Hurt by Cow
Wayne DeJanvier is nursing a rather lame ankle. Tuesday night he was assisting in butchering a cow and when the animal fell under the blow of a hammer pinned Wayne's right ankle between her head and a two by six. The member is badly swollen and the young clerk is hobbling around town like a Ford bus with a punctured tire.

Cream producing Jersey cows to be sold at auction at old Bonney place on August 29.

Rheumatic heart disease is said to occur more frequently among fair-haired people than among those of dark complexion.

STORES TO BE CLOSED EARLY

The stores of Maupin merchants—Shattuck Bros., R. E. Wilson Co., and O. P. Resh & Co. have entered into an agreement whereby they will close at 6:00 o'clock each evening, beginning September 1st.

Inspecting Dairy Cattle
A dairyman from Monument was in Maupin Tuesday. He conducts a big dairy ranch at that place and came over for the purpose of looking over the herds of Con Buckley and Ed. Mathews, both of which men will soon hold auction sales of their herds.

James Chalmers, who recently dissolved partnership with D. Frazier, has enlisted in the army and will serve as farrier in the cavalry. He was at Dufur on a short furlough last week and says he likes army life better than blacksmithing.

Pick Ups About Town

The Dalles Optimist, in its Maupin correspondence column last week stated that "Miller Bros." had been at work calsonining the rooms at the Home hotel. "Shorty" Miller says that all his brothers are sisters, and G. W. Wilson, who did the work, says that he and Shorty are no kin. And there you are.

The sale of H. K. Hansen's stock and farm implements last Saturday brought out a large crowd. Among those who attended was Richard Johnson. "Dick" felt badly when he saw the gathering and vowed that the next sale he would be there with a load of peaches, for which his orchard is famous. The next sale will be at The Buckley ranch at Tygh Valley on the 28th. Dick.

John Stovall, erstwhile principal of the Maupin schools, is here renewing acquaintances. Mr. Stovall remarked that he considers Maupin one of the finest little cities it has been his pleasure to visit. He recognizes considerable growth and an added interest in making the place beautiful and inviting. So say all Maupinites.

Lester Crofoot and family with Carl Head and family have gone to the mountains to see if berry pickers have left a few gallons of huckleberries on the vines. They went heavily loaded with eatables, but whether or not Lester took his fish-
