 The Pratt and Welch families returned for a week's sojourn in the mountains Tuesday.

 John Eubanks and son, Vivian, were over from Wamic on a trading errand on Wednesday.
 Everett Richmond went to The Dalles yesterday and brought his wife home from the hospital.
 Among those from this section who attended the circus at The Dalles on Monday was George Mallatt and family.
 Mrs. Jacob Marine, niece of Mrs. Chas. Crofoot, came over from Pendleton Sunday and visited with her relative in Maupin a few days this week.

 Mrs. Frank Soddy, sister of B. D. Fraley, from Patterson, California, arrived Tuesday and will remain for an indefinite visit.
 Mrs. Wayne De Janvier accompanied Wm. Miller to Corvallis on Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late Chas. A. Gill.
 R. A. Barton, who has been making connection between the Oak Springs and local electrical plant, left for his Portland home today.
 George McDonald, wife and Miss Edna Ward, returned Tuesday evening from a 10-days' vacation, spent at Portland and at the coast resorts.
 Lew Henneghan and wife returned from the mountains, where they had been camping and picking berries the past few weeks, arriving last evening.
 J. W. Temple and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Gordon Metteer, and husband, coming over from The Dalles, where Jess is employed.

A. B. Smith and wife visited with home folks at Roseburg last week. When they returned to Maupin Andy was driving a brand new Chevrolet coach.
 R. E. Wilson returned Sunday evening from Portland, where he spent the week attending the buyers' affair. His wife, who had been visiting for two weeks at Portland, returned with him.
 "Butch" Copple, the snake catcher for Portland Chinks, came over from Tygh Valley Tuesday evening and traded his bug with The Times people for their Dodge touring car. Butch has a contract to deliver 100 live rattlers to the Chinamen.

EAST MAUPIN NEWS

Signe Fischer visited with East Maupin friends yesterday afternoon.
 Mrs. Ed. Fischer is visiting for a few days at the home of her son, Billy Fischer.
 Verne Fischer is sporting a new Chevrolet sedan, purchased yesterday in The Dalles.
 Bill Williams is doling up his old tin lizzie preparatory to trading it in on a new mail wagon.
 Miss Sena Peterson, county nurse, called on some orphan girls at the camp ground this morning.
 One of Lester Kelly's horses gave up the ghost yesterday, dying at Lester's Bakeoven garden ranch.
 The bridge gang of the O. W. is at work near here, placing concrete piers under nearly all the bridges.
 L. H. Towne and wife went to Portland this morning, taking advantage of the break down of the crusher.
 Frank Klint and wife and Mrs. O. J. Williams journeyed to the mountains last Sunday and picked some huckleberries.

The rock crusher broke down again this morning and as a consequence most members of the crew are enjoying a vacation.
 The flour mill is buying large quantities of wheat these days. The mill is operating quite steadily, turning out a superior grade of flour.
 The checker game is still the popular amusement at Dad Fischer's. Just who is entitled to the championship has not as yet been determined.
 Rex Rexford, the Portland traffic cop who enjoys fishing hereabouts, with two friends from Boring came up Tuesday evening and yesterday caught near the limit of fine trout.
 Mrs. Ed. Carter returned from a visit to her mother at Los Angeles yesterday. She was called there by her mother's serious illness, and when she returned reported her mother had given birth to a big baby boy.

carbon blow out, and thus set fire to the dry brush, timber, grass, or grain. The ground should be cleared down to the mineral soil for a distance of several feet around a stationary engine, and it is well to wet down the ground around it, at least twice a day.

What was probably the first "sire exchange" in the United States was held this year at the State Fair grounds in South Dakota, when livestock owners brought in their boars, rams, and bulls for trade or sale. To cover incidental expenses there was a charge of 25 cents for each boar and ram and 50 cents for each bull. The exchange aroused considerable interest and favorable comment and created an opportunity for comparison and discussion of the merits of the various animals.
