SCHOOL NOTES

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

(Editorial by Crystal Stuart)
Many interesting issues are being brought forward in this presidential campaign. The issues are religion, prohibition, and farm relief. Al Smith, the Democrat candidate, is a Catholic and a wet, while Hoover, the Republican candidate, is a dry, taking no particular stand on religion. Both candidates say they will give aid to the farmers. Smith endorses the McNary-Haugen bill, while Hoover takes no particular stand on it.

Al Smith makes more of a popular appeal to the people than Herbert Hoover. He is more of a jolly good fellow than Hoover. Both are men of ability. Al Smith has been governor of New York for eight years and is said to have governed wisely and honestly. Hoover has held several high government offices. Hoover's positions have been appointive, however, while Smith's have been elective.

FOOTBALL

In the first game of the season, Maupin lost to the Madras Union High school, Saturday, October 6, on the local field, 18 to 0. Although inexperienced and outweighed, the local aggregation put up a hard fight, which drew the approval of those who witnessed the game.

Madras scored in the first quarter, when a pass by Crabtree was intercepted and run back for thirty yards. The try for extra points from scrimmage failed. Again in the third and fourth quarters Madras scored, each time by forward passes, which ran the score up to 18. Although Maupin did not score it had the ball within striking distance of the goal three times, only to lose possession of the ball on fumbles.

The Maupin line played a great defensive game, out-charging the experienced Madras line at will. Several long runs by the Snodgrass brothers featured the Maupin offensive, while the playing by Burns of Madras was outstanding.

With the Dufur game only two days away, and in view of the fact that Dufur held the strong Wasco team to two touchdowns last Friday, the local team is fast being put thru its paces for the coming encounter with Dufur, to be played there this week Friday.

The work of Bob Sanders of The Dalles, as referee in the Maupin-Madras game, was highly commendable and it is hoped that his services may be secured in the future.

Yell leaders were elected for the football season. They are Merle Snodgrass and "Bo" Wilson. We are all sure that they will put pep and vim into everyone, including the hard fighting eleven.

This letter of thanks was written by an appreciative student:

"Maupin, Oregon, October 8, 1928.
Dear Mr. DeVoe:

"We thank you and your manual training class for the piano bench. I am sure that the piano players enjoy it very much.

"Yours respectfully,
"Theodore Kirsch."

The manual training class completed nine boxes for the line numbers and a head-linesman's stick for the game last Saturday. They painted them blue with orange numbers. They will have the remainder for the games which will be played here.

Electric wiring is being put in the manual training room.

English III class devotes about fifteen minutes a day discussing the daily news. A three-minute talk is given by a student on the news from the front page of the paper.

The presidential campaign affords a topic of keen interest.

The regular Friday morning exercise was opened by a piano quartet, a military march, entitled "Taps" played by Charles Bothwell, Doris Kelly, Veima Crofoot and Nova Hedin. Elizabeth Rutherford then took us to the State Fair in an interesting account of her trip as a club member. The school sang "Highways are Happy Ways" for the first time. Mrs. Bothwell, a visitor, and the teachers gave their best wishes for the football game. The period closed with the practice of school yells, led by Merle Snodgrass.

Dorothy Hood and Alice Gesh, of the Tygh Valley High school, paid our school a visit Friday morning, inviting this student body to attend their football game in the afternoon. They also invited us to their mixer Friday evening.

The civics class has designed one day a week to current events. The class will be divided into two groups, one representing the Democrats and the other the Republicans. Debates will be held in class. We hope that feeling will not run too high.

The sewing class has spent the last week designing trimming lines in embroidery and cutting out patterns. One girl in class thinks sewing is great sport since she gets to rip out seams quite frequently.

Bill Slusher is making up his studies during recesses and noons so that he may play on the football team.

Several new flags has been purchased by the school board, and placed in the rooms. One of them has been placed on the staff on the grade school building.

Miss Peterson, county health nurse, and Dr. Elwood were at the High school Thursday. They came for the purpose of testing the hearts of those participating in athletics and also to take their weights and heights.

A "used car" is unused transportation

A GOOD automobile is built to stand years of use. It will provide many thousands of miles of satisfactory transportation.

But only occasionally are all its years and all its mileage used up by one owner. Many owners turn their cars in after an average use of only two to three years—long before the cars' lives have been exhausted.

This custom brings into the market every year so-called "used" cars which represent outstanding opportunities to buy unused transportation at low cost.

Every year more and more people appreciate this fact. Today millions of families are driving cars of which they are the second or third or even fourth owners; and this year the volume of new car sales and trade-in transactions has created wider choices and greater values in unused transportation than ever before.

3 out of 5 buy used cars

THREE out of five of the cars you see on the road have been purchased as "used" cars. You cannot tell—nor do you ask yourself—whether the driver of any particular car is its first owner, or its second or its third, providing the car looks well and is running satisfactorily.

The cars which General Motors dealers have accepted in trade vary in name, body style and price. Some have seen sturdy service; in others the potential mileage has scarcely been touched. And all offer a wide field of opportunities—

To the family wanting transportation at lowest possible cost.

To the family wishing to own a car of a higher price class.

To the family needing a second or third car to meet the requirements of all its members.

We invite you to examine the unused transportation in the stores of General Motors dealers. For your convenience General Motors extends the GMAC Purchase Plan.
