

Personalities:

sunshine has dried it out considerably.

—

The firm of Davidson-Mayhew are putting their trucks in shape for spring hauling.

—

Dr. Elwood visited with Mrs. Elwood and son, Darrel, at The Dalles on Sunday last.

—

Miss Fern Burlingame is visiting with the Misses Fanny and Edna Derthick for a few days.

—

Cyril and Orval Fraley hauled sand from the Deschutes river to their home Monday evening.

—

Ctto Herring reports spring on the way at Criterion. He was down from his ranch on Monday.

—

The local school board recently barred school boys up to 16 years of age from loitering in the pool room.

—

Deputy Game Warden E. Gramse was in Maupin Sunday night, and while here called on The Times man.

—

Bob Fortune has decided that the Hachler sheep needed his attention, therefore went to that ranch Monday.

—

O. Paquette and Sam Well were down from Wapinitia Friday and traded with Maupin merchants while here.

—

S. A. (Brick) McLeod was over from Tygh Ridge Monday, visiting with relatives and transacting business.

—

Clarence Ziegenhagen drove the Standard Oil truck to The Dalles Tuesday, going there after some repairs.

—

Theodore Radtke went to Portland Monday morning, going down on business connected with the Maupin garage.

—

Miss Dorothy Harris, one of Maupin's popular teachers, was registered at the Bank Hotel at The Dalles last Saturday.

—

Roy Crabtree and wife were in town in yesterday. Roy has begun his spring plowing and says the ground is in fine condition for such work.

—

Spalding baseball supplies. Special rates for ball clubs and schools at the Maupin Drug Store.

—

Ben Cook came up from Portland the latter part of last week, and spent several days with relatives in this vicinity.

—

L. C. Henneghan, accompanied by his wife and Mesdames Chalmers and Kramer, were visitors at The Dalles on Tuesday.

—

Charlie Redding started up his Ford car for the first time since last fall, and took a trip up town to limber "Betsy" up.

—

The show and dance given by the Ladies Auxillary of the local American Legion post last Friday night was well attended.

—

Floyd Vanderpool and Mrs. Geo. Gill were guests at the Stat's home in this city Sunday, the visitors coming over from Dufur.

—

Dee Talcott was hauling lumber for his new house on Tuesday. Mr. Talcott recently had the misfortune of having his home burned down.

—

Chester Crabtree, after spending the greater part of the winter in California, has gone to work on the ranch of his brother, Roy, on Juniper Flat.

—

George McDonald and wife were at the county seat Tuesday, they going there for the purpose of having a physician give Mrs. McDonald treatment.

—

Miss Edna Derthick went to work as assistant to Miss Regina Muller, who has charge of the cook house at the Butler Canyon quarry, yesterday morning.

—

"Stub" Lister has decided to take his training for a while on the Lester Crabtree ranch. He will work out holding onto the handles of a footburner and direct a bunch of horses while plowing.

—

Job and Earl Crabtree drove to The Dalles Sunday, going down for the purpose of visiting their sister, Mrs. John Donaldson, who is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia at a Dalles hospital.

—

Harry Lewis was in town Tuesday.

—

Dr. Stovall was spraying his trees Tuesday.

—

Cecil Chastain was in Maupin on business on Tuesday.

—

Miss Mamie Walker of Wapinitia was in Maupin Friday.

—

Dr. Elwood visited with friends on the Flat Monday evening.

—

Julius Shepflin was down from the ranch Monday on business.

—

W. S. Woodcock and family were in town on business Saturday.

—

George Caymier was down from Wapinitia Plains on Monday.

—

Sam Brown of Wapinitia was in Maupin on business Tuesday.

—

Julius Shepflin, reports that there is still snow on the timber line.

—

Dolph Goetjen was in town on business from Tygh Valley Tuesday.

—

Wm. Woodcock and wife were over from Wamic on business Monday.

—

Vern Tunison of Bakeoven was a business visitor in Maupin Monday.

—

Gus Derthick and daughter, Fanny, visited in Tygh Valley Monday.

—

Leonard Chastain transacted business with Maupin merchants Monday.

—

A number of tourists passed thru Maupin Tuesday enroute to Portland.

—

Ollie Weberg was keeping himself busy on Tuesday spading up his garden patch.

—

A. A. Derthick of Dufur was a business visitor in Maupin Saturday and Sunday.

—

Many farmers on the Flat are getting ready to do their spring plowing. To date the ground has been too wet to work, but the last few days of

St. Patrick's Day

DANCE!

