One Too Many

The old armer was angry, "What ye comin' home with your milk pail empty fer? Didn't the old cow give any thing?"
"Yes, replied his son; "nine quarts and kick."

Tourists Call on Hazen

James McIntyre and wife, former members of the U. B. church at Amboy where Rev. Hazen was stationed before coming to Maupin, were callers on the minister here on Monday. They were on their way to Bend and from there intended to tour California in company of their son, who lives at Klamath.

Oil Struck at Fossil

The company that is drilling an oil well at Fossil was notified on Monday that a substance resembling tar and crude oil was seeping into the well. The substance seemed to be leaking from a fissure already penetrated by the drill. It will be tested for determination as to just what it is. The Fossil well is but a very few miles from the Clarno field.

Home From Grand Lodge

O. F. Renick, James Chalmers and Mesdames O. P. Weberg, B. F. Turner and R. E. Wilson returned from a session of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, held at Medford last week, on Saturday night. The delegates enjoyed themselves greatly and are loud in praise of the entertainment received at the hands of the Medford people. Mrs. Wilson was in talled as organist of the Rebekah grand lodge while at Medford.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO

From The Times May 24 1918
After the school entertainment at the hall Saturday night last a Red Cross benefit and auction was held. A sheep was sold and resold, realizing a total of $125.00. Added to the work of the soliciting committee for the day about $1,000 was paid in.

G. I. Derthick left last Thursday morning for Bremerton. Dolphus Mayhew expects to go there the first of the week.

Job Crabtree and Frank Stuart left Saturday for Grank lodge of Odd Fellows, which convenes at Seaside this week.

Camp meetings are in progress at Wapinitia. A basket dinner will be held on Sunday in the grove.

A hard frost struck some spots above Wapinitia last week, killing vegetables in many gardens.

A fine rain fell on the Flat Monday night. It wet the ground to a depth of five inches, which insures a good crop.

Facing the FIRE Facts

Fire costs the nation over five hundred million dollars a year.

Every minute property worth $1044 is consumed by fire.

Carelessness causes a majority of fires. Seventy-five percent of the fires in the country are preventable.

The most important fact is that this loss may come to you.

A Fire Insurance Policy in The Home Insurance Company of New York assures reimbursement for your financial loss.

Don't delay. Instruct your Home agent to provide you with sufficient sound fire insurance.
