

When a Feller Needs a Friend

Given by the Freshman Class of Tygh Valley High School, at I. O. O. F. Hall, on SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 24, 1928

Friends are a man's chief asset. Without friends one might better hie himself to the wilds and there, hermit-like, live a life of seclusion. Briggs, in his cartoons, aptly pictures the need of a friend, generally showing the plight of a lad, guilty of some infraction of parental rules. The Freshman play called if a comedy in which every situation provokes a laugh. It plainly shows that friends are necessary, even if that necessity is laughed at.

"WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND"

Dance After Show in the High School Gym

Before using a new casserole, set it on several folds of cloth or paper, into a large sauce pan and add cold water. Heat the water gradually to boiling point and keep boiling six or eight hours, then wipe utensil and set aside for future use. When ready to use heat casserole gradually, and never pour cold water in a hot dish.

Exasperating

Wouldn't it be terrible to get rid of all "comedons" (blackheads,) dandruff, halitosis and then, after completing a course on the saxophone find that you were no more popular with the ladies than before?

Suspicious of the Sex

It's strange fact, but history shows that Diogenes didn't even attempt to look for an honest women.

Life Preserver

An Irishman was telling his friend of a narrow escape in the war.

"The bullet went in me chest and came out me back," aid Pat.

"But," answered his friend, "it would go through your heart and kill you."

"Me heart was in me mouth at the time," came the quick reply.

Cause for Guessing

In Japan you can tell if a girl is single or married by looking at her hair. In America you can't tell even if it's a girl!

Real Patriotism

An American visiting in London boasted about America's superiority until his friends tire of it. Loading him to the sleeping point with whiskey, they carried him to a cemetery and let him down a newly dug grave, where he slept through the night. Awakening next morning, he climbed out and looked around. All was still.

"It's resurrection morn and I'm the first man up. America is still ahead."

Retroactive

"Who was that peach I saw you with?"

"She wasn't a peach; she was a grapefruit."

"Why grapefruit?"

"I squeezed her and she hit me in the eye!"

Knew Her Looks

Observing a young lady standing alone, the young man stepped up to her and said, "Pardon me, you look like Helen Black."

"Yes," she replied, "I know I do, but I'd look far worse in white."

From His Stomach

Mother (to Bobby)—"Surely you did something else but eat at the school treat?"

Bobbie—"Yes, mummie. After tea we sang a hymn called 'We can sing, full though we be.'"

Mother learned later that the hymn selected had been, "Weak and sinful though we be."

Pushed Thru Life

Lady (to tramp)—"Why is it that you are always begging?"

Tramp—"Well, mum, 'twas this way. I was given a bum start. When I was a baby a hired girl shoved me around in a carriage for a dollar a day—and I've been pushed for money ever since."
