but Maupin crept up and at the end of the ninth the score was 5 all. Maupin made one in the tenth while Gateway was shut out of their half.

Dee Wright was down from Wapinitia Wednesday. He recently came down from the mountains and reports snow there as being from four to eight feet in depth.

Miss Phyllis Fischer and Wallace Kellogg have been elected to have charge of the Maupin school next year.

Tuesday's wind blew down about 20 feet of studding at the new Shattuck building and necessitated the workmen laying off the rest of the day.
