NOTES FROM MAUPIN SCHOOLS

Mr. Davies and Mr. Nagel drove to Tygh Tuesday evening to arrange a football schedule between the two schools.

Doris Bonney Aliene Greene and Ivan Donaldson were absent Tuesday. The two former at The Dalles and the latter was absent from illness.

Football seems popular at present from the primary grades up. It is this long schooling that makes players.

The scribe failed to mention that the Crabtree boys, Fraleys, Graham, et al were instrumental in surfacing the grid field.

Pupils and teachers in the intermediate grades are doing considerable work this period.

Children of Third and Fourth grades give the conventional flag salute each morning. Also they are listening to "On to Oregon," a story of a boy left orphan on his way out to Oregon in pioneer days.

Mrs. John McCorkle has presented Miss Tillotson's room with a very beautiful hanging basket of Wandering Jew.

One of last years' graduates, Miss Berta Mathews of Tygh Valley, was visiting school on Wednesday. Berta has been ill but is now able to be about.

Mrs. Cantrell and Miss Tillotson drove out to Criterion on Tuesday evening and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kirsch.

Mr. Weberg cut the school lawn on Tuesday. The grass formed a thick carpet and gives the appearance of a much older plot of grass. Next year, if it continues to receive the care it has in the past, it should be one of the best in town—and Maupin has some good ones.

Primary black boards present a colorful effect in scarlet chrysantheums.

Should a visitor inquire what the pretty colored stars stand for in the primary room he will find they are reminders of pupils' extraordinary performances.

In the spelling contest among second grade pupils Tuesday all made a perfect score for the term's work except one.

The weather is very warm, not inviting to football practice. It's nice weather but too nice, the barometer standing at 29.5 and the thermometer at 78 degrees Wednesday at one p. m.

Tom and Bill Slusher were very busy seeding this fall necessitating a late start but are manifesting a big interest now.

Miss Richards is securing the printed examinations in bookkeeping for her class. They are well thought out questions.

All rooms are preparing a bit of program for Francis E. Willard day.

Magazines in High School

(School Editorial)
Every High school should have access to the late issues of various scientific and political magazines.

Th scientific magazines are very beneficial in physics, chemistry and science classes. Students in the above mentioned classes may derive much good from the discussions and the experiments these papers contain.

The political magazines such as "Review of Reviews," "Literary Digest," and "The Pathfinder" are very useful in the American History and civics classes. These magazines discuss, both pro and con, political and current event topics of the day. When these topics are introduced into these classes either by the students or the teacher, they form excellent articles for discussion. This makes these classes more interesting for the teacher and the student. The arguments advanced by the members of the class tend to make the pupils think more, which is the real aim of study.

Both the scientific and political magazines can be used to advantage in the English class. Many of the articles in these papers make good topics for lessons in public speaking and talking from an outline.

When a high school has some of these magazines in its library any student who has his lessons prepared can derive valuable knowledge and recreation from them.
Doris Bonney.

Helped Buy Ball Togs.

Maupin's school board seem to favor athletic games in the schools, at any rate the board contributed toward the purchase of football togs for the athletes in our schools. The student body raised part of the price and the board made up the balance.

Will Ship Hogs.

Roy Batty, with other ranchers will ship a considerable number of fat hogs to the Portland market Saturday night. Roy was in town on Tuesday, at which time he ordered cars for the shipment.

Another Bakeover Boy.

Verne Tunison and wife have taken a little stranger in at their home and will try and keep him. The newcomer weighed nine pounds and his parents think he is the only boy in the world, and they have just reason to be so minded, for he is a lusty youngster and gives promise of being bigger than his grandad.

Graveling Nearly Done.

The road crew which is graveling the Wapinitia cut-off has about completed the road to Pole camp and will have completed that strip by today, (Thursday.) If the weather holds good the whole road down to where it joins the market road, will have been gravelled.

Back From Washington.

Hugh Knight returned from Washougal, Washington, Tuesday, after having spent the past month there in the prune harvest. Hugh says the prune crop around Washougal was almost a total failure, as the early rains caused the fruit to burst, making drying almost an impossibility.

Ranch Hand Ill.

Lloyd Studenecker, a ranch hand on the Flemng farm, was taken ill with stomach trouble last Friday. His brother-in-law, Art Gutzler, went to Flemings and removed the ailing man to the Henneghan ranch, where he is making a quick recovery under the treatment of Dr. Elwood.

Back to Two Springs.

Lester Srofoot has been assigned to the Two Springs section and with his wife and baby left for that station Tuesday. Lester has been bending his back pumping a speeder up and down the rive, going down as far as tunnel No. one, but finds that work too much of the back-breaking kind to enjoy, therefore the return to the upriver section.

Many matters of importance are to come before the meeting, therefore Mr. Fitzpatrick requests that all members make a special effort to be at Tygh Valley on the date specified.

Wilson & Miller, the painters, decorated the front of the Shattuck store this week by spreading a coat of paint thereon. They also renovated the big sign in front of the building.

Pipe Line In.

The Maupin Power company has the pipe line from the headgates at the springs laid to the power house at the track at Oak Springs, it being about 1,200 feet in length. Work on the plant is nearly completed and it is expected the plant will be ready for operation in a short time.
