The Great Ali Din

THE MAN OF MYSTERY—ASTROLOGER—MENTALIST
 Possessed of a miraculous power that makes the past an open book, the future a crystal of known quality. Ali Din will answer all questions and advise you truthfully and fully on any subject asked in the grand stand each day immediately after the blindfold drive.

He is the man who is making blindfold drives in Portland and will drive blindfolded around the race track July 3-4 at the Tygh Valley fair grounds at a rate of 25 miles an hour in a Star 4, latest model roadster, sold by the Twin Peaks Auto Agency, The Dalles, dealers in Buick and Star cars. Paul Muller, agent Tygh Valley. Come out and see this wonderful man.

Aeroplane Stunts

L. M. Lloyd, aviator from Portland, will make flights each day of the fair. He will perform all the stunts possible with an aeroplane and will also carry passengers in short flights. He drives the same make of machine that Lindburgh used in his recent flight to Paris, and is one of the best known aviators in the country. His performances are free and worth seeing.

PICTURE SHOWS EACH EVENING
 There will be a change of pictures in the grand stand each evening and well known plays will be shown. The show Sunday evening will be "The Johnstown Flood," and on Monday evening Harold Lloyd in "The Freshman"

4th of July

is the one time of the year when all people feel like indulging in something a little different. It is a time of general rejoicing, for, coming as it does this year, it brings two holidays together. In doing that it is a chance for the otherwise busy business man to go on that long-delayed fishing trip. And of course, he will need camping supplies. The list printed below mention but a few of the nice things we carry in picnic goods, being made up principally for home trade. We have the other lines as well, and we ask that you come in and load up before you "hit for the streams"

OXO OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOXO
ELEVEN YEARS AGO
OXO OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOXO
 From The Times, June 30, 1916
 Archie Tripp of Wapinitia was the victim of a Ford car on Tuesday. While cranking the auto the car back fired, throwing the crank around with great force, it hitting Archie on the wrist, breaking it. Dr. Elwood reduced the fracture.

John Confer has a horse that is 21 years old. Last Thursday, while that horse and its mate were at the lumber yard waiting for the wagon to be loaded with lumber the old fellow and mate took it into the heads to run away. The driver got hold of one line and turned the team around, a reach being the only thing to be broken.

Grandma Delore passed away at her home near Wapinitia last Friday. She was one of the earliest settlers on Juniper Flat and leaves, beside her husband, Basil Delore, a son, Moses, five grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. M. Stains and the body laid in its last resting place in the French cemetery, near Wapinitia, on Saturday.

The past couple of weeks witnessed more rain in this section than anyone here remembers of during the month of June.

The elevator construction has reached a height that baffles several of workman, so they have ceased to work thereon.

J. E. Kennedy of Wamic and W. C. Stillwell of Tygh Valley were the only two from this end of the country to win prizes at the colt show at Dufur.

An Indian from Warm Springs was a patient of Dr. Elwood's yesterday. He was suffering with blood poisoning in one of his arms.

A water spout fell on Tygh grade Sunday, causing a number of cars to be held up at Tygh Valley.

Ray Tunison recently killed six rattle snakes in and around the house at White River. Three of the rattlers were killed in one day.

Visited Coast Resort.

While away last week Dr. Stovall, wife and son, made a trip from Corvallis to Newport. The doctor says that the road from the college town to the coast is in fine shape and that the trip was made in comfort. Mrs. Emma McFarlane, Mrs. Stovall's mother, accompanied the Maupin people to this city and will remain at the home of her daughter until after the Fourth of July.
