Smock Prairie

Weather fine; sunny skies. An abundant crop of acorns insures feed for hogs this fall.

F. T. Felch motored to Maupin on Monday.

Cecil Mayfield, wife, and Crystal motored to Warm Springs last Thursday and visited with Nathan Hill and family. Then they went to Tumalo, where they visited Mrs. Mayfield's grandmother, Mrs. Martha Davis, and with Cecil's uncle, Dudley Mayfield, returning on Sunday.

The sale at Mrs. Bradway's on Saturday was well attended, notwithstanding that but three day's notice had been given. F. L. Scott and wife will live on the place the coming year. Mrs. Bradway will live at Wilbur, Oregon, with her sister, Mrs. Carrie Horney.

H. F. Dodge and son, Frank, motored to The Dalles last Friday on business.

L. F. Scott and wife were at The Dalles on Saturday last, going there on business matters.

Mrs. F. Kirshner has been very ill at her son's home at The Dalles, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Bagenholt and daughter, Cora Jones, were visitors at Smock last week.

Carl Wrenn and David Ledford, club members, will attend the stock show at Portland next month.

Henry Kramer and family moved to Hood River last Monday.

A. J. Kistner and Jim Kistner have rented the Albert Hill place and are moving thereto this week.

Albert Hill and family moved to Tygh Valley Tuesday. Their sons, Nyal and Vernon, are attending High school there. Such removals make great inroads in our schools.

Clyde T. Bonney and wife were visitors from Tygh Valley to Smock last Sunday.

S. G. Ledford and Elsa and spending a few days with relatives at Yakima, Washington.

Pine Grove News

John Confer and some friends visited Clear Lake dam last week, incidentally hunting for geese and ducks on the lake.

Earl Retherford, brother of Blanche E. Hedin, was married in Portland last Saturday. His bride was Miss Velma Hilliard. Earl is well known to the younger sets of Maupin and Wapinitia.

R. W. Richmond is negotiating with the forest service and the Wapinitia Irrigation company for permission to make a muskrat farm at Cedar swamp.

Calvin Burnside and Mr. Weisbeck are widening the upper road that leads to the T at the Skyline trail.

Ed. Mathews and family have moved to the Burnside place.

The Wapinitia Ladies Aid society will hold its annual bazaar and sale at Wapinitia on tomorrow night. Hedin has agreed to come in from Clear lake camp and cry the sale.

Otis Chastain is hauling fence posts from the swamp to his lower Flat ranch.
