Maupin, Oregon

Subscription: One year, $1.50; six months, $1.00; three months, 50cts.

Entered as second class mail matter September 8, 1914, at the post office at Maupin, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Some people say they will not vote for Hoover because he "took our sugar away from us during the war." If the use of sugar had not been curtailed at that time those same people might not now be in a position to have any at the present time, for it was by curtailing edibles at home that enabled our soldier boys to win the war, for their stomachs were kept filled by our slight sacrificing of food stuffs.

Senator Borah and his secretary were recently robbed of $700.00 while sleeping in a Lincoln, Nebraska hotel last Saturday night. No Bryan democrat would stoop so low as to rob a United States senator, so the guilty party might have been a Tammany Dem. whose party is trying to steal the country.

John M. Pipes, Portlander registered as a republican, speaks for Smith and Robertson in that city tonight. John has figured in some rather lurid law suits in the past and his present attitude suggests that he may again be indulging in a "Pipe dream."

Some people say that if Smith is elected we all may enjoy our beer.
Judging by the amount of prepared malt sold by grocery stores at this time but every few people are being deprived of that nectar favored by the Garman Baachus.

Pine Grove News

A charivari, dance and social was given at the O. S. Walters home last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar (Bug) Walters, newlyweds. Too big a crowd of friends attended the dance for comfort, but a good time was had by all the neighborhood friends. Oscar and Vesta will live in the John Ward house after some repairs are made.

Frank Richardson came out over the week end to visit with his father, Ben F. Richardson.
Mrs. Henry Peterson has gone to Maupin, where she will make her home with George McDonald and wife, intending to remain all winters.

Julius Shepflin will hold an auction sale at the old Sam Brown ranch on Saturday, October 13. N.
G. Hedin will act as auctioneer and the Maupin State bank as secretary-treasurer and clerk of the sale.
The Shepflins expect to acquire a home in Maupin later on. Julius will log for the McFarlane mill until snow stops operations.

Linn & Sons' mill has taken an additional attractive contract from the Maupin bridge contractor. The Linn have furnished a majority of the lumber for the false work of the bridge and scaffolding to date.

J. S. Brown has found a new market for his alfalfa hay at Sandy.
Trucks heretofore going west empty are now loaded with hay; thus the business ability of Sam is again shown. Sandy buyers are quick to note the food value of eastern Oregon grown hay.

Ben F. Retherford, father; Earl Retherford, brother; and Velma Hillard, friend of Blanche Rether-ford Hedin, visited with her at Maupin and Pine Grove last week.

Robert Ensign Ellinwood and family are visitors at Pine Grove this week. Mrs. Ellinwood is assisting N. G. Hedin in financing work pertaining to the dam at Clear Lake.

John Sinclair, who has been sick for some time, is again at work with the Joe A. Graham forest outfit.

J. McIntire and wife of Pine Grove, left for Goldendale, Washington, last week. He was a mill carpenter on the new McFarlane mill.

John McFarlane and family have the old Frank Houston place from the government.

Lester McCorkle has purchased the old Frank Houston place from the government.

Wm. Forman recently obtained seed wheat from Ishom West and Julius Shepflin.

Georgia Ward is the new teacher at the Victor school.

Walter Sharp is cutting oak wood for Maupin merchants.
Sam Wall is running a school bus to transport pupils from the outlying sections to and from the Wap-initia school.

Many bands of sheep are passing through here, bound for home feeding grounds.

J. P. Abbott recently lost 169 sheep at Dinger lake. After five days search they recovered 163 head—a lucky piece of work.

Trappers have caught three bears on the hills south of Fred Laughlin's during the past few weeks.

The duck season opened with a "pop" and "flap" along the upper canals.

Wm. Hickey and Wm. Faubian returned from the Blue mountains with venison the first of the week.

N. G. Hedin returned from Portland Saturday, he having spent a couple of weeks there on business.

A slight rain settled the old dust Tue-day morning.

"Buck" Harpham Injured—

We have learned that "Buck" Harpham is lying in a hospital at his home town, Los Angeles, California, suffering with a broken bone in his back.

He slipped on a wet floor while serving a customer in a restaurant where he was at work, sustaining the injury. He is lying in a plaster cast and shows but little improvement.

be able to again take up her studies.

The regular election of officers for the Maupin Community club will come before the meeting to be held

The A-B-C of Success in Dairy Farming

That the first three essentials to success in dairy farming are: good healthy cows, scientific feeding with cheaply-produced or reasonably priced feeds, and common sense management, was established in a cost-of-production study made recently in the Willamette Valley.
It was found that production should be not less than 240 pounds of butterfat annually per cow to pay a profit. Many farmers placed the minimum at 300 pounds.
Chief among the influences which raise the standard of dairy herds in this western country is the Pacific International Livestock Exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon, November 3-10. Here progressive farmers from all over the country will exhibit their finest pure bred herds. Information of incalculable value will be available.
We, here at the Maupin State Bank, believe it will be well worthwhile to go and study the educational features of this great Exposition.
