New Library Books—
Mrs. Dyer reports quite a number of new books to come to the traveling library soon. Patronage of our library is growing by leaps and bounds and it keeps the librarian on the jump every day the room is open.

expansion in capacity of bakery recently acquired by Barber Bread company.
John Day Highway will be oiled between Condon and Posall.

A Taste of Woe Nothing is more disheartening than to drive ten miles out to visit a friend and then find out that the chickens are not large enough to fry.—Hiawatha World.

Name Now Seldom Used Helvetia is the old Roman name for what corresponds to the modern Switzerland, and the name is still used in poetic references to that country.

Don't Ask Us
Another of life's unsolved mysteries is why a moth always chooses

A Dollar Dinner For Four

A Lenten dinner which is unusual, delicious and inexpensive can be prepared for four people for a dollar—as witness this menu:

- Cod Fish Patties
- Buttered Onions
- Mexican Corn
- Boston Brown Bread and Butter
- Peach Puffs
- Café-Noir

To make the codfish patties, mix the fish from a can of codfish flakes (which are ready to fry) with one cup of mashed potatoes left over from the day before. Mold into patties, flour them, and sauté in hot fat until brown.

For Mexican corn, sauté half a minced onion in one tablespoon butter until brown, add one-half tablespoon flour and stir; then add one cup of canned tomatoes, one eight-ounce can of corn, one canned, minced pimiento, one-half teaspoon sage, a dash of pepper and salt to taste. Bring to boiling and pour into a buttered baking dish. Cover thickly with buttered crumbs and brown in a hot oven.

A small can of Boston brown bread should be heated in boiling water for about fifteen minutes, then opened, turned out of the can and served.

For peach puffs, put a marshmallow in each of four canned peach halves. Bake until the marshmallows are puffed and serve on circles of sponge cake with plenty of peach syrup.

City prices, which are usually high, are as follows: cod fish patties, 23 cents; buttered onions, 10 cents; Mexican corn, 22 cents; brown bread and butter, 15 cents; (the can of brown bread is 10 cents); peach puffs, 17 cents (10 cents for the four peach halves); café noir, 5 cents; total, 92 cents.
The extra 8 cents will take care of the incidentals.*

that out of the carcasses.

Many Fishermen Here—Last Saturday and Sunday saw many outside fishermen in Maupin, they coming from Portland, The Dalles and other places. Most of them fished down river and some fine catches were made. At one time Sunday 52 cars were counted, they being parked at the camp grounds and on the flat below the bridge.

Portland Optician Calls—Dr. Fred Pegeler, formerly conducting the Delarhue Optical parlors at The Dalles, with Miss Marie Seufert, came in from Portland Saturday evening and the next day fished below Oak Spring. They caught but few trout, as Doc's reel went haywire which caused him to let up in his piscatorial efforts. The Times acknowledges a pleasant call.

Puppy Killed—
Bill Schilling's little ones are grieving over the loss of their little puppy.
The little doglets was mixed up with the wheels of the maintenance truck at the Maupin garage on Sunday with the result that its body proved too weak to hold up the heavy vehicle. Result a dead puppy.

Time Drawing Nigh—May 1st is fast coming and when that date arrives Mr. and Mrs. A.
E. Caton will relinquish their conduct of the Hotel Kelly. The leaving of that estimable couple is regretted by all Maupinites, and hundreds of commercial men and fishermen will also regret their leaving and will miss their pleasant faces and welcoming smiles when registering at the hotel. The Catons will retire to private life and will remain in Maupin until school is out for the year.

Actors Passed Through—Clyde T. Bonney and his troupe of amateur thespians passed thru Maupin last Saturday enroute to Grass Valley, where the class put on the comedy "Step on it Stan."
"Dummy" will be produced at the Tygh Valley opera house this week Saturday and is a high class comedy.
Maupin people are especially invited to attend its presentation.

Raymond Crabtree Improving—The condition of Raymond Crabtree, who was operated on for appendicitis a week ago at The Dalles, is such as to inspire all that he will soon be able to return to his home.
Raymond has always lived a clean life and that fact has much to do with the quick recovery he is making.
