News Of Busy Shaniko

(From Dalles Chronicle)
James Micke of Wasco was a visitor here Friday, enroute to Bend where he will spend the winter.
Adelbert Rees and Glea Johnson were visitors at Kent Thursday.
Mr. Emmerson, who represents the Western Dairy Products company's plant in The Dalles, was a visitor here Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Terrill Casebolt of The Dalles, spent the last week here, as the guests of R. E. Casebolt.
Members of the Broadway Novelty orchestra will be located in Shaniko this winter and are playing various towns in this vicinity.
A. R. Altermatt attended the banker's meeting in The Dalles Thursday.
Vern Starling, who was here the past month hauling wheat, left Thursday for Dufur for a short visit with his brother. Vern expects to leave soon for North Dakota.

Adelbert Rees, Florence Cavin and Mrs. Nash were visitors at Kent Wednesday.
A defective steering gear on a coupe belonging to Harold Fine resulted in a near serious accident in Cow canyon Sunday. The car ran into and uprooted three concrete posts on a curve. The occupants of the car escaped with cuts and bruises.
A large crowd of Shaniko people attended the dance at Antelope Saturday night.
Sylvester Kramer of Maupin was a visitor here Sunday.
Arch Hanna and daughter, Phyllis, returned Sunday from Corvallis, where they had taken Miss Edythe Hanna, who will enter her sophomore year at O. A. C.
Among those from here who attended the dance at Grass Valley Friday night were Adelbert Rees, Henry Spalinger, Glea Johnson, Harvey Pullen, Florence Cavin and Mrs. Nash.

TYGH VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL
(Too late for last week.)
The Tygh Valley High school opened with an enrollment of thirty-five, and the prospects are that the total enrollment will considerably exceed forty for the year. The boys are quite enthused over football and indications are that they will give a good account of themselves when the contests start. They are a magnificent lot of boys and Tygh is justly proud of them.
Miss Elliott, the assistant in the high school, has been sick during the week. Doctor Elwood was called. She is now much improved and she hopes to be back in her place when school opens next Monday. Portia Butler is substituting for her.
The student body mixer will be held on Friday evening, September 30. Everybody welcome. Tygh has a fine Freshman class, composed of twelve boys and three girls.
A high school orchestra was organized on Monday. Indications are that this orchestra will render some delightful music. The young people composing it are music lovers and play from their hearts. They will be in evidence at the mixer.
Four new typewriters were purchased for the commercial department. This course is very popular and the typewriters are worked over time.
Enrollment in the Tygh High school has now reached thirty-nine. Indications are that we shall end the year with forty-two in regular attendance. There are twenty-three in the grades. The new books have arrived and school advances surely and beautifully.
Miss Elliott is back in her place, having completely recovered from her recent illness. This assures a pleasant "mixer" Friday evening, to which are cordially invited.
The foot ball boys are having a lot of fun trying to master the intricacies of this deservedly popular academic game. We understand that they have, through their principal, sent a challenge to the Maupin High school for two games, the first to be played at Tygh Valley on Friday afternoon, October 16 at 2:30 and the return game to be played at Maupin one week later. The Tygh boys have stipulated that Supt. A. E. Gronewald shall act as referee of both games and shall choose the other officials. Tygh has some pretty husky boys this year and these games might prove to be even more interesting than the two basketball games played last winter. Here's hoping for a lot of fun and some thrilling contests.

Doings at Pine Grove

J. S. Brown and Robert Lewis recently cut 700 posts in the mountains, but owing to condition of the roads under construction, were unable to haul them out.
Gottlieb Teschner, at work for the Baker Construction company, was in Portland recently, going there to purchase clothing for his six children, who are being held there under orders of the Wasco county court.
N. G. Hedin chased his Dodge car of ancient vintage into the rear end of a construction truck last week. The Dodge came out second best, as Newt had to put in a new windshield, new top supports and braces. Newt was on his way to Portland, where the repairs were made.
Wm. Moore purchased a buggy horse from Ted Endersby.
Mrs. Henry Peterson has rented a house in Mosier and expects to go there as soon as snow falls.
N. G. Hedin went to Portland last week for the purpose of attending a meeting of the Wapinitia Irrigation company.
Walter Woodside and wife made a flying trip to The Dalles last Thursday.
Miss Ruby Powell has decided there are things more to her liking than nursing. After a short stay at a Eugene hospital Miss Powell took a decided dislike to that work, so resolved to attend normal school at Monmouth.
Gertrude Laughlin has taken the position made vacant by Merie Snodgrass going to school at Maupin, and is now waitress at the McCoy hotel at Wapinitia. Gertrude plans to work there one year, then take a nurse's training course.
Brown, the contractor on the cut off road, with camps at Bear Springs is optimistic regarding the completion of the road this fall. He expects to complete his grading contract before snow falls, with the exception of team work in trimming. That part of his contract will be completed as early next spring as he can get to it. Mr. Brown is anxious to complete his job and get out of the mountains before the roads become too soft to move the heavy equipment.

Oxo ooooooooooooooooooooooXo
ELEVEN YEARS AGO
Oxo ooooooooooooooooooooooXo

From The Times Sept. 29, 1916.
Saturday the marriage of Miss Rose Hauser and Mr. Carl Dahl of Portland was solemnized in the latter city, where the young people will make their home.
One of T. A. Connolly's teams met with an accident on the grade leading into town yesterday afternoon. While starting down the grade with a load of lumber the wagon brakes gave way, letting the load crowd on to the rear team. The horses became frightened and plunged into a wire fence, some of them sustaining severe cuts. When they arrived in town Dr. Stovall attended the wounded horses, although one of them died later as a result of a fall.
Secretary Butler informs The Times that the recent fair held at Tygh Valley was a financial success from an exhibition point of view. Mr. Butler says a balance of $50.00 remains after all expenses had been paid. One-third of the exhibits credited to The Dalles and sent to the state fair came from this section.
A government telephone line will soon be extended from Wamic to the ranger station at Gate creek.
The saws of the Mulvancy mill at Pine Grove are humming again, after the proprietor's vacation in the Wollamette Valley and at the Tygh Valley fair.
A change in weather yesterday evening caused the thermometer to drop to 22 degrees above. Hard freezing followed.
Farlow brothers of Smock harvested 47 acres of potatoes from one-tenth of an acre.
Mrs. Minnie Gesh, wife of Ernest Gesh, was buried in Wamic cemetery last Sunday. Heart failure was given as the cause of death. Besides her husband Mrs. Gesh leaves three daughters and two sons and five grandchildren.

It Pays to Advertise.
Last week N. G. Hedin inserted a reader in The Times, calling attention to the Matthews sale and asking that those who had stock or other things for sale to communicate with him. As a result of that reader Roy Batty has signified his intention of clearing 28 ewes and eight wethers for sale, and they may be seen at the Dee Woodside ranch at the time of the sale—today.

Barber In Revolutions.
A Portland barber supply man is now nursing a badly cut foot. He was on the highway near the Tygh Ridge market road when he attempted to light a cigarette. The car objected to driving itself and left the road, turning over three times and landing in the ditch. In the melee the auto was considerably damaged and the driver sustained a wound which nearly lost him one of his feet. He was taken to a hospital at The Dalles. We did not learn whether or not he finished his smoke.
