Personalities:

The Stovall family were dinner guests at Hotel Kelly on Sunday last.

E. O. Martin was down from Gateway on a business trip on Monday.

Mose Webb, the sage of Tygh Valley, was in Maupin Monday on business.

F. C. Butler visited a day or two in Portland the latter part of last week.

J. S. Brown and wife were in Maupin Saturday for their weekly shopping visit.

W. E. Hunt took time out of his farm work and came down to town Monday.

W. B. Sloan and wife were in Maupin from the Mays ranch, Tygh Valley, last Sunday.

Otto Herrling came down from Criterion Monday and transacted business with Maupin merchants.

Theodore Radtke spent the week end at Portland, going down on business connected with the Maupin garage.

Jess Bleakney, formerly a sheepman of this section, now living at Redmond, was in Maupin last Sunday.

John Fitzpatrick was a Maupin visitor Monday. He reports that indications are for a bumper lamb this year.

Ed. Bothwell came to Maupin on his regular semi-annual visit Monday, coming down from the Juniper Flat ranch.

Frank McCorkle came over from Dufur Tuesday and while here attended to matters connected with his cottages in Maupin.

Miss Ruby Powell returned from Portland Saturday. Ruby has been employed in the big Montgomery Ward store and says that Maupin is more homelike.

Bob Wilson, Dr. Stovall and H. R. Kaiser took the basketball team to The Dalles last Friday night, donating the use of their autos for the trip.

Jack Donaldson came home from The Dalles last week, he having been there with his wife, who is recovering from an attack of pneumonia at The Dalles hospital.

Ben Fraley was in Portland a couple of days the latter part of last week. On his return he stopped at The Dalles and called on Mrs. Jack Donaldson at The Dalles hospital, finding that lady well on the way to recovery.

Newt Morris came down from Millican Monday and while here took care of business interests. Newt is running a large number of sheep in the Millican section and says he will realize a big increase in the size of his flocks this season.

Oliver Resh and wife and O. J. Williams and wife took a ride around the highway circle Sunday. They left via Bakeoven grade, thence to the Sherman and Columbia highways to The Dalles, and came home over the Dalles California highway.

EAST MAUPIN NEWS

James Baxter and E. Herman from Antelope were in East Maupin Saturday.

Bob Fortune has returned from a visit with a cousin at Vancouver, Washington.

Arthur Philmalee came over from The Dalles and is visiting with his cousin, Marion Lister.

Cliff Miller was in East Maupin a short time Monday. Cliff has been wintering at The Dalles.

George Richardson has enlisted as section hand and is at work on the O. W. road in East Maupin.

Lester Crofoot returned to his work at Two Springs after visiting a short time at the Tunison ranch on Bakeoven.

Fred Miller and D. Falkenhagen, members of the Shaniko road crew, were working on the Criterion hill this week and while here registered at Hotel Kelly.

Johnny Williams has about completed one cabin and is at work on a second one, the two being part of six new ones he will put up this spring.

Emil Hackler was in East Maupin Thursday last while on his way home to the Flat from Portland, where he had been on business connected with his sheep ranch.

Lester Crabtree is registered at Hotel Kelly as coming from Tia Jauna, Mexico. Lester went south early in the winter to get away from the cold and blow of Eastern Oregon.

Three state highway trucks were here Monday, they being in charge of J. C. Shannon, Bob Painter and W. J. McGee. They were on their way to Redmond for work on the highway and came from Salem.

J. H. McMillan came down from Connollys sheep ranch Monday. John is making arrangements to leave for Millican, where he will work in lambing for Newt Morris and may take a band of sheep to the mountains for Morris.

Scraped Sixth Street

Richmonds evidently grew weary of tramping in the mud from the service station to their residence. On Monday Everett Richmond hitched up one of the big trucks and, with a scraper in tow proceeded to level the earth the length of a couple of blocks on that thoroughfare, making it like the highway.

Prof. Nagel Ill

Prof. Nagel was taken with a severe cold last Thursday and was compelled to forego teaching from that day until this week. He laid off on Monday, and says he was preparing to fight off an attack of pneumonia, but the ailment failed to materialize. At that he was a very sick man.

Here From Fossil

Gordon Metteer, his brother, Carl and Emery Davis drove over from Fossil Tuesday and spent a day or two at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Temple, they being father and mother of Gordon's wife.

Moved Into New Shop

Messrs. Temple and Radtke are now doing work in their enlarged auto shop, having moved the machinery thereto the last of last week. They now have the largest auto shop in Maupin and are better than ever prepared to take care of all work in their line. They intend to add several pieces of machinery to the equipment, and this will be done before spring is full upon us.

Legion Dance Saturday

Don't forget the dance at Legion hall on Saturday night of this week. The stage has been rearranged and the floor placed in better condition than ever, while the Trobadour Four have been rehearsing some new music for the occasion. Everyone knows the Legion dances are pleasurable affairs and the coming one promises to be one of the best of the season.

Supper Well Attended

The chicken supper given by the Ladies Aid at the Rainbow restaurant last evening was well attended by those to whom chicken is a delectable dish. Besides the chicken the tables contained many fine desserts, salads and other delicacies, all of which met the approval of the crowd.

Old Timer Calls

John V. Martin, at one time a prominent rancher on Juniper Flat, now living on a ranch near Boyd, was a caller in Maupin last Saturday. Mr. Martin and wife came over to assist their son, Percy, in getting settled on their old ranch, now owned by Lester Kelly, and while here called on many old friends.

