Elton Snodgrass Elected Student Body Head

The regular student body meeting was held in accordance with the constitution at 9 o'clock last Friday, for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year.

Officers elected were: Elton Snodgrass, president; Albert St. Dennis, vice-president; Leah Weberg secretary; Richard Crabtree, treasurer; Robert Shepflin, sergeant at arms; "Bo" Wilson advertising manager; Eldon Allen, student body manager.

Elton Snodgrass owes his popularity to his grit on the athletic field. He will have the full confidence of both students and faculty in the student body office. Richard should prove valuable as treasurer. He has a reputation for accuracy and is a first class bookkeeper.

The class in public speaking, thru Mr. Peeling's assistance, was responsible for the smart and business like manner with which the election was conducted. Regular assembly singing preceded the election.

MAUPIN STUDENTS WIN VALUABLE PRIZES

Last Friday at an assembly of the whole school, the 4-H club awards were given to members who won prizes on their entries at the county fair.

First on the program were two songs, "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "America" by all. Loyal Pratt, Ernest Kirsch, Emery Crofoot, Jim Slusher and Harry Rutherford told of their club experiences, exhibits, and trips won.

Ralph Kaiser gave a humorous recitation on "The Mule." Mr. De Voe, after a short talk on the merits of club work, gave out the checks to the boys and girls. A club song, "The More We Get Together" and the "Oregon State Song" by all ended the program.

The ones who received checks were: Ning Matthews, Betty Slusher, Elizabeth Rutherford, Nova Hedin, Gretha Turner, Dorothy Greene, Jean Renick, Ralph Kaiser, Ivan Donaldson, Bonney Daus, Harry Rutherford, John Slusher, Franklin Renick, Ernie Confer, Allene Wilson, Lena Turner and Ernest Kirsch.

PROPER OBSERVATION OF THE LUNCH PERIOD

During the first fifteen minutes of the lunch hour, students, who come from a distance both members of the Seventh and Eighth grades and the High school, assemble in the east study room for their luncheon. At this period friends have the opportunity of chatting while enjoying their lunch. One purpose of all observing regularly this period, is that those trying out for athletics are in proper condition for afternoon play. It is impossible for any athlete to do his best for his school unless he has devoted some time to lunch. Another advantage is that our grounds are protected by this method. Students on finishing their lunch immediately put their papers in the waste basket. The rubbish may then be cared for. After the lunch period is completed, students who desire to go up town are granted permission by the teacher in charge. Bring a lunch every day and enjoy the brief moment in a profitable manner.

The personnel of the Cubs are: Richard, Bob, Ivan, Orville, Harry, Wendell, Massie "Bo", Val, Albert Charles, Bonney, Elton, Glenn and Bill.

Brother Died

Just before they started on their eastern trip J. G. Kramer and wife were notified of the serious illness of the former's brother, Wm. Kramer J. G. arrived at the home of the sick man, Dent Minnesota, in time to see his brother before he passed away.

Will Visit Hood River

Several members of the higher division of Odd Fellowship of this place expect to go to Hood River on Saturday night and take part in the conferring of the Patriarch and

It is hoped the aid of the town-people can be enlisted, which will contribute greatly to a successful season. Come on CUBS, LET'S GO.

PLAY GROUNDS APPORTIONED

The play ground is divided into different sections this year. Between the buildings has been considered especially for the girls. West of the grade building the smaller boys play and the older folks have the baseball grounds.

All respect the lawn and are interested in keeping it beautiful. We have kept our grounds clean so far and expect to continue so through the school term.

Our base ball field is much too hard for football practice. We intend to make it available later so the boys can practice on the home field.

CECIL ASHLEY ENROLLS

We are glad to welcome Cecil Ashley into the Freshman class. Cecil was unable to enroll at the beginning of the year because of a wound accidentally sustained by a pistol shot. The Freshman class now counts seven boys and two girls. There is a fine opportunity for five more Freshman girls.

