

PERSONAL MENTION

W. E. Zumwalt of Wamic was a Maupin visitor last Sunday.

J. C. Pratt and wife visited with Wamic friends on Friday last.

H. M. Greene returned Sunday after a few days spent at The Dalles.

Ray Kaylor and wife were in from Wapinitia on Tuesday, doing shopping.

Lelah and Mable Weberg spent the week end at the Weberg ranch on the Flat.

Mrs. Carl Dahl of Tygh Valley was a Maupin visitor one day the first of the week.

Mrs. O. A. Fraley, mother of Ben Fraley, is a guest at the home of her son this week.

Charley Lake and Amos Johnson from Wamic attended the football game here last Friday.

Chas. Crofoot, wife and son, Emery, attended the program at Wamic last Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. W. McCorkle was registered at the Bank hotel at the county seat on Wednesday.

Miss Allene Greene was a week end guest of Miss Berta Mathews at Tygh Valley last week.

Bobby Davidson left for Portland this morning, and will spend the week end in the metropolis.

J. G. Kramer and wife were shopping in Maupin last Saturday, coming from their Lakeside ranch.

The "Nucoa" man from Corvallis was in town Monday and unloaded a lot of his imitation butter while here.

F. L. Wertz, a visitor at the Clyde T. Bonney home at Tygh, with Miss Theilma Bonney, were Maupin visitors Sunday.

Mrs. John Foley went to The Dalles Saturday to be with her husband during the operation he underwent.

George Morris went to the county seat Tuesday and when he returned was accompanied by his wife and new little daughter.

Tom Henneghan and Frank Creager drove to Shearers last Saturday and tried their luck at catching trout in that vicinity.

Jesse Cox, driving his reliable Ford, ambled into town Tuesday on a shopping expedition, coming from his Shady Brook ranch.

E. R. Semmes went to Dufur on Tuesday morning and will again assist in getting out the Dispatch of that place, same as he did last week.

J. W. Williams of Gateway was in Maupin Tuesday. It will be remembered that Mr. Williams' wife was killed with her horse on the Criterion highway last year.

Mrs. George Morris and new daughter, came home from The Dalles on Tuesday, and now George will be able to put his feet under his own table at meal time.

Dr. Arthur Clarke, and old-time friend of The Times man, was in town Monday, making one of his regular monthly trips, looking after the eyesight of Maupinites.

R. W. Richmond went to The Dalles Tuesday morning. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. R. Richmond, with her children.

F. M. Griffin, who has been in Maupin for some time visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Kaiser, and incidentally catching messes of trout, left for his home in Ione yesterday.

EAST MAUPIN NEWS

H. D. Hollis went to The Dalles Friday last on business.

Mrs. L. D. Kelly accompanied H. D. Hollis on his trip to The Dalles on Friday last.

Andy Mann left for Portland on Saturday. He intends to make his home there for some time.

Wallace Fargher and son, Clarence, left Monday night for Portland where they will visit with Mrs. Fargher, who is ill.

Fifteen enthusiastic fight fans listened in on the Dillon-Stribling scrap at Portland last Friday night, with the aid of the radio at the Williams store in East Maupin.

Mrs. T. A. St. Dennis, who was called here by the death of her father, Clark Richardson, left for her home at Snohomish, Washington, Friday. Mrs. Clark Richardson accompanied her daughter and expects to spend the winter with her.

Frank Lister was a sore man a few days last week—not sore in spirit, but sore bodily. He is doing the plastering at the Joe Kramer bungalow and not being used to shoving a hawk and trowel necessarily strained some muscles.

The young fellow whose coat contained a pint of moonshine which was spilled on the floor of a garage when the garment was moved by another, is laying up a heap of trouble for himself if he continues to monkey with that sort of drinkable. It is bad enough when mature men indulge in moon, but when a mere boy partakes of the stuff he is indulging in one of the most reprehensible things to be thought of.

Bobby Davidson says there is nothing to the report he is about to embark in a double boat. Just because he chooses to back instead of paying board has led some people to think that our popular mechanic is conniving with some female with an idea of hitching up a better lot for worse.

A. D. Gibbs has struck the right place to open a harness and repair shop. Maupin has been without such a shop for so, these many moons, and now that Mr. Gibbs has chosen this place as a residence there is no use for our ranchers to go to The Dalles to have their harness repaired. Mr. Gibbs has all the ear marks of a good workman and no doubt will do your work just right.

Harve Morris has taken on another agency. He is our leading insurance salesman, and during all his other activities has found time to conduct a large ranch. His latest branch is radio, and he is selling the well known Radiola make of machine. See him for bargains in receiving sets.

Saturday night sees many young Maupinites going to various places of enjoyment. Last Saturday night quite a few from here attended a dance at Antelope, while as many went to Shady Brook and took in the hop at that place. Some even went to The Dalles to attend a show.

MAUPIN GARAGE

"IT SERVES YOU RIGHT"

Bernard Welch's new service station is beginning to loom up on the landscape. It will be soon in operation, and when completed Bernard will busy himself erecting cabins, aiming to connect the station with a modern tourist camp ground.

First Snow Fall Yesterday.
The first snowfall of this season came down early yesterday morning and covered the ground to a depth of over one inch. The rain of that time turned to snow about 3:00 o'clock, but soon melted after daylight, there being but little left at noon. About three inches fell on the Flat.

Basket Social at Smock.
Smoek people invite all to attend a free program and basket social at the school house on Friday evening, November 18, beginning at 8:00 o'clock. The affair is under the direction of Miss Ruby Lammeroth, teacher, and that lady is responsible for a most pleasant evening.

Hauling Fertilizer.
John Confer has been busy this week hauling fertilizer from the ranch to his garden lots in town. John believes in preparing his soil for the next year's crop in the fall.

Carl Will Leave Maupin.
George Carl, who is in charge of the Maupin garage, has served notice, on Ben Fraley, owner, that he will leave Maupin in the near future. Mr. Carl has accepted a position as installer of farm electric light plants for a Portland concern, and plans of taking the job about the 15th instant. Since coming to Maupin Mr. Carl has made many friends, both socially and for the garage and now that he is about to leave Maupin is cause for regret on the part of many friends of both he and his estimable wife.

Home From Washington.
F. D. Tillotson has returned from a visit with the family of his niece,

Mrs. S. B. Meiser, at Connell, Washington. Mr. Tillotson is much taken up with the country around Connell, and says that prospects for a bumper crop there next year were never brighter. He says that the ranchers have been offered $8.50 per acre for their 1928 crops, and are refusing.

New Harness Shop.
A. D. Gibbs, a new arrival from Dufur, has rented the Harve Morris real estate office building and has opened a harness and shoe repairing shop. Mrs. Gibbs has spent his life working in leather and makes a bid for the trade of this section. Mr. Gibbs advertises that if the ranchers do not care to tote their harness to the shop he will go to the ranch and fix it up there. Call on him when wanting work in his line.

Guests at Dave Wilson's.
The following items were received too late for last week's issue of The Times, so we print them this week. They have to do with people visiting with Mr. and Mrs. David D. Wilson:

Paul Austin and wife of Centerville, Washington, were guests of David D. Wilson and wife last week end. Mr. Austin is Mrs. Wilson's brother and is superintendent of the Centerville schools, his wife teaching commercial branches in the same schools.

Mrs. Lucille Cantrell and Miss Tillotson were dinner guests at the Dave Wilson home last Tuesday evening.
