SCOUT TROOP NO. 33 VISITS AT THE DALLES

Receives Commendation on Appearance and Proficiency—Five Dalles Troops There

Nineteen members of Scout troop No. 33, with Scout Master Stovall and Troop Committeemen Stuart, Fischer, Wilson and Pratt, made a trip to The Dalles Wednesday evening and participated in a court of honor, held in the circuit court room.

Judge F. W. Wilson presided and in the course of his remarks highly commended the local troop on its appearance and proficiency. So greatly impressed was the judge with our troop that he accorded the members seats of honor, asking the committeemen to occupy seats with him on the bench.

During the exercises second class pins were pinned on Scouts Forrest Urban and Vern Hull, members of Maupin's troop, and living at Wamic. The showing by all the scouts was good and they maintained a dignity during the meeting in keeping with the tenets of the organization.

Those taking the recouts were Dr. Stovall, F. D. Stuart, Laverne Fischer, R. E. Wilson and R. H. Kaiser. Ladies accompanying the troop were Mesdames Wilson, Stovall, Kaiser and Kramer. Five Dalles troops were represented at the meeting.

FISHED ON THE OPENING DAY

Many Waltonians Seek Deschutes and Mountain Streams on Tuesday

Maupin fishermen were out bright and early Tuesday morning, going to the Deschutes and other streams after trout. Jim Chalmers fished a little while and came home with a mess of five fine reddsides. Tom Henneghan and Arthur Creighton went above the mouth of Wapinitia creek, Tom getting the limit while Arthur contented himself with eight trout. Joe Kramer also brot trout home for dinner. The Times man with "Shorty" Miller went to Deep creek, they securing about 45 fine reddsides. John Confer went to the river and when he had landed 10 fish came home. Others made good catches, the fish taking both bait and fly with avidity.

New Hello Girl

Miss Esther Marks has succeeded to the job of calling "What number, please?" at the local telephone exchange. Miss Marks succeeds Miss Gertrude Laughlin, whose health demands that she seek the outdoors.

KRAMER NATIONALLY NOTICED

Automobile News Carries Picture of Joe as a Hunter

Joe Kramer has attained national notice through the columns of the April issue of the Automobile News. In that publication there is a picture of Joe as he appeared in hunting costume, he being backed up by the carcass of a deer and some fine deer horns. The picture was taken in front of the Kramer Bros. garage last fall.

Fixing Up Plant

The Maupin Power company is at work rewinding a generator and erecting a large transformer at the Oak Springs plant. When these improvements are completed it is supposed that the local trouble experienced at odd times will be obviated and that the plant will work according to schedule.

Redding Very Ill

Charley Redding is very ill at his home in the Kelly cottage on Bakeoven. He recently apparently recovered from an attack of flu but suffered a relapse, which is so severe as to cause him to again take to his bed.

Another Scout Picture

Maupin Scout troop No. 33 will sponsor another movie at the Legion hall, the showing to be on Thursday, April 25. The picture selected for this showing will be "The Quarterback," one of the best stories of boy and college life ever filmed. Prices will be 20 cents for children and students and 35 cents for adults.

Moves to Maupin

Floyd McLeod and family have left their Criterion ranch and have moved to Maupin, they now occupying the Ayers cottage. Floyd has been wrestling with the bunch grass and rocks of the upper country for several years and has decided that life in town is preferable to that of the cold and bleak hills. Welcome to Maupin, Floyd.

Obains 93 Per Cent

The Hunt sheep have gotten thru lambing and Mr. Hunt reports a good 93 per cent increase. The Hunt sheep came thru the hard winter in good shape, which accounts for the high average obtained in this spring's lambs.

Wamic Garage Man

J. B. Bourland, who conducts the service and battery station at Wamic, was in Maupin Tuesday. Mr. Bourland purchased the service station formerly conducted by Bernard Welch and also acquired the gas pump of Mr. Johnson. He makes a specialty of battery work and also carries a large stock of auto accessories as well as a nice line of oils and greases. Mr. Bourland for several years conducted a blacksmith shop at Boyd.
