CARLOAD OF CULVERT PIPE

Galvanized Iron Culverts Being Taken To Bear Creek Works

A couple of road trucks have been busy several days of this week hauling 18-inch culvert pipes to the Bear Creek road works. There was a full carload unloaded here the first of the week, and all will be used on that stretch of road by the Baker construction company.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all those friends who eased our hour of sorrow by extending kind words of sympathy on the death of our dear son, Clair, and to those who thoughtfully gave flowers with which to grace his bier. Especially do we thank the members of the choir, whose beautiful hymns were instrumental in making our burden easier to bear. We thank you all.

M. and Mrs. H. M. Greene and Children.

EAST MAUPIN NEWS

Mary Green was a day guest of Doris Kelly Monday.

Mrs. Jack Donaldson and son, Ivan were at The Dalles last Monday.

Mrs. L. D. Kelly spent a couple of days of last week in the mountains.

L. V. Broughton was over at East Maupin one day last week, taking pictures of babies.

Henry Seethoff is moving some of his household goods to Maupin from Metolius this week.

Doris Kelly and Gladys Martin represented East Maupin at the Olive Turner birthday party Tuesday evening.

These hot days are good for the ice cream and cold drink business. Sig Fischer is kept busy serving such to travelers and home folks.

Many California cars containing people going to the Saegerfest at Taoma, Washington, stopped at East Maupin while going through.

Nyal's Easem rests tired feet, 25c at the Maupin Drug Store.

Garage Man's Mistake.

Contractor Baker on the cut-off road, brought a bright Chevrolet car to the works Saturday. Monday morning, when he went to the place where he had parked the Chev he found it missing. It was reported as having been stolen and officers asked to keep a lookout for it. Tuesday the car was returned. A Sandy garage man had visited Clear Lake Sunday night for the purpose of hauling out a wrecked auto; saw the Chev, and hitched onto it taking it to Sandy. When he discovered his mistake he at once brought Mr. Baker's car back to the lake.

Gone Harvesting.

Jack Donaldson went to the Raymond Crabtree ranch yesterday morning and will work on a combine during the wheat harvest. Jack is an old hand at the harvest game and Raymond is lucky in securing his services.

Delivering Lots of Gasoline.

The Standard Oil company tanks at Maupin are receiving a railroad tank of gasoline each week and all of it is being delivered to users. The use of combines in the harvest fields are responsible for a great deal of gas, each one using in the neighborhood of 20 gallons daily.

Pheasants Released at Henneghan's.

The Dalles Rod and Gun club was responsible for the release of quite a number of Chinese pheasants at the L. C. Henneghan ranch the first of the week. It is expected that the State Game commission will effect the release of several hundred more birds before the hunting season, and our sportsmen are asked to assist in the protection of them before the hunting season opens.

New Baby Boy.

Dr. Elwood was at Wamic last Monday and assisted in ushering a baby boy into the world. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Booth, are justly proud of their new hopeful.

Ashley Sells Whole Crop.

T. L. Ashley has sold his 1927 crop of wheat to the Central Oregon Milling company. Mr. Ashley received $1.15 for his Turkey Red and $1.18 1/2 for his Federation.

FARMERS' ATTENTION!

The idea is abroad that the Central Oregon Milling company buys no wheat but that for milling. That is a mistake, for the proprietors of that mill buy all kinds of wheat for shipment as well as milling wheat. They pay the market price and will take all they can get. They ask ranchers to give them a chance to buy their wheat.

Kramer Gives Free Show.

Joe Kramer trimmed his lamps on Monday night and entertained quite an audience with a free show. The film showing was a comedy and all attending seemed much pleased with its presentation.

Open Until After Harvest.

In order accommodate their customers the R. E. Wilson store will keep open until 8:00 o'clock evenings until after harvest. This is a move to give those who want to do trading in town after their work is done for the day in the harvest fields.

Wonder Where He Is.

Leonard Farlow entered his Star car Tuesday morning and proceeded to leave town. Just where he went is a matter of conjecture, at any rate he expects to be gone 10 days, evidently taking a vacation.

Oklahoma Crops Good.

In a letter to The Times A. H. DeCamp, who is visiting old friends in and around Claremore, Oklahoma, states that crops in that section are good and that plenty of rain has fallen. He did not say where he was going, but intimated that he was going to another section, having concluded his visit at Claremore.

Working in Drafting Dept.

While in Portland the first of the week Miss Jean Wilson accepted a situation in the drafting department of the Portland Power and Light company and is at work at her new job. If she likes the work it is Miss Wilson's intention later to take a course in drafting at some technical school.

Milling Company Buying Wheat.

The Central Oregon Milling company is in the market for all the wheat ranchers can deliver to them. They buy all kinds for shipment, as well as that for milling purposes. They ask that wheat growers see them when wheat is for sale, as they pay the market price for all they can get and will take all kinds.

Drillers are now at work deepening the new well at the R. W. McCorkle place. The well was down 290 feet and about 45 feet of water rose in it, but was pumped out in a few hours, therefore it is to be made deeper.

Frank Blakney of Bakeoven recently had two horses stolen from a pasture. Frank set out after them finding one at Castle Rock, the other at The Dalles.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Myers at Parkdale, last Sunday, a baby boy. Mrs. Myers formerly was Miss Anna Huston of Wapinitia.

A family named Grimes has taken up residence at Tygh Valley and now are erecting a garage on property recently purchased of G. R. Burtner.

The stockmen of Wapinitia, who were out on the ranges after cattle, returned Sunday bringing 58 head with them, which they shipped to Portland.

Mrs. Henneghan says that Miss Lucile Bracket, who was announced as being drowned in the sinking of the steamer Bear, is alive and attending school at Berkeley. She missed the boat by a scant five minutes.

Mrs. Henry Kramer received the sad intelligence Sunday to the effect that her brother had met with a fatal accident in a logging camp one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Kramer live at Criterion.

The "Poet of the Cascades", Art Fargher, has gone and got himself a wife. The couple enjoyed their honeymoon at Seaside, and we'll bet a cookie that Art got "all wet" while at that resort.

Mose Addington is operating a water tank on those portions of the highway he is blading. Gus Derthick says that driving the water tank does not mean that he is on the water wagon, as the saying goes, but that he is simply helping Mose make the work easier.

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

Jim Woodcock would not be taken for a "sheik" in any society, but the fact remains that he "rolls his own"—meaning that he rolls his socks so they will not be dropped over his shoetops while walking.

Floyd Richmond is taking a course of instruction in truck driving. He is acting as assistant chauffeur on the Butler grocery truck and French says that with a few more lessons in his cranium Floyd will be qualified to drive to The Dalles all by his lonesome.

Dr. Short is in town and is busy as an ant fixing up the teeth of many hereabouts. Doc wants to go fishing but says that so long as there is a human tooth to attend to he will remain away from the river, thus giving many fish a longer lease on life.

Ellie Weberg is putting up hay and getting ready for the wheat harvest. It's our opinion that when harvest is over our worthy neighbor will have reduced sufficiently to wear boy's size of clothing.

It must have been a case of misplaced confidence on the part of those who placed their money on Sharkey to whip Dempsey in their recent mixup. At any rate several Maupinites will consider condition
