Thousands Turn Out For Tygh Celebration

Tygh Valley Fair Grounds Scene of Biggest Time in The History of Wasco County

The celebration of the 151st anniversary of American independence was duly observed at the fair ground at Tygh Valley on Sunday and Monday. C. M. Plyler had the celebration in charge and with his customary thoroughness had prepared a program of artistic and sporting merit that long will live in the minds of the thousands who witnessed it.

The first day's crowd was not large enough to take up all space available, but Monday saw nearly all parking space occupied by autos, while the grandstand was packed to capacity during the program.

As usual Maupin was called to provide the greater part of the musical program. On the list of artists were Mesdames Bothwell, Woodcock and Wilson who carried out the vocal end. Mrs. Bothwell also contributed to the instrumental part of the day, while Miss Winifred Kaiser was down for a mandolin solo. Mrs. Lloyd Woodside rendered a character interpretation and N. G. Hedin also contributed a vocal solo—one which brought all present to their feet "The Star Spangled Banner." Several numbers were rendered by talent from The Dalles, as well as one or two by artists from Portland.

The Great Ali Din, heralded as being a mystic, advertised as performing the seemingly impossible feat of driving an auto around the race track blind-folded, was another feature of the celebration. All made the drive, but the advertised speed of 25 miles an hour was somewhat of an exaggeration. As he drew up in front of the grand stand Manager Plyler laid a five dollar bill on the ground, Ali backed away, and after two or three attempts, managed to plant one of the machine's wheels squarely on the piece of currency.

The aviator, J. M. Lloyd, who was scheduled to make flights in his plane, proved he was no Lindbergh, in that his flights were only of the imagination. He failed to appear, the reason given being that it was raining in Portland. His absence was a great disappointment to the vast crowds.

The horse races were very good, but it was noticed that but few entries were made in each event. Those there, however, gave the audience all the thrills usual at a race meet.

The baseball game between Tygh Valley and the Maupin Stubble Jumpers was the real quill of the Fourth. There has been more or less strong rivalry between the teams all summer, and of the games played prior to this last one each team has taken two. The recent game was to decide which team was entitled to the pennant for this section.

Tygh Valley went to bat first and drew a blank. Their next try netted three runs, but in their third two runners crossed the plate. Hit first man up was given a pass; Jack Chastain was thrown out at first; Malone hit a single, went to third on a wild heave by Miller. Joe Chastain followed with a little bingle, advanced to second when Confer made a failure of getting Miller's throw. Came home on Brittain's ripping single. From then until the ninth inning the Tygh boys were treated to a run of goose eggs. In the ninth Muller drove one through Fraley, went to third on Willis Norval's double and was out at the plate, Confer to Miller. On that play Norval ambled to third, and scored on a fielder's choice on Padgett's little scratch. Padgett got to second on the play, advanced to second when Morris scratched Hill on both hands with a pitched ball and came home on Malone's out, Bonney to Fraley. That gave the Valley boys a total of five, which tied the score.

Eubanks was first up for the Jumpers. He lined one out for a safety, went to third on Doughton's hit and came home when Norval failed to gather in a wild pitch by Jack Chastain. The next two frames were blank. In their fourth the Jumpers opened up by Miller pounding out a fine double. Nye went out, Brittain to Joe Chastain. Ray Crabtree leaned against the sphere for a two-bagger, on which Miller came home. Fraley got on on a fielder's choice, stole second, went to third when Tygh attempted to get Ray at third and crossed the plate on Bonney's liner. Score up to that time, Jumpers 4, Tygh 2.

Miller was first up in the fourth. He duplicated his performance of t hethird, lining out a two-bagger. Went to third when Nye flew out to Joe Chastain and came home on a throw to kill Ray Crabtree at second. One tally was all the Jumpers gathered in that frame. The next three tries were blanks for the Maupinites, but in the ninth, with the score tied our boys began a hectic inning. Fraley went to first; Miller was there with his big stick, lining out a neat single. Nye then hit for two and Don finished the circuit when Joe Chastain fumbled Raymond Crabtree's little liner. That won the championship for Maupin, beating our neighboring team out by the narrow margin of one tally.

MORRIS CLAN CELEBRATES

Grandma Morris' 86th Natal Day
Enjoyed By Many Relatives

Last Sunday week was the 86th anniversary of the birth of Grandma Morris, and to fittingly show appreciation of the event relatives and friends gathered at the Tygh Valley fair grounds and enjoyed a family reunion. There were about 50 relatives and friends to the number of 40 made up the party. A sumptuous feed was spread, after which the party adjourned to the baseball grounds and witnessed a game between Tygh Valley and the Union Pacific team of The Dalles. Grandma Morris, notwithstanding her extreme age, is spry and active as many of her progeny who were at the party.

No News of New Ford Car.

George Tillotson attended a meeting of district Ford dealers at The Dalles on Tuesday evening. All Ford dealers in this section were there and each went with the idea that they would learn something regarding the new car Henry Ford is preparing to spring on the public. In that they were disappointed, for not one word relative to the new car was told by the manager of the Portland plant, who presided at the meeting. It is supposed that information about the new car will be given out about the fifteenth of this month.

