Pine Grove News

The American Legion of Maupin held a picnic on Sunday at the "First and Last Chance" service station park here. A fine picnic dinner was served, this topped off with ice cream. In the spirited horseshoe games Raymond Crabtree and Lester McCorkle were champions for the day by a margin so fine that it took several straight sticks and much laughter and joking to settle the matter.

A state traffic officer was combing the east slope of the Mt. Hood national forest on all roads and trails after a hit and run driver who fled from the Mt. Hood loop after disabling another car and injuring the occupants. He left word at Ben's filling station for Ben to look out for the escaping car, which showed marks of the collision. None were found, however.

Blanch E. Hedin went to Corvallis Sunday, having charge of 13 boys and girls of the 4-H clubs. Dava Wilson drove the children down in the school bus. Nova Hedin joined the party at Portland, she having been visiting in Portland since school let out.

Floyd and Ruby Richmond were greeting and treating friends at Pine Grove Sunday. The long strong cigars Floyd passed out were solemnly burned in honor of the donors' wedding.

News comes from San Francisco that Carrie Doyle Kirkham has married at Sausalito, California. The name of her new husband has not been learned.

Andy Anderson has quit the Alt Logging company to work for "Dock" Wilkins on the road grade near Clear Creek.

Bids were let on Tuesday in Portland for the 13 miles of ungraveled road of the Wapinitia-Mt. Hood highway. $137,000 were appropriated for the work.

The four Towne men working at the McFarlane mill and Andy Booth have quit. The Towne men left for California while Andy is seeking local work.

Tim and Dewey Linn have purchased the Olson timber tract and are ready to saw out orders, coming in daily, for local use. Tim and Dewey are rustlers and out of the trying fires that destroyed the mills and lumber piles at Hedin's and their own mills, have again climbed out to a place in the commercial affairs of this district. Linn & Son have three carloads of "clears" at the Maupin tracks, ready to sell and load out, valued at $2,500. The Darling-Singer Lumber company of Portland is backing Linn's mill. It is expected that other tracts will be purchased in a few weeks to add to the timber holdings of the firm.

Carl Powell and Nevada Hulbert were visiting at Pine Grove Sunday along with Ruby and Floyd Richmond.

A home dancing party was given at the Walters place last Saturday night.

H. N. Dodge of Wamic paid a visit to Pine Grove advertising his Saturday auction sale, which N. G. Hedin will cry.

Wm. Sturges is hauling wood from the Sharp-Hedin camp on the Dane place. Sturges purchased a brood sow from Hedin on Tuesday.

Gertrude Laughlin is again in charge of the switchboard at the Maupin exchange during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Bays.

Roy Woodside of Portland visited at Wapinitia and Pine Grove from Sunday to Thursday of last week, when he returned to his work at Portland.

Clifford Allen is working for "Dock" Wilkins.

George Beebe is in the mountains riding after horses.

Mrs. Ed. Davis returned last Saturday from a three-weeks' visit at Bend, where her children are living. She reports the new baby girl, Stella, doing fine.

Frank Batty, O. Bronner and N. G. Hedin found one of Linn & Sons horses tangled in a new rope at Pine Grove last Friday. They liberated the animal, which sustained some skinned spots.

Bertha and John Boen and family were Pine Grove visitors recently.

Some stray emaciated cayuses are on the road lanes, with T. B. Some action should be taken, legally or will be their first visit to the carnival, although Mr. DeCamp has lived here for the past 20 years he has never attended the big fete at Portland before.

Bernice Linn gave a reading at the Pine Grove Sunday school as a special feature last Sunday. Lucile and Melvin Walters carried forward the musical program in the absence of Mrs. Hedin, the organist.

The last big break in the canal at Station 70 required seven and one-half days' labor of from 17 to 25 men to repair. A quantity of powder was used to make a new canal on the hillside. Among the men who helped repair the break were Ed. Walter, Tom Slusher, George Claymier, L. E. Walters, Arthur Morris, Reuben and Oscar Walters, T. B. and Bill Slusher, Rufus, Calvin and Lester McCorkle, Ed. and Wilbur Mathews, Jerry and Lloyd Claymier, John Powell, Richard Olmstead, John Boen, John Davis, Roy and Roscoe Batty, Ralph Woodside, A. Sturgis, Moe DeLore, Arthur Pechette, Ora and Marion Walters, Bert Hammer, Ernest Endersby, Charles Lewis Joe and Floyd Eubanks, Buckner, Don Miller, N. G. Hedin and others. Tools, sacks, powder caps, etc., were furnished by many who could not get away to go personally to the scene of the break to help make repairs.

HOME POINTERS

Water spots may be removed from silk dresses by rubbing the material between the fingers.

Hair brushes and combs may be cleaned by putting a few drops of ammonia in the cleansing water.

Dull scissors may be sharpened by cutting through a piece of sandpaper several times.

Hot soda water is an inexpensive means of softening old, hard and dried paint brushes.

A time saver in baking cookies is to roll out dough, cut in squares and bake.

At Rose Carnival—
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. DeCamp and the latter's daughter, went to Portland yesterday and will take in the finish of the rose carnival. This

Some tomato growers allow diseases to destroy their crop on the belief that praying delays maturity. Spraying experiments conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture over a period of seven years show that there is no difference in the average earliness of sprayed and unsprayed tomatoes. Fluctuations in earliness are probably due to differences in the soil.