The High school wishes to thank Mrs. John Confer for her kindness in sending a large and beautiful bouquet of asters to the school. The lovely colors are a welcome relief against the somberness of the dry and dusty shades of fall.

WHO ARE THE CUBS

The brief and ugly name of "Cubs" has been chosen for Maupin's light-weight eleven. The school has chosen the title, as it represents vigorous fighting young animals. The Cubs expect to enjoy the rough and tumble of the great game and to play it according to the best traditions. A fine spirit of team work is already in evidence. The Cubs are out to earn their new title.

With the Tygh Valley game but a few days ahead, the team is settling down to business. To date, stress has been laid on the fundamentals, whereas plays and defense work will be considered this week. Although handicapped by lack of weight, the squad members are determined to offset this by playing "heads up" football for the entire game.

TRY THIS ON THE PIANO

County School Superintendent: Any abnormal children in your class? Mrs. De Voe: Yes, two of them have manners.

For Sale: A cow that gives five gallons of milk every day; also a barrel of gas, a can of oil and an old water pump.

It appears that in his anxiety to break up clouds on the football field, Richard encountered some difficulty easily understood when viewing his discolored optic.

Charles: Look at that guy across the street.

Mr. Peeling (studying history): What is he doing?

Charles: Sitting in the street talking to a banana, kin.

Bob: Well, Sir, my shotgun let out a roar and there lay a deal wolf ahead of us.

Elton: (Bored) How long had it been dead?

Mr. DeVoe—What is a vacuum?

Val—A vacuum is an empty place with nothing in it.

Ivan says that he has some fine chickens now laying eggs, also new potatoes, fence posts and russet apples.

Mrs. DeVoe: What is a curve? Harry: A curve is a straight line afflicted with an attack of bow-leggeditis.

Golden Rule degrees of the Environment of that city. The work will be exemplified by a degree team from one of the Portland lodges.

Porcupines Ate Hay—Billy Hunt went to his Tygh Valley ranch recently and when looking around discovered that porcupine had eaten about five tons of his sheep feed. That made Billy mad and he began a war of extermination on the quill pigs. He disposed of six porkys and will try and trap all the others.

What's Doing In Grade School Rooms

PRIMARY ROOM

The primary pupils are enjoying the sand table the manual training boys improved so efficiently by lining with tin.

An attractive reading table has been added to our furnished home.

The Cleanliness Auto race is progressing at great speed. The first graders are several laps ahead. Second graders need more gas.

Mrs. Rutherford sent a very pretty wandering Jew for the primary room.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADE NOTES

Mrs. Joyn had 100 per cent attendance last week.

Mrs. Kirsch was a visitor of yesterday afternoon.

The Third and Fourth grades are going to start art study as soon as they can secure books.

Marjorie Lindley is the monitor for keeping the blackboards clean and paper off the floor.

FIFTH AND SIXTH GRADE NOTES

Lena Turner brought a beautiful bouquet of flowers to school Tuesday morning. They were placed in the Fifth and Sixth grade room. Mrs. Joyn contributed a fine Jerusalem cherry plant.

Leslie Troutman reports that the fire, which threatens Estacada, is within nine miles of his father's sheep camp.

Mrs. D. L. Rutherford brought a plant and some cuttings from a wandering Jew to the teachers in the grade building. Mrs. Rutherford has helped to brighten the class room many times by sending a plant.

Friday the Fifth and Sixth grades were pleased with a visit from Edna Hughes' parrot. Several of the children were looking forward to this call as Mrs. Cantrell has said he might come Friday afternoon. Some insist he asked the teacher to "shut up."

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE NOTES

The Seventh and Eighth grades had a very interesting baseball game between teams captained by Irene Woodcock and Ralph Kaiser. The game ended one afternoon recess.

Irene's team staged a last minute four run rally, to pull victory out of what seemed almost certain defeat.