LOCAL CARS IN WRECK ON UPPER HIGHWAY

Walker and Richmond Autos Tangle
Both Taken to Shop—Boy Says
"Do It Again."

While returning from a trip to East Lake Monday evening R. W. Richmond and Charley Walker, local men, indulged in a collision on the highway near the Dave Wilson ranch. Richmond was in the lead and Walker attempted to pass. In doing so his car skidded, throwing it into the ditch. When the car emerged it shot across the road, landing in front of the Richmond Chev. which rammed the Oldsmobile, striking it just back of the front wheel. The impact caused where they turned over, the Olds both cars to again hit the ditch, where they turned over, the Olds making two revolutions, the Chev. landing on its top.

The occupants of both cars were tumbled about, nearly all receiving minor bruises. The Richmond car emerged minus top and windshield, and also sustaining a bent fender and broken steering wheel. The Oldsmobile suffered more extensive injuries, it sustaining broken top, bent fenders, sprung axles, and three wheels. Both cars were taken to The Dalles yesterday where they will be placed in condition, ready for another try at clearing up the road.

In the Richmond car were his wife, daughter-in-law and her two little children. When the smoke of the collision has cleared away the smallest child a boy of three years, exclaimed: "Hey! Daddy, do it again." It was a novel and evidently a pleasing experience for him.

MAUPIN GIRLS CLUB GIVEN CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

Sewing Club Members Complete
Course—Nine Are Named
on the Parchment

The Maupin Sewing club has been granted a certificate of achievement having completed its work 100%. The club has been under the leadership of Mrs. L. D. Kelley. The certificate is signed by Governor I. L. Paterson, President Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural college, C. A. Howard, state school superintendent, and H. C. Seymour, state club leader. The parchment bears the names of Aliene Greene, Doris Kelly, Alta Chastain, Ethel Kidder, Mary Greene Irene Woodcock, Ina Crampton, Elizabeth Rutherford and Merle Snodgrass. It is now in the possession of A. E. Gronewald and will be sent to the club at Maupin in the near future.

Visited Old Haunts.

Maupin has an attraction for all those who once lived here. To prove this the recent visit of Prof. R. Geiser and wife, who are now living at Battle Ground, Washington, is cited. Mr. Geiser was principal of our schools in 1925-6, and has many friends who are always pleased to see him. The Geisers came in Saturday night, driving a new Pontiac Six and were accompanied by Mrs. Geiser's son, Lloyd Faley, and wife, who live at Hermosa Beach, California, and who were on a visit to the Geisers.

Visited at Fossil.

Ed. Mathews and some members of his family went over to Fossil on Tuesday for the purpose of making a visit to his parents. Ed. says he had not been at his parents' home since last year and now that he has a few days liberty from his farm work will enjoy them at the home fireside.

Floyd Richmond at Lakeview.

R. W. Richmond and wife enjoyed a visit with their son, Floyd, at East Lake over the Fourth. Floyd came to the lake from Lakeview, where he is employed in a plumbing shop, to meet his folks.

Unloaded Three Combines.

Bates Shattuck and Oliver Resch unloaded three McCormick-Deering combines yesterday. The new harvesters have been purchased by ranchers on Juniper Flat and will be gotten ready in time for the approaching harvest.

CIRCUS IS AT THE DALLES FOR BIG DAY ON TUESDAY

The Al. G. Barnes Big Top Shows
Will Spread Canvas at Wasco
County Seat Next Week.

The Al Barnes Circus will arrive in The Dalles Tuesday morning and will immediately move out to the show grounds.

The first event of the day of interest to the public will be a number of free attractions, starting at 12:30 o'clock. The big tent will open at 1 o'clock p. m. and the show will start promptly at 2 o'clock. The doors will open at 7 o'clock in the evening and the circus will start at 8 o'clock.

Among the outstanding features with the Barnes Circus this year are the Famous Riding Davenport; the Aerial La Tournas; the Matlock troupe of famous wire walkers; Arthur Burson with his "slide for life," and the Klinkart riding mid-gets, Liu Yui Ching, the Human Sky Scraper. The big show will open with one of the most beautiful spectacles ever presented to the public—"Aladdin and the Parade of Gold." More than 700 people in gorgeous costumes will participate in this opening number.

The Barnes Circus will pass thru Maupin Sunday morning July 10th enroute to Bend, Oregon, where it will exhibit on Monday, July 11.

UNIQUE ORCHESTRA BAND WILL BE AT THE DALLES

Sperati's Band Makes Sixth Pacific Coast Tour—Going to Luther League Meet at Seattle

The Luther College Concert Band, which will visit The Dalles on July 15, to play a concert at the Civic Auditorium at 8:15 p. m. is a world famous organization from Luther College, Decorah, Iowa.

