The Story

When a reward sign is posted up for Granger Hume, Dad Walker and Buckskin Jack, Granger decides to visit town and see who is behind it all. His face shielded in a mask he attends a ball where he meets and falls in love with Nancy Carrol, sweetheart of the powerful and wealthy land-baron, Badger Brogan. He discovers that Brogan is the man who seeks their capture, having a grudge against Dad Walker for having run him out of town a year back.

After a quarrel with Brogan, Granger Hume and his pal escape to join Dad Walker. But they are discovered by Brogan's henchmen and Dad Walker is shot down. Before he dies he tells Hume that the gospel of the gun is all wrong and gets him to promise not to avenge his death by shooting Brogan.

Hume, who is known only by repute to Brogan, changes clothes with the new parson on his way to town, and puts up at the Carrol ranch. While posing in this guise he overhears a plot of Brogan to raid the neighboring ranches and frustrates it by warning the townspeople. He is pursued by the wrathful Brogan and his band of marauders. Brogan makes his way into the house where Hume and Nancy are staying and Hume, in self-defense, is obliged to break his promise to Dad Walker and preach gun-gospel, killing Brogan.

Hume, by shooting his own peculiar mark above the door, reveals himself to everybody and he is lauded as a hero. But he is a hero most of all to Nancy, whom he takes in his arms, while Tarzan, his faithful horse, neighs his delight.

At Legion hall next Sunday night. News reel and comedy.

Grass Fire—

A grass fire called out the fire department yesterday afternoon and when the firemen reached the scene was burning fiercely. The hillside at the rear of the Elwood, Martin and Dyer residences was all aflame, but with a strong stream of water judiciously applied the blaze was soon under control. The only loss was a section of unappreciated sage brush.

Base Ball Sunday—

A game of baseball is scheduled for Sunday afternoon on the home grounds, it being between a team from the county seat and the Maupin aggregation. Admission has been placed at 25 cents and 35 cents and the game will be called at 2.30 o'clock.

Cleaned Streets—

Councilman Everett Richmond, with Frank Creager and Bobby Shepflin, were busy several days last and this week getting the two business blocks of our main street in condition to receive a coating of oil and gravel. They cleaned out all the weeds as well as an accumulation of washed in dirt and small stones and now the road oilers may get busy as soon as they choose.

Facing the FIRE Facts

Fire costs the nation over five hundred million dollars a year.

Every minute property worth $1044 is consumed by fire.

Carelessness causes a majority of fires. Seventy-five percent of the fires in the country are preventable.

The most important fact is that this loss may come to you.

A Fire Insurance Policy in The Home Insurance Company of New York assures reimbursement for your financial loss.

Don't delay. Instruct your Home agent to provide you with sufficient sound fire insurance.
