ELEVEN YEARS AGO

The Times November 16, 1917
B. Doyle has harvested a fair crop of broom corn on the C. O. farm at Wapinitia. The crop was in the nature of an experiment and has demonstrated the fact that broom corn can be successfully grown in this locality.

Alfred J. Washburn, nephew of Mrs. J. P. Abbott, and who was raised by the Abbotts in this section, died at Sapplee, Oregon, on Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott went there to be present at the funeral.

Art Fargher goes to take the army examination next week.

Word reached here Thursday of the death of J. W. Batty, at Vancouver, Washington, on the 7th instant. Mr. Batty was a civil war veteran, 73 years of age and an old resident of this place, where several relatives still reside.

W. H. Dunham has acquired the jewelry store lately operated by H. L. Emmons and has taken possession of same. Mr. Emmons has gone to Bend, where he is employed as watch maker. His wife expects to follow him in a few days.

James C. Pratt, postmaster at Wamic, and Miss Julia Savage were married at The Dalles on Monday, October 23, Rev. C. P. Bailey performing the ceremony. Both are typist, swam the Strait of Gibraltar 27 miles in 12 hours 30 minutes, being the first person known to have accomplished the feat.

Miss Joan Gatz, 18, of Lincoln, Neb., blind 17 years, suddenly recovered her sight while listening to a radio program.

Mrs. Catherine Fenton of James town, N. Y., after taking her first airplane ride at the age of 104, said, "I was as excited as when I had my first sweetheart."

Lady Bailey, wife of Sir Abe Bailey, on a flight alone from London to Capetown, crashed in landing in Tabora, Africa, but was uninjured although her plane was badly damaged.

Word was received here a few days ago that Chester Pachette, who is in the army, and who has been at Camp Green, North Carolina, has left with his company for Europe.

"INSIDE" INFORMATION

Lemon and olive oil may be used to season spinach. Pass sections of the lemon as you would with fish, and a crust of oil.

Take the guesswork out of the roasting beef by using a meat thermometer thrust into the thickest part of the meat. When the thermometer registers between 130 degrees and 150 degrees F., the meat will be rare, medium between 150 degrees and 170 degrees, and well done at about 180 degrees F.

The five food groups recognized as necessary in the day's meal.

though all five need not be represented at every meal, are: Vegetables and fruits, meat, milk and other food depended on for efficient protein, cereal grains and their products, sugar and sugar foods, fats and fat foods.

Flashlights. Complete with batteries, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.75, at the Maupin Drug Store.