Musical organizations have always held a prominent position at Luther College. Chief among these organizations is the Luther College concert band which is now making its annual tour. This band is one of the pioneer traveling college bands. From short tours in the North Central states the trips have from time to time been lengthened, so that up to the present time the organization has made five tours to the Pacific Coast; made on extensive tour in 1914 to Europe and in 1915 played an engagement at the Pacific Exposition in San Francisco.

Ice Cream Social Profitable.

The ice cream and cake social given at Legion hall last Thursday evening by the Ladies Aid of the U. B. church, was a profitable affair. The ladies noted the sum of $15.50 being left after all expenses were paid.

New Refrigerator Here.

Shattuck Bros. are ready to install the new style refrigerator recently purchased through the Maupin Power company. The parts of the plant arrived and Shattucks are now awaiting the appearance of an expert erector to place the machine in position. The new plant is called the "Zerozone," and will be the largest of its kind in town when set up.

P. O. Inspector Here.

Postoffice Inspector Mellish came in from Portland yesterday and in the forenoon went over the books of the local office. Of course he found Postmaster Turner's books in good shape, as they always are.

Pratts in The Valley.

Carl Pratt, wife and children spent the Fourth of July holiday with relatives and friends in the Willamette Valley. While they took advantage of the opportunity to lay in a supply of cherries for winter use. While Carl was absent Rev. Everett Hazen took care of the mail on Route A.

Took Wrecks to The Dalles.

Everett Richmond and Charley Walker took their cars, which were wrecked in a collision on the upper highway on Monday, to The Dalles yesterday morning. There the autos will be fixed up and made ready for more service.

Wheat Crop Promising— Dynamite Cap Is Active

Good Times Prophesied By Maupin
Business Man After Survey of Grain Fields.

A business man of Maupin, whose activities throw him in close touch with farming interests, recently made a trip over Bakeoven and Juniper Flat ways. In taking with The Times man he said that from all present indications this section is destined to enjoy better times this fall than for several years past. He bases his prediction upon the condition of the wheat fields. Up Bakeoven he found all grain in fields standing high, the heads well filled and ripening fast. In fact the stand over that way was the best seen in years. The same condition obtains on the Flat, where a greater acreage is in wheat. Our informant stated it was easy to note which ranchers farmed in the right manner, and those who let ranch work go by the board. The fields of the former showed intensive cultivation while those of the latter were spotted, thin in places and the grain appeared to be anemic.

EARLY SETTLER PRESIDES AT BIG FAMILY REUNION

Descendants Unto Fourth Generation Gather at White Salmon
For Occasion

To be able to attend and preside at a family reunion at which relatives of four generations are present is a privilege granted to but few. But that was enjoyed by Father Hatfield, a resident of White Salmon, Washington, at that place on the Fourth.

Descendants came from California, Seattle, Spokane, and other places, including Maupin. Dr. J. L. Elwood and wife, two sons, and grandson went from this part and took part in the celebration, which was held at the palatial residence of Dr. Balsiger, which overlooks the lovely Columbia and White Salmon rivers.

The day was spent in feasting, reminiscences, picnics and a general festive time. The elder Hatfield presided and recounted many experiences of early-day life in this, the then far west. He spoke of the journey from the East to Oregon and told how his company was one of the first to negotiate the Barlow pass in order to reach the Willamette Valley. Mr. Hatfield is 87 years of age and still hale and hearty.

Dr. Elwood returned to Maupin Monday evening and says the meeting was one of the most enjoyable he has ever attended.

Still Selling Machinery.

The R. E. Wilson company is still delivering farm machinery to ranchers around Maupin. The latest delivery by that firm was a John Deere mower and rake to Wallace Fargher, which was made on Tuesday. With these modern pieces of farm equipment the "Poet of the Cascades" will now be able to harvest the hay crop on the Fargher ranch with greater facility and ease.

A Convenient Arrangement.

Hot weather has no terrors for Verne Fischer while at work in his garage these days. He has rigged up a five-foot fan, driven by motor, and which keeps the air in circulation all the time. Verne also has white-washed the interior of the shop, and now does his night work with less eye strain.

Completing Addition.

After a protracted wait for lumber Dr. J. L. Elwood has a force of carpenters at work completing the addition to his residence. If the lumber comes in right smart the new structure will be completed in a few days.

Stockholders Meeting Called.

Notices have been sent to all of the stockholders in the Maupin warehouse, calling for a meeting of same at the office of the company, at the warehouse, on Saturday, July 10.

Old Cap Found and Examined by Young Jackson Explodes With Disastrous Results

A young man named Jackson, living at Wamic, was brought to Maupin Sunday to be treated by a doctor. The boy had been toying with a dynamite cap with the inevitable result, having three fingers of his left hand badly lacerated when a cap exploded in his hand. According to the story Jackson told a doctor at The Dalles, he found the cap in a rubbish heap, examined it and scratched when it proved to be very much alive. As stated above he was brought here for treatment, but not finding Dr. Elwood Frank Stuart volunteered to take the wounded man to The Dalles hospital and there the physicians found that amputation of the first three fingers of the hand was necessary.