Another exciting game is in progress now. The new captains are Jim Slusher and Herbert Kramer.

GET AN EARLY START ON YOUR READING

The first semester's assortment of books, numbering twenty-five, arrived Thursday. These books aroused the eager interest of students. As soon as the box was opened the boys and girls alike crowded around it, seeking out their choice. The supply, however, is insufficient. Another early assignment of double the number is hoped for by the students. Outside credits on reading can be easily made by obtaining an early start.

THINK ON THESE WORDS

To Any One
Whether the time be slow or fast,
Enemies, hand in hand,
Must come together at the last
And understand.

No matter how the die is cast
Nor who may seem to win,
You know that you must love at last,
Why not begin?

—Witter Bynner.

Trucked More Sheep

Bobby David on made a trip to Portland Tuesday, taking down a double-deck load of sheep, they being from the flocks of T. B. Slusher and Walter Woodside.

Took Over Ranch

W. E. Hunt has taken over the Davis ranch on Juniper Flat, as well as a bunch of heep he had previously sold the Davis boys. Billy sold the ranch to Alva Wilcox, the lambs to Andy and J. A. Kistner and the older sheep to Fiske Bothwell.

I.O.O.F. HALL SCENE OF HILARITY AND FRATERNITY

Sisters Surprise Brothers and Provide Entertainment With Clothes and Eats

Last Saturday evening was a gala time with the local Odd Fellow, and the ladies of the Rebekah lodge. The chain gangsters completed the work of making two initiates full fledged members of the order, they being Dr. W. A. Short and Rev. W. A. Matthews of Simnasho, each receiving the two last degrees of the order.

After the lodge work had been concluded the lodge room was taken possession of by the ladies of the Rebekah lodge, who proceeded to spread a magnificent luncheon. Everything the market afforded had been provided and the cooked foods were so numerous and varied that the tables resembled a barbecue such as was served in ante-bellum days before the rebellion in the south. The outstanding feature of the gathering was the costumes worn by the ladies. Each had dug into the family chests and had re-erected garments of a vintage of a generation or two past. Accompanying the clothes were old-style hair ornaments and dressing, high top shoes and all else that went to make a belle of of two past. Accompanying the the times represented.

Some of the old-time representatives were so disguised by their habiliments as to be scarcely recognized even by members of their immediate family. Long skirts, full sleeved waist and, in some instances, old-time bustles were in evidence, thus giving sway to the imagination regarding styles of long ago.

Sunday some of the ladies made a public appearance in the costumes worn the evening before. They attracted much attention and guesses as to who they were passed among onlookers of the parade. During the evening a jury was summoned and that body passed upon the most striking costume, the prize being awarded to Mrs. H. R. Kaiser, whose dress was one worn by her mother 21 years previously. Her make-up easily won the big dollar offered.

Member belonging to other lodges and who were present at the conferring of degrees were C. E. Andre, Columbia Lodge, Ferndale, Washington; W. B. Sloan, and Marion Walters, Ridgely Lodge, Dufur; Ben Richardson, Prineville Lodge, and Dr. Elwood, Tygh Valley Lodge.

Legion Dance—The local American Legion will open the sea on dancing program with their initial hop at Legion hall on the evening of Saturday, this week. For inspiration the famous Seck's Columbian have been engaged. Supper will be served by the ladies of the Auxiliary, and this with the superior music, smooth floor and the best order, will make the dance enjoyable for all who participate.

Old Dress Parade—Sunday morning residents of Maupin were treated to a scene that brought back memories of years ago. Several ladies who had dined the Odd Fellows the previous evening appeared on the street dressed in garments styled 20 years or more previous. Of course the garments must have been borrowed, for none of the wearers could not possible have been old enough to have worn the costumes of the age represented. At that the ladies carried an air of the long past age with a grace and non-chalance pleasing to all who saw them.

