Entered as second class mail matter September 8, 1914, at the postoffice at Maupin, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

A Portland brokerage firm has kindly consented to supply this office with literature touching on the copper business of the state. Their initial bunch of "copy" came in with a request that we publish "just what appealed to us." We did—by throwing the whole bunch in the waste basket. If that firm desires to interest Maupin people in their copper stock scheme our stock in trade—space—is for sale and they can have as much as they care to pay for.

A fellow in St. Louis was recently fined $50.00 for stealing a 15 cent package of cigarettes. The Missouri judge made him "cough up" more than was in a carload.

To Cast First Vote

Mrs. Jane Anne Mandeville, of Port Crane, N. Y., will cast her first vote for Herbert Hoover on her 99th birthday, thereby laying claim to being the oldest new voter in the country. Mrs. Mandeville was the school teacher of William H. Hill, chairman of the New York State Hoover-Curtis Campaign Committee.

REPUBLICANS GIVE FARMERS HOME MARKET MONOPOLY

WASHINGTON. — The American farmer under Republican administration has had practically a monopoly of his home market. In this protected market he disposes of 95 per cent of his products at prices higher than are paid elsewhere in the world for like products. This is pointed out in the Republican campaign textbook.

The complete book is being printed in installments of which the first is devoted entirely to agriculture, and includes pertinent extracts from Herbert Hoover's acceptance address, the agricultural plank of the Kansas City platform and other pertinent data relative to the farm situation.

In addition to this, there is a recital of the Republican party's constructive legislation in behalf of agriculture since 1920, a provision intended to show that the promises now being made to the farmers by Mr. Hoover and Senator Curtis spring from a sympathetic attitude and therefore will be fulfilled in good faith by the Republicans.

The problems of agriculture are treated from an economic rather than a political viewpoint, and emphasis is laid on the freedom from economic fallacies of the agricultural legislation already passed by Republican congresses which includes 24 measures since March, 1921, when the Republicans came into office.

WASHINGTON CALLS HER GRACIOUS AND CAPABLE

Official and unofficial Washington, alike, knowing Mrs. Hoover well, call her gracious, capable, and of pleasing personality. She is also known for her wide variety of interests. She was National Chairman of the girl scouts; has travelled with her husband all over the world; is a graduate mining engineer; is co-translator with Mr. Hoover of a medieval German mining text book; the holder of several college degrees; and is recognized as an ideal hostess, wife, and mother.

HOOVERISMS

Democracy cannot survive without a large supply of capable leadership and a willingness of the citizen to exercise his right of franchise.

It is always the children who are ground in the mills of international disputes.

Constructive government is not conducted on slogans; it is built on sound statesmanship.

The American woman in the kitchen does not want gifts; the most precious thing in her life is an honest-to-God job for her man.

The beating of tom toms, throwing of mud, malice and hate and lies, ringing of phrases and slogans are no contribution to national judgment.

In America today, the poor-house is as extinct as the slave block.

THIS FARM PAYS

A VIEW of the 1230 acre farm of Herbert Hoover. Operations on Mr. Hoover's farm are conducted on the same high engineering plane as all his other enterprises. The entire acreage is irrigated and highly cultivated for big crops of quality productions. The land was worthless nine years ago when he bought it and was wrested from nature. Every variety of product such as potatoes, cotton, peaches, grapes, onions, figs, etc. is produced. Mr. Hoover constantly checks over with his manager, a university graduate farm expert who has the practical knowledge to go with his scientific education.

Humble Hoover Home Is State Shrine

This small cottage at West Branch, Iowa, where Herbert Hoover was born, has emerged from humble obscurity to become one of the historic shrines of the State. It was even smaller at the time of the birth of Republican presidential candidate. Much of the front has been added since he left to go to work on his uncle's farm after his father's death.

A STRONG WILL

She—Why so backward? I saw you kiss Miss Hasbeen under the mistletoe.

He—J promised my fiancée I'd kiss only brimley girls on Christmas eve.

HINTS FOR CHRISTMAS

IF YOU spill salt, throw a pinch over your left shoulder, and ill-luck will pass you by.

Always try to have a bit of mistletoe in the house, for it is a luck bringer.

For every kiss you take under the mistletoe a berry must be plucked and when all are plucked the privilege ceases.

If you find a bit of red ribbon or red wool amongst your presents (especially small) you will have luck in love. Be sure to wear the ribbon while you make your wish.

If you want a "Happy Christmas" put more into it than you take out.—Montreal Herald.

CHRISTMAS GREENS

CHRISTMAS trees as a family, are the oldest of all trees. Scientists say that their direct ancestors were the first flowering plants on earth. They are believed to have originated during a period of very severe climate, their needlelike leaves presenting less surface to cold and exposure than the broad leaved trees that evolved in later periods of the earth's history.

FARM POINTERS

(From School of Home Economics)

When it is necessary to lengthen a small girl's dresses, the regular gauze bandage which comes in rolls of different widths is just the thing to use in facing them. The gauze shrinks so little if it is placed on the under side when stitching, the hem will be perfectly smooth and not wrinkle when ironed.

To hasten the baking of potatoes, let them stand a few minutes in hot water, after washing them clean.

Changing the water two, or three times will keep potatoes from turning dark, or if they have been frost-bitten this will improve them.

Before trying to break a coconut put it in the oven to warm. When heated a slight blow will crack it, the shell will come off easily.

To prevent staining your fingers while paring potatoes, keep the potatoes in cold water.

A coffeepot may be cleaned by putting one tablespoon of washing soda into it and filling with water. Boil for 20 minutes and then pour out the soda and water, and wash out with fresh water several times.

If ribbed top hose are stretched and then stretched on the machine where the ribbed part is joined to the silk, runners caused by the fastening of garters will be stopped before leaving the top.
