Portland to assist his grandfather, W. H. Williams, in shingling, returned to the big city last week.

George Richardson has concluded his labor at Connolly's and has returned to East Maupin.

Mrs. Clark Richardson spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Johnny Williams.

Phil Mott and wife visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Andrew Cunningham last Sunday. The Motts are now residing at Fairview, near Portland.

Mrs. Clyde Mathews, niece of Mrs. O. J. Williams, gave birth to a baby boy at Snohomish, Washington, April 19. All concerned doing well, according to word received by Mrs. Williams.

G. A. Doel and wife are occupying a cottage at the Maupin camp ground. Mr. Doel is the man who is filling Bob Bell's place at the O. W. depot during Bell's time off on a vacation.

The Wilson Painting company has concluded the work of painting the cabins at the Williams camp ground and is now at work embellishing the L. B. Kelly residence with paint.

Attended Tire Meeting

Joe and Ernest Kramer attended a district meeting of the Goodyear tire dealers, held at The Dalles hotel Monday evening. Dealers to the number of 20 from this district were present. During the meeting those taking part were treated to a fine luncheon.

Dug Out 11 Coyotes

Last Sunday Dolph Goetjen and Ernest Beeks discovered a coyote den on the Billy Hunt ranch at Tygh Valley, which Dolph is farming. Procuring shovels they prospected the hole with the result that 11 yopnug coyotes were excavated.

PINE GROVE PEOPLE IN NEWS FROM THAT PLACE

Our Correspondent Awake to What ever Happens in His Own Balliwick

W. A. Dane, Timothy Linn, Ben Richardson and Frank Richardson were at the Odd Fellows lodge meeting at Maupin last Saturday night. Frank Linn is hauling 400 ricks of fir and pine wood to Maupin. Oscar (Tum-A-Lum) Renick has purchased much of Frank's wood.

Ivan Donaldson of Maupin is increasing the standard of his poultry. He procured full blood Rhode Island Red eggs from the Hedlin flocks and reports a hatch of 15 chicks from a setting of 16 eggs—his first brood.

The Wapinitia Sunday school and church invite all friends of Wapinitia and Pine Grove, as well as all others, to join in a noon basket dinner and program at the church on Sunday, May 6. The meeting is designed as a stimulating influence in religious observance and general attendance at all religious services of Sabbath school, church and Christian Endeavor.

Ben and Frank Richardson attended the Odd Fellows' services at Maupin last Sunday night. Ben is an ardent member of that order.

Walter Sharp, while not at home doctoring a sick pig, is plowing on the Harvey Morris place, using a gang and seven.

Ed. Davis, and Wm. Hunt made a trip to the Heisler-Powell sheep camp recently, taking the band to add to the Davis flock for pasturage on the reservation boundary hills.

Carl Powell visited on Tuesday last with Pine Grove friends. Carl is now chaffeur on a Ford pack mule. Hazel and Lee Laughlin of Pine Grove "stepped out" in the track meet, showing what some swift-footed young folks can do.

Melvin Walters of Pine Grove now attending the Wapinitia High school, showed the county's shot putters a clean, safe margin to work at. Melvin is a freshman in his school.

The John Williams service auto has been hauling sacked sawdust from the Hedlin mill camp.

Andy Booth and family have located at the "First and Last Chance" auto park at Pine Grove.

They reported a good time, liberal entertainment and splendid sessions of the society. Especially commendable was the work of the Dalles Boy Scouts, who ushered and guided strangers to our residence open to visitors. They also helped as K. P. assistants and generally outdid themselves to be of varied service.

Tygh Valley Doings

Remember the school play given by the Junior class of the Tygh Valley High school. This will be the outstanding play of the entire year and will be enjoyed by all who have the privilege of attending it. Play begins promptly at eight o'clock. The dance to follow the play will be given in the new gymnasium. Good music and a good time. Everybody welcome.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

(From The Times April, 27, 1917.) Mr. Hardy, of the O. T., was here Monday and told of the company's intention to build a depot below the bridge. He also stressed the need of a warehouse. Later Dr. Elwood and D. M. Shattuck called a meeting of farmers and circulated a subscription paper, getting promise of $8,400 of the proposed $12,500 estimated cost of the house.

The Maupin High school closed for this term, the attendance showing an average of 94.7. Plans for next year's work are being made and several students outside are considering attending school here.