Given by the Altar Society of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, on

SATURDAY EV'NG, 17 MARCH

Maupin Legion Hall

Chicken Supper, 50c Plate

Biggest and Best Dance of Season

Tickets $1. Everybody Come

Everybody living in Maupin and vicinity is cordially invited to attend a

FREE Show AND Dance

AT LEGION HALL, MAUPIN Saturday, March 10

This is designed as an introduction to the public of our new place of business, and also as an exhibition of the

New Ford Cars-Tractors

The Show will be a five-reel showing of the making of the New Ford Car—the Model A—and will depict each transaction from the raw material to finished product. Everybody come; it's FREE!

Kramer Bros. Motor Co.

Kimsey Catches Beaver—
Mile Kimsey who has a beaver farm on White River, has augmented his stock by the addition of five fine beaver. He caught five of the rodents on Tygh Creek and these, with the one caught on Frog creek gives him a parent stock of six fine animals.

Shipped Hereford—
Mark Stuart went to Wamic last Friday and while there purchased 26 fine Hereford beef cattle from Johnson & Son. The cattle were brought to Maupin on Saturday and that evening were taken to Portland. They were the finest beaves seen here in many moons and elicited much comment when on their way through town to the depot stockyards.

Novel Mirrors Installed
The Modern Barber shop has recently purchased mirrors for use in the establishment conceded to be the most novel appliance seen for shops of this type for some time. The mirrors are invisible as installed on the rear of the barbers chair, but when brought into view can be used to allow the customer full view of any portion of his head when the trim has been completed. Six angles can be used by the barber in adjusting the glass to suit the customer's taste.—Optimist.

Cleaning Up City—
Fiske Bothwell is busy these days hauling the winter's accumulation of garbage to the dump ground. Among other things he hauled away was the contents of that big box which has set on our front porch for lo, these many moons. This was done to satisfy the aesthetic ideas of some who should have busied themselves in cleaning their own yards.

D. L. Rutherford came down from Criterion on a business trip this morning.

Ed. Steffan was hob-knobbing with Maupinites this morning, coming over from his Shady Brook home.

A fresh egg will sink rapidly when put in water while one that is stale has more tendency to float.

Tomato juice from canned tomatoes may be substituted for orange juice when the latter cannot be obtained. Children may be taught to drink it exactly like orange juice. For between-meal lunch in winter time tomato juice may be heated seasoned with a little butter, salt and bay-leaf, and served as a warm drink with a cracker.

Pick Ups About Town

Jess Temple came out of the solo tournament at the Rainbow Tuesday night wearing the victor's crown. He duplicated his playing of a week ago but had 15 more points to his credit than at the last play, marking up 850 to the good. Joe Rigles came in for his regular low man's trophy.

Joe Kramer will not again try and find out the trouble with a motor when it is in motion. The loss of the end of a finger by so doing will serve as a reminder whenever he is tempted to do that trick in the future.

Tourists have begun to arrive and, of course, are tying up at the Maupin camp grounds. Johnny Williams reports several as having occupied his cabins during the past week.

Trout fishing promises to be good this season. The early appearance of trout flies is said to be a true index of good fishing, and some of those insects have already made their appearance, so says a prominent East side fisherman.

Lew Kelly is said to be a candidate to succeed himself as county commissioner. Well L. B. has made good and there is no reason why he should not be continued in office. He has gotten used to the knocks of the public and can stand another term of such.

Charley Lake, the literary genius of Wamic was in Maupin Tuesday. The Wamic writer is hiding his light under a bushel, only allowing it to shine when there is a mail route controversy in the air. At that Charley deals out some interesting reading.

Hillstrom Bros. will soon move one of their drilling outfits to Maupin. While it is here it might be well for our county board to arrange for gravel for the Bakeoven road.

Dan Gibbs says there is no virtue in an old deck of cards. He is an inveterate pinochle player and one day recently made way with a deck, and just because there was nothing "down" when he bid on his trumps. A new deck changed his luck.

Candidates promise to be as thick as hair on a dog before long. Several already have their hats in the political ring and more are expected to be running around bareheaded before the campaign has fairly started.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

Julius Shepflin had an interesting chase with a coyote, which had a trap and a chain fastened to one foot. He killed it on the banks of White River.

The snow at Pine Grove is reported as being 15 inches deep.

A large cougar is said to be roaming the Plains around Wapinitia. Its track measures 5 inches in diameter.

Wm. Hunt returned from a trip to Portland yesterday.

A nine-pound boy arrived at the Peter Kirsch home Wednesday evening.

Among the numerous advertisements that appeared in this issue is one announcing that a stage will leave Maupin for Wapinitia at 8 a. m. and leave Wapinitia at 1:30 p. m.

Bates Shattuck made a business trip to The Dalles the first of the week.

BUTLER'S O. P. RESH MARK STUART

MAUPIN'S LEADING Grocery and Meat Market