

YOUNG BEEF!

Meat is a strength builder, and to get the full strength from that article of food only the best should be cooked. In the harvest fields a great deal of strength is required, therefore we are prepared to conserve and stimulate such workers with young grass-fed beef. None other dispensed at our shop. Come in and see it.

Personalities:

Ed. Mathews was in from his Tygh Valley ranch this morning.

Oliver Resh went to Simnasho Tuesday morning after a bunch of cattle.

Mrs. Dolph Goetjen was over from the W. E. Hunt Tygh Valley ranch a short time Monday.

A. N. Scantz and wife spent Sunday at Coburg Beach, the Hood River, bathing resort.

Job Crabtree brought his little son, James, and his wife home from The Dalles yesterday.

Geo. Mallatt and family passed thru Maupin Monday afternoon on their way to The Dalles.

Mrs. May, with Mrs. W. H. Staats, returned from a week's visit at Portland, Monday evening.

G. W. Wilson came over from Wamic and has been working in Maupin several days this week.

Darrell Elwood came up from Portland last Friday and visited with his father until the next morning.

Cleo McMorris has been assisting his father-in-law, G. W. Wilson, in kalsomining the Home Hotel this week.

Bates Shattuck and wife left last evening for the coast, where they will spend the time an extended vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Drago, from Eugene, visited with Frank Dyer and family a day or so the first of the week.

Rev. Hazen and family camped at Barlow last week and picked a quantity of huckleberries while in the mountains.

Fred Weber and wife were over from Tygh Valley Tuesday evening. Fred is now employed on the Hauser ranch on Shady brook.

Wm. Brownhill, of Gateway spent Monday night with Charley Crofoot, he being on his way home after spending some time in Portland.

Mrs. F. L. Brown came down from Bear Springs on Monday and patronized Maupin merchants, laying in supplies for her husband's road camp.

Dan Poling, one of the instructors who will teach in the Maupin schools the coming year, was in Maupin on Tuesday, sizing up the schools and getting acquainted.

Mrs. Dr. Fritz Gullick and children were guests at the Staats home last Saturday. Mrs. Gullick formerly was Miss Edith Stisher of Dufur, and now lives at Portland.

Johnny Williams and wife returned Saturday from a short stay in the berry fields in the vicinity of Government Camp, bringing quite a few gallons of huckleberries with them.

Oscar Pendergraft, a friend of Billy Miller, who is employed as railway mail clerk and who came

Pick Ups About Town

A party of Maupin people were at Barlow after huckleberries. A man and his wife discovered a fine patch and proceeded to fill their buckets. Another man, one of the party, wandered away and was gone a matter of 15 minutes. When he came back he had filled his bucket, and was accused of having emptied the contents of a preacher's receptacle in his own. He strongly denied the implication, telling of a fine patch of berries he had discovered during his absence from the rest of the folks.

Billy Miller is some fisherman. Saturday night, with a friend from Portland, he hoofed it up the river to Two Springs and the next morning they began to whip the Dechutes. They met with good success, landing nearly the limit of redsides. Billy says that catching the fish was sport, but that when he started the return hike all the pleasure of fishing disappeared, and his feet played out on him long before he reached Maupin.

Wilson the painter, with his chief helper, Cleo, McMorris, came over from Smock Prairie Monday morning, unloaded a heap of truck and proceeded to get busy decorating the rooms at the Home Hotel. "Shorty" Miller kinda overlooked the job and passed as his opinion that the Wilson Painting Co. members knew their vegetables when it comes to smearing kalsomine.

Ed. Edmunds, the fellow who developed blisters on his feet while pitching hay for Billy Hunt, is now busy getting up a race program for the coming fair. It is a safe bet he'll not have blisters anywhere on his anatomy, unless it is on his jaws, which may come from over exertion in trying to convince prospective advertisers his publication has exceptional merit.

Wayne DeJanvier, clerk at Resh's, makes periodical trips to The Dalles after freight for the store. Recently he went to the county seat after a load of goods, but on the way back experienced a hot motor. He stopped several times to let the engine cool off, and got in about three hours late. At that he lost not over 100 pounds of ice on the trip, it melting under the hot sun.

A man, driving a Massachusetts car stopped in Maupin on Sunday. He was greeted by a Maupinite and responded with: "I'm sure this is not California, for I have just come from there. I drove 1000 miles and not one person in that state gave me greeting. They are so close down there they will not use a piece of chalk to direct tourists on the tight road, but will let them drive to the end of the highway. I knew I was in Oregon as soon as I crossed the state line, not by signs but by the way people greeted me. No more Golden State for me."

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

From The Times August 10, 1917
McCorkle Bros suffered the loss of derrick table, a wagon, derrick fork, about 150 feet of cable and 150 bushels of grain at their threshing outfit Monday afternoon. By hard work the separator was saved.

The veterinary from Maupin was called to the Osborne ranch Saturday to treat a cow that had all the symptoms of rabies. O. S. Walters lost a cow from that disease a few days ago, while J. P. Abbott lost several head of hogs.

A. P. Laferty, son-in-law of Mrs. Milstead of White river, died at a hospital in The Dalles last Wednesday, August 1. Interment was made in the Tygh Valley cemetery last Friday, Rev. F. L. Burns of Portland officiating.

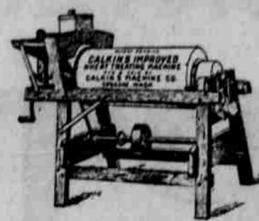

Gus Derthick came home Wednesday afternoon. He has been out of the hospital three weeks and reports that his weight has been reduced to 160 pounds.

McCorkle Bros' separator had a second fire yesterday (Thursday) by which L. B. Kelly lost a straw stack.

An average of 2,000 bushels of grain are coming to the Maupin elevator daily. The grain has been coming in for two weeks.

Several of the boys of this place have been called to take the military examination at The Dalles the coming Monday.

There's Only One Way to Get Those Big Yields

—That's to Plant Perfect Seed

If you plant weed seeds, if you plant shriveled, cracked grains, if you plant smut—how can you expect to raise money-making crops? Plant only the best of your seed if you want to make big profits.

The New Improved Calkins Combination Grader and Treater

gives you only the large plump kernels to plant. Gives you seed that is cleaned. Seed that is graded. Seed that is thoroughly treated with copper carbonate. All in ONE operation.

This year's machine is improved mechanically in a great many ways. Though the method of operation remains the same, every function has been perfected.
