Roy Crabtree was attending to business matters at The Dalles the forepart of the week.

"Stub" Lister has returned to civilization, after a time spent at a sheep camp in the mountains.

Wm. Beckwith was another Maupinite who attended court at the county seat on Tuesday.

Miss Florence Caven came from Shaniko and spent the day last Saturday with Maupin friends.

W. E. and son went to The Dalles the first of the week and spent a few days there on business.

W. H. Williams furnished a substitute and attended court as a witness Tuesday and Wednesday.

George Tillotson and wife conveyed the Misses Alda Pugh and Olive Turner to Mosier last Sunday.

A. J. Conley and family passed through Maupin last Saturday, being on their way to The Dalles on a trading tour.

Verne Fischer and wife attended to business matters at the big town of Wasco county several days during the week.

Jack Staats has gone to Barton station, near Portland, where he will have charge of a ranch during the winter.

Clarence Ziegenhagen attended a meeting of the Standard Oil company agents at the county seat on Tuesday.

B. D. Fraley and wife were at the county seat the first of the week, Ben to attend court, while Mrs. Fraley shopped.

Ernest Mayhew and wife returned to their home at Gervais after a visit with their sons, Dolph, Virgil and Lewis Mayhew.

Jake Davidson reported for jury duty on Monday but was excused as he had to attend to a shipment of hogs to Portland.

Mrs. Chas. Crofoot and her charges, Velma Crofoot, Lucile Walters and Theodore Kirsch, returned from the state fair at Salem last Sunday.

J. W. Drthick has concluded his labors in the mountains, having brought his sheep charges to the home corrals, and will remain in Maupin for a time.

A. H. Gillis, secretary-manager of the Southern Wasco County Fair, was at The Dalles several days this week, attending to business connected with his position.

W. W. Richmond and son Ralph, made a trip to the forest reserve above Dufur last Tuesday. They intended to work there but a fall of snow caused them to forego that intent.

L. C. Henneghan and wife went to the county seat Monday, Mr. Henneghan having been drawn as juror. Mrs. Henneghan returned to Dufur and spent the remainder of the week there.

The Times family were called to The Dalles the first of the week on court matters, that being the cause of the lateness of the paper this week. Now that everything is settled our readers may expect the paper regularly hereafter.

From The Times Oct. 6, 1916
H. L. Emmons and Mrs. Henrietta Muir were married in Portland a week ago yesterday, and arrived at their home here Sunday. Monday evening the Maupin band, of which Mr. Emmons is a member, and about 50 other friends visited the newlyweds and extended felicitations, the band rendering several selections. The visitors were royally entertained by the bride and groom.

The wedding of Dr. Harry Shannon and Miss Lorena Love, both of Tygh Valley, occurred at The Dalles Sunday. Dr. Shannon is a practicing physician at Hood River.

The concrete is being poured in the forms and will form the basement for the new hotel.

Rev. R. G. Ellis has tendered his resignation to his Maupin congregation and will soon leave for Ruthton, Minnesota, where he has accepted a charge. Rev. Ellis preaches his farewell sermon next Sunday.

George Mallatt is stepping high these days, all in account of a seven pound boy who came to his home last week.

Mrs. Alexander Thompson, who is a candidate for representative, will give an entertainment in the Fleming school house on Tuesday evening, the 18th.

The Shattucks are busy these evenings explaining the workings of their new Delco light system. The Shattuck store is lit by that kind of light and shows like daylight in the evenings.

John Martin has just completed a silo on his Juniper Flat ranch. This is the first silo to be erected in this part of the country.

Grandma Cook passed her 93rd milestone of her life. She recently enjoyed a gathering of her children, there being six who attended a party given in her honor. The combined ages of mother and children totaled 662 years.

The State Game and Fish commission shipped 48 Chinese pheasants to Tygh Valley yesterday. W. O. Hadley liberated the birds, and says there will be more to follow if those recently let loose are adequately protected.

Nay, Nay, Paulina, it is not a band you hear occasionally. It is only Verne Fischer calling attention to the fact that he is on earth with his Star car. The noise you hear is a chime honky-tonk, and seems to give Verne extreme delight in sounding it.

Bob Wilson came home from Snow Mountain country Saturday and brought a deer with him. Bob says he shot the deer in the hip, thereby spoiling a whole ham, but was satisfied with his game, as this was the second time he was after it.

When a young boy is able to show old farmers how to grow spuds it is time the old fellows changed their ways. Harry Rutherford of Criterion won the big prize at the state fair on his netted gem potatoes, thereby demonstrating that it is not age but study that accomplishes things.

Do you gamble? Have you a hunch that you can win enough to keep you in affluence the rest of your days? If so your desires will be gratified at the Legion carnival Saturday evening October 8. At that time all the gamblers of '49 will gather at the hall open up their games and play to the sky. During the evening dancing and eats will be on the bill of fare and those, with other stunts, are guaranteed that a glorious time awaits those who attend.

The "Harmony Hicks" supplied the inspiration at the Shady Brook dance Saturday night. By the way that musical organization has outgrown the "hick" stage and hereafter will be known as the "Troubadour Four," having graduated from the amateur class to the status of a real orchestra.

It's Stuart and Resh now, if you please. Those enterprising young men have succeeded to the business of the Butler store and took possession Monday. Both Mark Stuart and Oliver Resh are men of responsibility and know the mercantile business from A to Z, therefore will prosper in their new undertaking. We welcome them to the mercantile circle of Maupin.

Tygh Valley and Maupin High skin and plumage of a chink in his schools? The Tygh boys are getting in shape to make other school teams go and they are anxious to arrange a couple of games between the two towns spoken of. There are many football fans in Maupin who would like to see such games, so why not pull them off?
Pheasant hunters roamed the hills and flats hereabouts Sunday after wild game. We failed to hear of anyone bringing in the limit, but someone must have shot at least one pheasant, as our yellow tom cat came home Sunday morning with the