Rented Kelly Ranch

Percy Martin has leased the L. D. Kelly ranch on the highway and has moved thereto. Percy has been at Gateway for some time, but the lure of Juniper Flat was too strong to remain away, hence his return.

Shipped Two Cars Hogs

Leonard Weberg and O. S. Walters, with other Flat hog growers, shipped a couple carloads of fat hogs to the Portland stockyard last Saturday night. Mr. Walters accompanied the shipment to Portland.

Stuart Took Hogs Down

Mark Stuart went to Portland late last week with a carload of fat hogs, which he gathered up around Bedmond. Pork prices are looking up from what they have been for several weeks past and Mark took advantage of the rise to get his porkers to market.

Library Hours Correction

We were misinformed last week regarding library hours in that we made mention of change from Monday to Fridays. The only change made was that of closing Monday evenings and opening instead on Fridays from 3 to 5 p. m. The hours of opening will be the same as usual. The library received 45 new books Monday, and it is the intention to secure new reading matter as often as possible hereafter.

Mrs. Donaldson Improving

Word from The Dalles relative to the condition of Mr. John Donaldson, who has been suffering with pneumonia for some time, is to the effect that the lady is making rapid recovery. Mrs. Donaldson has been very ill and there have been times when her life was despaired of. That she is making a headway toward health is welcome news to all her friends.

Registered in Portland

An item in Friday's Oregonian told of Jim Woodcock and wife being registered at the Seward hotel in that city Thursday night. Jim went to the big town on business connected with his interests here, his wife accompanying him.

Visited At Webergs

Mrs. Leonard Weberg and little daughter were guests at the O. P. Weberg home in Maupin several days last week. She returned to her Juniper Flat home Sunday, being taken up by Grandpa and Grandma Weberg.

Confer Spotted Sheep

John Confer and wife were at the Fitzpatrick sheep ranch up the river several days last week. While there John assisted in marking a band of ewes for the Fitzpatricks, and prophesies a bumper lamb crop in that flock this season.

Kelly Beat The Flu

Lester Kelly allowed himself a little out side air Saturday, that being the first time he was out of the house last week. Lester had been fighting an attack of flu, and at this writing says the ailment was almost too strong for him, but is improving.

Kreso Dip, standardized strength. All sizes. 40 cents and 75 cents at the Maupin Drug Store.

PICKED UP ABOUT TOWN

Jeas Temple felt the urge of spring on his pitching arm Sunday. He rolled up his sleeves and proceeded to "shoot 'em over" for some of the boys who have a predilection for baseball. But, oh! how that arm did hurt the next day.

Billy Heckman tried his hand at pruning one day last week. He said he did not know much about that work, but insisted that he got a big bunch of brush from the trees as a result of his labors with the pruning shears.

Joe Kramer says that if all those who said they wanted one of the new Ford cars would see their orders now, the Ford factory would be compelled to put on extra hands to get out orders out this season.

Johnny Williams has already just about completed one of the contemplated six new auto park cabins. The weather the past few days gave him the needed impetus to get busy, and he improved the time as stated.

Ben Richardson entertained a company of young people at his Pine Grove hall last Saturday night. Ben says that while his hall is not as large as some others, still the fun and good times had therein compensate for lack of room. He proposes to pull off other entertainments there as the weather becomes more favorable.

New Hedin is one of the most ambitious men in this section. While in town one day last week he busied himself in clearing his lot from stones, placing them in an old excavation, thus making a good draining place for waste water from the house.

Dick Johnson is baching while his wife is at Portland taking treatment. Dick says he can bske griddle cakes all right and open a can of jam, but when it comes to preparing a real meal, well then he comes down to Ben Fraley's and puts his feet under one of the restaurant tables.

Dave Donaldson, while on the river last week, observed myriads of small fish heaving out of the water. They seemed to be headed for Bakeoven, where the water was clearer, but our lucky fisherman was unable to determine the species of the fish; says they appeared to be about the size and color of smelt.

Much speculation is being indulged in around town concerning the boxing match between "Spin" McClasky of The Dalles and "Shorty" Behnke of Tygh Valley. Both boys have a following and it is expected boosters for each will be at the ringside to "holler" for their favorites. The smoker promises to be a hummer and many from this section will be at Tygh Valley tomorrow night.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

E. A. Mayhew was struck by Joe Ruggles car last Saturday. He had alighted from Joe Chastian's auto just as Ruggles drove up, but had presence of mind to jump on the running board and was thrown over it to the ground. He walked with a cane several days after the collision.

A sister of Mrs. Nora Philmalee and Mrs. W. D. Roberts died at her home at Wakeeney, Kansas, on the 21st. She was preparing to come to Oregon when heart failure overcame her.

John Foley and his young bride, formerly Miss Kate Murphy, are expected home from San Francisco in a day or two. They were married in the California metropolis recently and upon reaching Maupin will be at home in a neat cottage which Mr. Foley had prepared for his bride.

John Anderson, teacher of the Hungry Ridge school, contemplates a trip to the Sandwich Islands when school here is over. He has received a good offer as teacher in that part of the world.

Noah Flinn and wife went to Portland the first of the week. While there Noah will take up the matter of a broken leg, sustained 19 months ago, with the State Industrial Accident department.

Johnny Williams was splitting wood one day last week. In some unaccountable manner the axe descended on John's thumb, almost severing the member from the hand.

Anyone living west of the Deschutes river and south of Tygh is invited to become a member of the White River Federal Farm Loan association, so says W. H. Mayfield, living on Route No. 1.
