ter September 8, 1914, at the postoffice at Maupin, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

MAIL ORDER SPENDING

The chain-store-mail-order houses are going right along. In June they had a greatly increased business over a year ago. Sears, Roebuck did a $25,000,000 business that month.

A LA DARIUS GREEN

The airplane is coming closer and closer. A few days ago Gen. Fechet, chief of the army air service with his wife and two daughters, hopped off for a thousand mile trip for their month's vacation up in Canada.

ARE TAXES FOOLISH?

As a master of fact it does seem ridiculous to tax a man for improving his property—in other words to fine a man for building a house to live in. It improves the community, gives work to many people, and is a source of expense to the owner.

SOMTWHAT CLERGICAL

The latest thing I've heard going the rounds of Washington with a smile is this: "Before election it was 'Gov. Smith and de Pope,' now it is 'Pre. idient Hoover and de Priest'."

MUSIC HATH CHARMS

"A dairyman in Iowa announces that he increased the milk supply of his herd by singing softly to the cows during the milking hour. If that is true, Marion Talley should be supplying the nation's cream from her Kansas farm before the year is out."

And now The Dalles wants a bridge across the Columbia at that place. Seems to us the logical thing to do first would be to have a road built at the other end of the structure, so that travelers could go somewhere other than across a sand-driven waste, such as exists at Grand Dalles.

Business as practised today is the sole business of whoever practices it. When that business is criticised by another in the same line not only are the ethics of that business violated but the critic lays himself open to more criticism than he uses against his competitor.

That young fellow who stole cars, an rum and befooled a young girl into a pretended marriage seems to be a candidate for a life job in the state penitentiary. A life of ease oftimes beguiles a man into doing things not according to law.

Woman Hauls Grain

Mrs. Charley Walker is proving more than a housewife, as she is handling a truck and hauling grain to the warehouse, making many trips each day. The grain is in bulk and Mrs. Walker manages to keep up with the combine in her hauling.

Huckleberries Ripening

Advices from Swim are to the effect that huckleberries are ripening and pickers are bringing in a few gallons of the berries at this time.
Within a week the berries will be at their best. Camps at Swim are filling up fast with pickers and indications are the crop of the luscious fruit will be the largest and finest berries ever picked there.

Dr. Clarke, eye specialist, will be in Maupin Sunday, August 18th, at Maupin, formerly the Home hotel.

Dalles Frolics Coming

The annual fiesta, the Fort Dalles Frolics, has been set for September 5, 6, and 7 this year. This event is sponsored by the American Legion post of The Dalles and is one that is usually largely attended and provides a program that for originality and real pleasure is not equalled by any like event in the whole country.
Watch for program and incidentals.

Visiting Parents

Mr. E. A. Cyr and daughter, Mrs. Geo. L. Morris, left for Ben I Sunday and for the next week or 10 days will visit with the former's parents. Mrs. Cyr is on her annual vacation from the Shattuck store and is enjoying a much needed ret.

Fair Premium Lists

The Times shop has a number of copies of the premium list of the coming fair and any who desire a copy will be given one by calling at this office. If you contemplate making exhibits at the fair you'll need a copy of the premium list, so don't be backward in asking for one.
They're free.

Buy Spring Lambs

Sheep Buyer Boboski was in this section last week and succeeded in buying about 1500 spring lambs, which he shipped east last Saturday night. Mr. Boboski is a regular patron of sheep raisers of this section and annually buys and ships many thousands of sheep of Maupin ranchers.

Up From Roseburg

Wm. Beckwith, wife and little granddaughter, came in from Roseburg this afternoon, coming up for a short visit. Since being in the southern part of the state Mrs.
Beckwith has improved in health somewhat, which is good news to her many friends in this section.

Premium List Out

The premium list of the Nineteenth Annual Pacific International the annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition, to be held at Portland, October 26 to November 2, inclusive, is now being distributed. Extra copies may be had from General Manager O. M. Plummer, 211 American Bank Building, Portland, Oregon.

Young Layer

Mrs. B. F. Turner received a shipment of day old chicks last spring.
She has been watching them grow and was recently awarded for her care by one of the four and one-half-months-old pullets laying an egg. Since then the young biddy has added her quota to the family larder by laying an egg daily.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To test fruit juice for pectin mix one tablespoon juice and one teaspoon sugar with one-half teaspoon Epsom salts. Stir until salts are dissolved and let stand two minutes to jell.

Citrus and other tart fruits are valuable for breakfast as they stimulate the appetite. Some canned fruit has too much sugar, blunting the appetite for more needed foods.

If fruit is served too cold the flavor will be lessened as the cold numbs the taste buds in the mouth.

To obtain an evenly conagulated, jelly-like soft boiled eggs, the best method is to lower the egg in boiling water, remove it from the heat and leave it for five minutes. Boiling makes the egg rubbery and unevenly conagulated.

A wire basket is a good accessary to have in canning tomatoes or peaches. As these fruits must be scalded to get the skins off, use the wire basket to lower the material into boiling water.
