Walter Sharp is up and around after a week in bed with the flu.

Lillian Washburn was appointed reader for the special entertainment feature for January at the Sun Day School.

Farmers are cleaning out their sawdust pits in anticipation of ice cutting which usually starts about this time. Lewis E. Walters and Ed. Davis have good ponds where most of the ice is cut.

Ben Richardson is cutting 12-inch wood with his Ford buzzer for John Williams.

Ben and Frank Richardson cut considerable slab and pole wood for Tim Linn this week.

Dewey Linn and family spent the holidays visiting friends in Portland. Dewey was sick part of the time while he was away. Too much turkey stuffin' and cranberry jelly—maybe!

Herb Lewis is busy dragging the upper highway since the snow.

Harold Walters was a Maupin visitor on Monday.

Tim Linn had business at the Maupin bank Monday.

Dorothy and Alice Davis spent the two weeks vacation at their home.

John and Charles Davis were home also.

Wm. Forman sold a timber claim to Ruben Walters. Ruben has been trapping some this winter. He sold three coyote skins to Sears, Roebuck for $35.00.

Melvin and Lucile Walters visited the Hedin home Sunday, taking dinner there.

Hazel Laughlin and brother, Lee, are again back to Wpinitia to attend High school.

The Pine Grove quartet serenades the whole neighborhood from one setting. The vocalists are four husky coyotes penned up at Dewey Linn's place. Wild coyotes answer from the hills and then all the dogs howl in defiance, and that is some refrain on the midnight air.

Mrs. Beulah Burnside, now in The Dalles, writes that Jeannette was home for the holidays. She is attending school at Philomath college.

Cloyce is back to Illinois attending medical school.

Calvin Burnside, who works for Joe Graham each forestry season, is visiting in the east. George Burnside works at The Dalles dryer.

W. A. Dane started the New Year by starting for California, to visit his sister.

Mrs. Julius Shepflin was nurse and helper at Burt Hammer's home. Grandma is better. Ella Shepflin, daughter of Mrs. Shepflin, was a Maupin visitor for two weeks. She is attending business college at Portland.

Ed. Brown made a fiddle. He used part of an apple box, part of the veneer casing on a syrup can, some pussy's insides for strings, and it plays fine. He sold it for $12.00. Can you beat that?

School reopened on December 31, after a recess of one week. New Years day was observed as a holiday.

The Boys' Athletic club has arranged for the rent of the Lewis hall for basketball practice. It also will be available for public gatherings.

On Monday of this week seven pupils were advised to remain at home for a few days until a contagious skin disease could be properly diagnosed and treated. The infection had spread rapidly and threatened to affect the whole school.

A few pupils are absent because of bad colds or flu.

The grade teachers spent the Christmas recess at The Dalles. Mr. Broughton enjoyed the vacation at home. The family motored to Shaniko for Saturday and Sunday.

Lakeside—Approximately $3,756 will be expended for building underground crossing here.

VACANT FARM HOUSE BURNED

Residence on Old John S. Taylor Place Consumed by Fire

Many of our people were attracted by a reflection of a fire in the sky to the north of town Sunday night, the fire appearing to be about the east end of Tygh Valley or in the neighborhood of Sherar Bridge. Investigation, however, revealed the fact that the fire occurred on the old John S. Taylor ranch, below the power plant on White river.

The place has been unoccupied for about five years. It formerly was known as the R. C. Tunison ranch and contained a small house and several outbuildings, including a fair size barn. The house was entirely consumed. There seems to be no idea as to how the fire started, although some suppose that itinerant travelers may have been there at the time of the fire and to have carelessly thrown a lighted match or cigarette stub into dry refuse.

OPENS BIG BARBECUE PLACE

Ed. McMahon Installs New Eating Place at The Dalles

Ed. McMahon, who for many years has operated the American restaurant at the county seat, and who a few months back took over the Black and White restaurant, has lately opened a new eating place in that city, this time installing a barbecue lunch station.

The new place is located at 412 East Second street, a few doors west of the American. It is equipped with a large horseshoe counter with fine stools, while the cooking and serving place is filled with the latest in steam heaters, coffee urns, dish racks and other appurtenances which go to make up a first class restaurant. A feature of the equipment is a large revolving spit, used for roasting meats, fowl, fish, etc. This roster works automatically and the spit turns at any desired rate, thus completing a roast to the queen's taste.

Competent help is employed and the service is of the best. Maupinite, while in The Dalles and desiring a lunch will make no mistake by patronizing the Barbecue, as there tastes and peculiarities of appetite will be catered to with the utmost satisfaction.

Visiting Her Brother—

Mrs. J. C. Idhe, sister of Hugo Fischer, arrived from Canada on Sunday and will visit with her brother. She was met of White Salmon by Verne Fischer, who brought her on to Maupin.
