Many people Say Celebration of Bridge Completion Should Be Arranged

Last week this paper suggested that a celebration of the completion of the finest bridge in eastern Oreron, that at Maupin over the Dehutes, should be marked by a celebration. Since that paper was out many people of this section have econded our motion, and many are n harty favor of fittingly marking he completion of the structure.

The contractors tay the bridge vill be ready for traffic about the 5th of June, they now being en-aged in spreading the final layer f concrete on the roadway. It is xpected that state highway departtent will have completed the aproaches by the above date. Then ould be the proper time to hold celebration, and to that end we gain suggest that the city council ake the matter up and prosecute it o a successful termination. The Crooked river bridge dedication tarked a precedent and we believe ame should be followed in the intance of our bridge.

Let's get busy and arrange that prominent men of the state be presnt and fittingly dedicate the new ridge. By so doing w would again tamp Maupin a little more promient on the highway map of the tate and at the same time enjoy he presence of notables who have elped make our extensive highway ! . program one of the finest in the ountry. tound-Up at Fair Grounds Will Start Summer Diversions

Saturday and Sunday will be rala events in southern Wa co couny, for on those days Everett Wilon's big rodeo company will stage round-up and race program that vill far outstrip all former events of that nature. Everett has a new bunch of buckers, has outfitted for many entries in chariot races and has arranged a program that will keep attendants on their feet all the time. A special feautre of the days will be the riding of Peggy Adams, noted wild horse rider, who will feature both days. Miss Adams is well known where round-ups are held, having participated at Pendleton, Cheyenne, Calgary and many southorn places. Lay aside your trouble, and go to he Tygh Valley fair grounds each iay and there witness some real -iding, such as features the larger ffairs of the kind. You will be vell entertained and get your noney's worth of pleasure out of our trip.

Misa Matthews grew sentimental when she bade adieu to her classmates as such and voiced the hope that each might attain a niche in life's activities worthy of the efforts they had put forth in completing the course of the local school.

A vocal trio, Mesdames Bothwell. Morris and Woodcock, next sang "Dreaming Alone in the Moonlight," the ladie, seeming to excel themselves in its rendition. Each was in good voice and the blending of the tones in the various phases of the song was a delightful part of the program.
