NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

As published in this paper two weeks ago we will raise the subscription price of the paper to $2.00 per year, beginning the first of June. We have several delinquents in our books, some of whom have told us they would soon come in and settle. Others have made no effort to meet their obligation to us, therefore if they fail to receive the paper after the above date they may know they have been cut off because they failed to pay a just debt. Several delinquents may be served with notices from an attorney, in whose hands we propose to place their delinquent accounts.

We have supplied the paper for nearly two years and now that we have made decided improvement in it, we must have our money or take measures to collect it. Come in and pay up, you delinquents.
