Early Strawberry Blossoms— This hanna belt holds supremacy over all eastern Oregon. In our strawberry patch are several plants that already bear blossoms, therefore we are fixing our mouths for some early strawberry short-cake.

S. S. Easter Services— The U. B. Sabbath school scholars provided an Easter program on Sunday, it consisting of recitations and songs by the junior and intermediate classes and a special Easter song by a quartette made up of members of the Bible class. A fairly large attendance was out.

Gene to The Mountains— Fred Hachler was summoned to work in the forest reserve by the ranger in charge, and left for Portland on Monday. There he will learn just what part of the reserve he will be employed in, go there and begin his season's labor.

Child to The Dalles— Rev. Everett Hazen and wife went to The Dalles last Saturday for the purpose of taking their infant daughter for treatment. Dr. Coberth operated on the little girl and opened several abscesses, with relief to the sufferer. There now is hope for her complete recovery.

New Hello Girl— Miss Gertrude Laughlin has accepted a position as "hello" girl at the Maupin telephone exchange. She has not had previous experience on the board but her winning, cheerful manner will prove an asset to Mr. Bays. Undoubtedly Miss Gertrude will graduate as a competent operator.

New Gas Pump— Bates Shattuck is replacing his antiquated gas pump with a modern dispenser of the fluid that makes autos run. The new pump is the latest design, visible and will greatly improve the gas stand in front of his store.

All But One Convicted— The only two counties in Oregon where arrests for game violation were not made last year were Sherman and Wheeler. Coos with a total of 61 arrests stood highest on the list of counties and there was only one man arrested who escaped conviction.

Will Move to The Dalles— Alvin Martin has purchased a home in The Dalles and he and family expect to soon move there. The Dalles' gain is Maupin's loss, for the Martins have long been one of this town's leading families. All who know them will regret their departure from Maupin.

Game Warden's Convention— The state game warden's convention will be held in Portland April 8th and 9th. At that time all of the 50 deputy game wardens that are scattered throughout the state will gather for the purpose of discussing changes in the laws that were made during the last session of the legislature.

Building Show Window— Arthur Creighton was at work Monday afternoon building a show window display enclosure on the east window of the Kramer garage. The window will be used to display Ford auto accessories.

Fruit Slightly Injured— Dick Johnson reports that the winter frost failed to kill all of the peach fruit spurs in his orchard. The extreme cold weather hurt the buds some but did not kill them, so hard that no peaches will be grown. All other fruits came through in fine shape. The prevailing cold weather will have the effect of retarding blossoming, thus obviating all chance of injury by later frosts, should they come.

REGARDING GAME REFUGES

Canada Asks Information Concerning Oregon's Game Preserves

Several provinces of Canada have recently written Harold Clifford, state game warden, asking for information relative to the establishment of game refuges. In Oregon a total of 2,788,245 acres of land have been designated as game refuges by the state legislature and by arrangement with the game commission an additional 198,769 acres have been set aside as areas where it is unlawful at any time to kill game animals.

DR. CLARKE COMING
Dr. Clarke of the Clarke Optical Company, 202 and 203 Merchants Trust Building, Sixth and Washington streets, Portland, Oregon, eye-sight specialist, will be in Maupin on Monday, April 8th, at Home hotel all day and evening. SEE HIM ABOUT YOUR EYES.

GREY EAGLES KILL SHEEP
Forty Woolies Slaughtered Down in Douglas County
Grey eagles have been working on the sheep herd of Irvin Mather, a farmer living near Roseburg, according to a report made to the State Game Commission. Mr. Mather has stated that approximately 40 of his spring lambs have been killed and carried away by the eagles and that he has seen as many as eight of the birds on his place at one time.

Thumb Dislocated— A Portland man named Clifford E. Mincey, working for the Connollys, sustained a badly dislocated thumb on Sunday. He fell, striking on the digit, forcing the bone back to the hand and splintering a small piece from it. Dr. Elwood took an X-ray of the injury Mincey was sent home to Portland for further treatment.

Snow This Morning— This is April, the month which is supposed to produce showers for bringing forth of May flowers. Snow however, filled the air for a short time this morning, causing an extra chill to permeate the air.

Has your dustpan a firm straight edge which fits the floor so that part of the dust is not brushed underneath? A long-handled dustpan saves much stooping.

IT'S CHEAPER TO LIVE

A live man pays 25 cents for a shave while it costs a dead one $5.00.
A wool coat costs $25; a wooden one $100.
Taxi for the theatre is $1.50; to the cemetery $5.50.
A hired man plants corn for 25 cents per hour, but for planting you, he gets four times as much.
For 50 cents you can fill your hide with home brew; but the embalmer gets $15.

Pick Ups About Town

O. E. Bays, abetted and inspired by the "spirit of April Fools' day, invited certain Maupin merchant to look skyward for north-bound geese on Monday. The merchants discovered they were "gooses" for falling for the joke.

Doc Short pulled a hot one during the High school vaudeville, when he charged Verne Fischer with having taken up plumbing as a side line. At any rate the "gag" was duly appreciated by the large audience, although the doctor failed to make connection between the plumber and hotel tub.

Bill Schilling has improved his spare time fixing his Cole 8 so it would function properly. He took the mill to pieces, ground the valves, fixed the wiring, timed the timer, lubricated the cut-out, repaired a hole in the driver's cushion, spliced the fan belt, polished the light lenses, polished the radiator cap, washed the carburetor and now has the boat in fine shape for a trip for the coming of the fishing season. Bill is now looking around for bait, and if he is successful in securing same will be all set to gather in messes of rainbow trout.

Frank Creager has been industriously spading up his garden patch. He now has the ground in a mellow condition, ready for vegetable seed. Frank says he has a notion to mate a pond in his barnyard, sow water cress and make a place for the propagation of frogs. He says he could not sell the frogs he knows of a market for hops and could dispose of all the frogs made.

"Shorty" Miller is one painter who has all the work he can handle. He has decorated the drug store, Stovall's residence, Dr. Elwood's office and home, Bill Williams' domicile, the interior of the Rainbow cafe and now is going to the Flat and there make several buildings more presentable. "Shorty" says there is more real profit in painting than in all the games of penmanship he ever played.

Dr. Clarke, Eyesight Specialist, will be in Maupin on Monday April
