WOULD HOG IT ALL

The Times has received a proposition from the Western Publishers League, an advertising agency of San Francisco, which for pre unmitigated gall is the worst ever.
That agency evidently wants to sop up all the profits on foreign advertising done by the country press of the country. They make no bones in asking that publishers transact all foreign advertising business thru that agency; that publishers pay them an additional commission on all business given by other agencies and that publishers designate the Frisco concern exclusive agent for all foreign advertising, whether sent through it or coming from some other agency.

A hog is a hog whether disguised by another name or not. A hog is given credit for taking everything in sight, even if it had received its share, and will crowd other hogs from the trough if strong enough.
So it appears that the Frisco concern may be compared with the porcine animal in that it desires that all business given the country press by a advertising agencies be turned over to it for payment, and for such service it is to receive an amount which means confiscation of all the profits accruing from the service rendered by the press.

Some publishers have fallen for the scheme, but in nearly every instance they have raised their rates in order to cover the additional commission to the other advertising agencies, for rates quoted them on a gross payment, it being figured that the net will allow the rate quoted to be a fair profit.

We are pleased to state that but very few have fallen for the League's proposition, and we vision a short life for the Frisco concern.

Gene Tunney has demonstrated that he is a real champion. His victory over Tom Heehey last Thursday showed that science can stop brawn. It is said that the victor will step out of the prize fight game and retire upon the accumulation of the coin of the realm he has made during the two of three years he has been at the top.

We'll bet that undesirables will give Boise, Idaho, a wide birth on the 16th to 18th of this month, when the Association of Northwest Sheriffs meet at the Idaho capital.
All the noted sleuths of this section are to be present and will deal with modern means of apprehending law breakers.

Editor Head of the Ione Independent says he has never met Judge R. R. Butler, but says that if the judge does not defeat Walter M.
Pierce for congress, he, the Independent man, will be sorely disappointed. So will thousands of others, Bro. Head.

The fact that Mr. Wm. K. Vanderbilt discovered the loss of three eggs after her house had been entered by one evidently looking for lost, is evidence that even a millionaire looks closely after the small things.

Appropriate Colors

Bright warm colors—reds, yellows and oranges—make the wearer appear much larger than soft cool colors—greens, blues and violets.
If the red, yellows and oranges are becoming to a stout person they may be chosen in the soft neutrals, as beige and sand, using a little of the intense colors in the decoration or in the accessories worn with the dress.

A decided blonde does not look well in sand and light tan—there is too little contrast.

Dark pastel colors are becoming to the blonde.

In selecting light colors the brunette will find more becoming-ness in the shades that have depth of color and some vividness.

The irregular hem line veils and flatters ill-proportioned legs. It is good for both the too stout and too thin person.

Accessories are the small details that make the completeness of a costume. A plain costume may be given a colorful, attractive effect by the use of a gay scarf, or a bright string of beads.

Wernmark's annual

SHOE SALE!

Wernmark's annual sales have always been sales of all goods in the store—not of just a few odd sizes and out of style stuff. This sale will be different from other sales by Wernmark, in that patrons will be given a chance to get

2 for 1

and in the following manner:

A person buys a pair of shoes for, say, $8 and another pair for $6—a total of $14. But instead of pay-that amount only a half, or $7.00 would be charged; or, if two ladies come in together and each buys a pair of shoes, the charge for the two pair would be but half the regular price of them. Is it plain?

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

From The Times August 3, 1917
Joe A. Graham and Mrs. Katie Amen of Wapinitia were married at The Dalles Sunday morning. Witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. D. Woodside. The newlyweds will make their home at Clackamas lake. For the summer, Mr. Graham being head forester for that district.

A sudden drop in temperature at Wamic brought a light frost there Saturday night.

Ernest Confer and Miss Daphne Dyer sprang a surprise on their friends last Saturday by going to The Dalles and getting married.
They were accompanied by Mrs.
Confer and Mrs. Dyer, mothers of the contracting parties. All returned to Maupin Sunday morning.
They were treated to the usual tin can serenade Sunday evening, responding by treating the "musicians" to all the good things imaginable.

The roof is now on the new flour mill and part of the machinery set up. It is expected the mill will be ready for operation next week.

Leonard Weberg, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Weberg, was stricken with typhoid fever last week. He was taken to Dufur where his condition is said to be much improved.

The well drillers at Lewis Walters' place are down 170 feet and are drilling through solid rock.

East Maupin news—Johnny William and wife left yesterday for a period in the mountains, where they went after berries.

Parents Visit Daughter—Mrs. E. A. Cyr was agreeably surprised last Saturday when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Nelson, drove in and called on their daughter. The visitors had been on an auto trip to Canada and while on their way home to Bend stopped off in Maupin for a couple of days.

Back From Outing—
Carl Pratt went to Swim last Sunday and returned with his family, as well as his father and sister, Mrs.
Welch, who had spent the week at that mountain resort.

Wind Shatters Grain—
The heavy wind of Tuesday stattered some grain on the Flat. It blew too hard for the harvesters to work and many of them laid off during the day.

Taken to Hospital—
James Chalmers and Joe Kramer took Chester Crabtree to The Dalles hospital last Thursday evening.
Chester was severely injured that day by falling under the feet of a horse, and it was thought he would receive better attention at the hospital than if he remained here.

Arlington—New theater and bank building will cost $35,000.
