PATRONIZE FOOTBALL

(Editorial by Melvin Walters) The Wapinitia High school has taken a forward step toward a bigger, better and more up-to-date school through the undertaking of football. This school possesses a number of boys about equal weight and other requirements to any other school in the county, so why not have a team? As football is one of the most popular and thrilling games of the day, it will be a great boon to the school and help hold the ones already there, for every real boy has a desire to take part in athletics and will go to the school which affords an opportunity along this line. In the past, students have left this school and have gone elsewhere the main reason thereof being the lack of athletic activities.

The Friday, October 12, the Wapinitia team will meet their first football opponents on the Wapinitia ball grounds. This game between Tygh Valley and the home team will be the first football game in which this school has taken part. The gate receipts will go toward part payment on the suits and other expenses, henceforth the success of this undertaking depends on the interest the community takes in helping make a big attendance, not only at his game, but all other school entertainments.

At the present time the school has an opportunity to rise up and assert itself in football activities, so let all of us turn out and help push the Wapinitia school up on the ladder of success.

The Freshman Initiation

On Friday evening of last week the upper classes of the Wapinitia High school undertook the task of initiating the members of the Freshman class. The affair was free to the public. The evening was spent in pulling stunts on the victims, music and enthusiastic talks by the ambitious football players. A lunch of coffee and cake was served.

One of the interesting moments occurred when two of the boys decided they would create a little fun for the visitors. Going to the canyon they built a fire and tried to make "niggers" of themselves by applying burnt cork to their faces.
By the time they got back the crowd

All departments of the school are working on a short Columbus Day program, which will precede our sale of baskets, cakes and pies Thursday evening.

Principal L. V. Broughton and Wm. Hackler made a trip to Maupin Tuesday evening to consult Dr.
Elwood regarding a bruise William received in football practice.

The Maupin Times printed some neat handbills and tickets for the football season this week.

The Physiology class has completed a detailed outline on the digestion of food.

Ernie Endersby and Frank Hackler are leading the class in typewriting in respect to the number of assignment completed to date.

Ladies Aid Bazaar

The Ladies Aid society of the Wapinitia U. B. church will hold its fall bazaar in the John Lewis hall on Friday evening, October 26. A supper will be served from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m., the program and bazaar sale following. The many attractive and useful articles wrought by volunteer hands in loving service will unquestionably make suitable and desirable Christmas gifts. The proceeds could not go to a worthier cause than that of assisting in keeping down church expenses.
