LOOKING FOR WORK

Hardly a day goes by but that someone is in Maupin in quest of work. Many have found jobs in the harvest fields and are making the best of their chances, but many others come, ask about work, and, when told where same could be found, have deliberated and then moved on.

Monday a family came in from The Dalles. The man asked where they might find work and was directed to the Bakeoven country, where harvest hands were wanted.
After asking directions the family consulted with each other, then the man said: "Well, we want work, but do not care to climb the grade, so we think we will go back to The Dalles." A couple of young fellows were told where jobs awaited them.
They asked about wages, and when told, remarked that they would "beat it to Bend where better wages were paid." Those are but a couple of incidents.

Such people do not really want work. They put up a big bluff and when work is offered them refuse to accept it. Looking for work and praying they might not find it.

A man at Condon stepped through a board over the cylinder of a threshing machine, was precipitated into the mouth of the machine and one of his legs was ground off by the cylinder teeth. He was taken to The Dalles and died from shock and the loss of blood. It's getting so that everything with wheels is dangerous. The death of the Condon man is but an incident and shows that "safety first" is not given consideration, even in the harvest fields.

Matches in the hands of small boys are a menace to our fair city.
The fire at the Cecil Woodcock home last Friday was the direct result of small boys playing with lucifers. A little application of a razor strop to the place provided by nature would have the effect of educating the young hopefuls to the fact that matches had no place in their possession.

Maupin's water supply is coming in for its share of praise words from tourists. Monday a party stopped off for refreshments and the first thing they asked was, "what kind of water have you?" They were given drinks and several said it was the best water they had had on their trip, and some of them were from the east at that.

It is said that stock shares in the New York Amusement company-- the prize fighting syndicate of which Tex Richard is head--are now listed on the New York stock market.
We wonder how many newspapers have stock for sale, and which is on the market as a speculative commodity?

An Upper Flat rancher possesses an old-fashioned bed which is roped across in lieu of springs. We suggest he send it to a museum as being one of the things in use in ancient times.

Returned From Lakeview: Everett Richmond and Lawrence Powell returned from a trip to Lakeview, to which place they took a truck-load of rams for Carl Dahl.
Sunday evening. They made the trip in 27 hours and only one sheep died on the trip. Their load consisted of 50 rams, and the loss of but one, considering the extremely hot weather, speaks well for the care given the sheep in transit.

Visited At Grass Valley.
Ben Fraley, wife and children visited with the former's father at Grass Valley Sunday. The principal object of the trip was to meet Mr.
Fraley's sisters, Mrs. Blanch Soody, and Mrs. Fern Turbine, who live at Patterson, California, and who are visiting relatives in this part.

NOTICE, SUBSCRIBERS

Early in the spring we enlarged The Times to eight pages, having in mind the idea that our readers would appreciate the change, as it gave them several additional departments for home reading. At that time we raised the subscription to $2.00 a year. Several subscribers seemed to think the extra four bits was too high for the paper saying they were willing to pay $1.50 price, but not the extra bits.
They did not consider that the four extra pages cost us much more than the little amount we added to the subscription price.

Beginning with the first issue in September this paper will be made one of six pages, carrying the serial and other household departments, and the price will be reduced to $1.50 the year.

We ask that all who are in arrears to come in and pay up. One subscription alone is not much, but when several hundred are owing the total sum foots up to a considerable sum. Come in.

Old World Charm Meets
New World Conveniences

PLACING your house according to your lot is the privilege of the person who builds this practical dwelling of the English farm house type. The entrance is so arranged that the house may either be placed lengthwise for a thirty-foot city lot or crosswise for a 60 or 75 foot lot.

The design here calls for a combination of stucco and stained siding with the roof of dark weathered shingles.
The pleasing features of the living room include its windows on three sides, open fireplace and built-in book shelves. The open porch or sunroom may open off from either the living or dining room. The kitchen has all the details that delight the housewife—cupboards, broom closet, breakfast nook and double windows over the sink.
The three bedrooms all have double exposures and are well provided with clothes and linen closets. The bathroom is so placed as to be equally accessible from each bedroom. The attic is ventilated and makes a serviceable storage or playroom by sheathing the rafters and sides with celotex, which serves both as a wall-board and insulating material.
This small home so light and spacious, yet compact and adapted to doing without a servant, is a typical 1926 product. The poky, dark houses of fifteen or even ten years ago with their fussy little hallways and poor planning would be scorned by the modern housewife who has learned to value comfort built right into her home and to have everything planned for her convenience in working. Cold, draughty houses are also out of date. All well built houses, are insulated as this one is, with celotex sheathing on the exterior walls under the stucco. This effects a great saving in fuel in the winter and resists the intense heat of the sun in summer.

By the greater share of revenue from national forests comes from timber sales. The income from grazing permits for cattle and horses ranks next to that from timber sales.
