Ashamed of Maupin—

Several Maupin people attended the play of the Tygh Valley schools at that place last Saturday night. One of the party, a lady who takes in every home play, remarked that she was "ashamed of Maupin" when she compared the way the Tygh play was produced with the Maupin school plays.

Grades Entertainment—

Don't forget the entertainment at the High school auditorium tomorrow (Friday) night. An elaborate program has been faithfully rehearsed and an evening of real enjoyment is promised. The entertainment will be given by the pupils of all grades from the first to the sixth, inclusive.

DR. CLARK COMING

Dr. Clarke, of the Clarke Optical Co., 360A, Alder Street, Portland, Oregon, EYE SIGHT SPECIALIST, will be in Maupin all day and evening, Monday, May 14th, at the Home hotel. SEE HIM ABOUT YOUR EYES.

Busted the Bug—

The Froley boys are bewailing the busting up their new Ford bug, which had shown resplendent in white and red paint for a short time. The boys drove to Shaniko last Saturday night and on their return trip collided with what they said was a bridge. The bug is now as dilapidated insect, one fender having been ripped off and the frame bent in the shape of a circle.

Sprinkling Sawdust—

Nearly every business place in Maupin has applied a liberal dose of sawdust to their floors. This was done in anticipation of oil being tracked in when the road oiling crews begin spreading their road dressing on our streets.

A Letter From Home—

Mrs. E. A. Mayhew, living at Woodburn, recently ordered The Times sent to her address. She wrote:

"Dear Editor:
"You will find enclosed $1.50 for our home paper. I got a sample copy a few days ago and it seemed like a letter from home."

Visited at Dufur—

Yesterday Emery Davis, with his wife, Mrs. J. W. Temple and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Gordon Metter, motored to Dufur where Mr. Temple is engaged in road work.

Bobby Is Riled—

Bobby Davidson is up in arms against some pilferer who helped himself to sundry parts of our truckman's Chevrolet. The car is parked at the rear of Bobby's domicile, but that was no security, for whoever took tools, parts of the machine and several other appurtenances belonging thereto, evidently knew Davidson's habits and did his work when no one was at home.

Went After Sheep—

Billy Hunt was down from his ranch yesterday and went from here to the Smock country, where he looked over a band of sheep with the idea of buying. Mr. Hunt pastures several thousand head in the forest each year and the addition of a few hundred more woolies makes no extra trouble.

Subbed For Pratt—

Rev. Everett Hazen substituted for Carl Pratt as mail carrier yesterday. Mr. Pratt was called to The Dalles because of the condition of his father, who was to undergo an operation for a chronic disorder.

Sheep-Sheared Lawn—

Ollie Weberg is trying hard to qualify as a barber. Yesterday he got down on his narrow bones and with sheep shears in hand neatly trimmed the grass from the curb next his residence lots.

Caught the Limit—

Frank Klint, Ernest Beeks and Nick Karolus went up the river last Sunday and proceeded to catch all the trout that the law allows. Nick fished in one hole, landing nine and losing 18. His basket was full when the return trip was made, the others having nice catches of trout.

Remember the graduates. A nice assortment of presents, suitable for graduation, at the Maupin Drug Store.

Doings at Pine Grove

REV. MATTHEWS AND WIFE RETURN TO SIMNASHO

Linn & Sons Mill Ready to Start at Pine Grove—Will Do Commercial Sawing

Rev. W. A. Matthews and wife have returned to their former charge at Simnasho, having been living at Glencullen since the reverend resigned his mission at the Indian town last fall. Since his leaving the Presbyterian mission at Simnasho, on the Warm Springs reservation, has been closed. Rev. Matthews, for 13 years labored with the Indians and was much beloved by all on the reservation. During the winter months the reverend gentleman usually visits all parts of the reserve to minister to his charges, giving them, besides spiritual consolation, rations, clothing and even money. During his incumbency of the mission an addition to the church, there has been added a community house with kitchen for the preparation of lunches for the Indians who come to worship, the missionary's residence, pump tower, barns, etc. A graded day school is also maintained. There is a well, a court house and a jail, school instructor's house and farmer's house with the necessary outbuildings. The whole is supplied with water from a community system. Rev. Matthews has been called east on several occasions to tell of work done among the Indians. He is an ardent supporter of legislation and regulation that tend to the betterment of the Indian charges of the country.

New Sawmill Ready

The Linn & Son sawmill, which was burned last August shortly after being made ready to start sawing, has been replaced by another mill on the Hedin Lumber company's site and timber holdings. The new mill is ready to begin operations and will be used in commercial sawing. Linn & Sons leased the Hedin mill a week after their own mill had been burned and in the first week of operation that structure, too, went up in smoke.

The Meyers and Booth families moved last Sunday to Bear creek to be near the work of the Joe A. Graham forest crew. A new complement of workers went to the forest from Wapinitia last Monday.

Leslie Plum and family have arrived from The Dalles and Mr. Plum has gone to work with the forest crew.

A community dinner at the U. B. church, Sunday school and morning services followed by a musical program featured the day's activities at the church last Sunday.

Mrs. Addie Gunderman and two sons, who hail from Midland, Michigan, are working for Lewis E. Walters.

Autos may now drive into the national forest as far as Long Trough camp on the old road, and as far as Cedar Post camp on the new road. Trees are out of the way and the snow drifts opened. It is estimated that by the first of June travel as far as Clear Lake may be accomplished.

STEMROT IN ALFALFA

Stemrot is appearing in a number of alfalfa fields this spring. Trials at the experiment station have indicated that Grimm alfalfa is relative resistant to this disease. Some seed sold as Grimm has proved rather susceptible. The safest plan is to buy certified Grimm, which normally is resistant.
