Doings at Pine Grove

The Pine Grove school entertainment on Friday evening last, which combined Valentines day with Lincoln's and Washington's birthday features, was a success. A good audience filled the school house. A special number, including birthdays of eminent persons to occur in February, was well received. Miss Flossie Overman plans to have another entertainment on March 17th, it to be in the nature of a St. Patrick's Day program.

Ben Richardson, merchant, oil and gas man, who operates a portable wood saw while resting up, has completed his dance hall and celebrated its opening last Saturday night with a dance. A good crowd from all over Wapinitia Plains attended, and the affair did not break up until 3:00 a. m. Sunday morning. Ben plans to offer his friends a place to dance once each week.

Walter Sharp and George Beebe have entered into a partnership and cutting wood is the first thing tackled by the new alliance. Beebe has purchased a drag saw from Johnnie Sinclair.

Virgil Mayfield has decided to move back to his timber claim in Kelly Gulch. He has closed his lease on the W. A. Dane ranch.

Melvin Walters and W. A. Dane spent Sunday and took dinner with Wm. Moore, the muskrat farmer, in McCubbins Gulch.

J. S. Brown's auto recently ran near the Abbott ranch road at an angle of 45 degrees. It looked as tho Sam had gotten his wires crossed. How did it happen Sam?

Lester West has learned that it is better to watch the road he rides on and to inspect the Walker-Kelly lane after he is headed straight for it. The old black horse and an oak singletree, one log chain plus Bob Shepflin and Newt Hedin combined to set his gas buggy back on the grade.

John and George Davis have been scouting Wapinitia Plains and east of the Deschutes, buying sheep to pasture on the homestead lands along the reservation hills. They plan to run 500 sheep as a capacity.

Robert and Ella Shepflin spent the week end at the ranch. They had not been home since Thanksgiving, due to bad roads and the fact that their parents were stopping in Maupin.

Wm. Sturgis has hauled Jack Kelly's alfalfa to the J. P. Abbott sheep ranch.

Mrs. Vivian Weberg spent a couple of days last week at Wapinitia and at Maupin, visiting with her and Leonard's folks.

The Tum-A-Lum Lumber company has purchased 150 tiers of wood from Mrs. N. G. Hedin.

The Elza Derthick truck was hauling wood from Pine Grove to the Kelly hotel last and this week.

J. P. Abbott purchased and has hauled a pile of oak wood from Ben and George Richardson.

George Richardson has left Pine

Grove and is at Maupin for a time. He plans to go to Prineville and from there to take a band of sheep into the Blue mountains for the summer.

Mrs. Julius Shepflin has returned home after a nursing job at Mrs. Roy Batty's.

Claus Heisler of Dufur has returned to the Burnside ranch, where he and Carl Powell are pasturing their sheep.

Fred Lyons, wood cutter of Pine Grove, has bargained for rental of the George Burnside ranch.

Connollys Getting Lambs—

It is reported that quite a few of the Connolly ewes have given birth to lambs thus early. The winter has been propitious for early lambing and as the Connollys have many thousand head of sheep early lambing with them is no new experience.

Distributing Fordsons—

Bobby Davidson and Louis Mayhew went to Portland last Thursday and on Friday returned with a couple of Fordson tractor, which had been sold by George Tillotson. They went back on a return trip Saturday and on Tuesday brought in a couple more of the Ford farm machines.