Cut Out one Trip

The Bend-Portland Stage company has reduced the number of stages operated between the two places and is making but three trips weekly. Now the stage will leave Bend for Portland on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; from Portland will leave on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Letting up of travel is given as the cause of the change, but the other stage will be put on when travel again picks up.

More Hogs Shipped Out

On Sunday Bobby Davidson and Elaz Derthick each took a load of hogs to the Portland stockyards. Eliza's load was one of 18 porkers and were shipped by A. T. Lindley.

Lewis Now Daddy

Lewis Derthick and wife are the proud parent of a 7 1/2 pound baby boy who arrived at their home in Portland August 28. Grandad O. B. Derthick already has laid plans to take the newcomer to the mountains this fall on a deer hunt, saying that he educated the baby's father to hunt at an early age and desires his grandson to emulate his dad in everything.

"THE LOVE TRAP" NEXT ATTRACTION

Laura La Plante and Neil Hamilton Co-Stars in Farce at Legion Hall

O-o-o-o! What was she doing in the millionaire's bedroom? And how was she lured there? What happened? See the delightfully daring answer in "The Love Trap," a hilarious farce to be shown at Legion hall on next Sunday night—a picture as snappy as its own chorus girls and its speedy wild parties. See the story of a beautiful chorus girl who tried to be naughty to be nice—and who had to prove she wasn't—naughty.

Laura La Plante, star in "The Show Boat," and before that one of the shining lights in the Ziefeld Follies, is in the lead in the story, being ably supported by Neil Hamilton, Robert Ellis, Norman Trevor, Jocelyn Lee, Clarissa Selwynne and a host of lesser stars.

The usual comedy and news reel also on the next bill.

All Maupin and Wapinitia people will join in wishing both Rev. Hazen and his wife the most success in their new home and we are satisfied they will carry with them the knowledge that they have worked for the best interest of their church and community.

MORE PATIENTS AT EASTERN OREGON T. B. HOSPITAL

Fifteen T. B. Suffers Find Care and Comfort at Dalles; More to Come

Fifteen patients suffering with tuberculosis have been transferred from the Salem hospital to the new state institution at The Dalles, and still there are more to follow. This means that both the patients who remain at Salem and those recently taken to The Dalles will benefit. The addition to the number at the eastern Oregon institution makes a total there of 75.

Hereafter it will not be necessary for those seeking admission to a state hospital to be on the waiting list, as with the completion and occupancy of Wasco county's new sanatorium more room has been made and patient will be cited for entry soon after application is filed.

By having the hospital at The Dalles thousands of dollars have been saved, both the individuals and the state, and, what is more, has provided comfort of the afflicted by reducing the chances of new infections. One of those recently admitted, an advanced case, had applied only two days before he was admitted.

OREGON GAINED 100 FAMILIES IN AUGUST

All Records Broken and Settlers Still arriving; State Chamber Is Active

With 100 families reported as having arrived and located in all parts of Oregon during the month of August all records of the state chamber of commerce were broken, according to W. G. Ide, manager, who has just issued his regular monthly report of land settlement activities. Another record was also broken in August when the new arrivals made investments in land, buildings, equipment and other property amounting to $406,851.25. The new residents also purchased 5,901 acres of land, most of which was not formerly in cultivation.

An interesting sidelight on attracting new settlers to Oregon is revealed by Manager Ide, who stated that California has been sending the larger proportion of the new people, many of whom were drawn to that state by news of the Boulder dam development. Since it will be several years before water will be available for the Boulder dam lands, many of these prospective settlers have been directed to Oregon through the efforts of the Los Angeles office of the state chamber. An intensive campaign for new families, investors and parties seeking business and industrial opportunities will be carried on this fall and winter through the Los Angeles headquarters.

Crabtree Improving

Andrew Crabtree, who went to a Dalles hospital for correction of an operation undergone some months past, is reported as getting along finely and that he would soon be able to return to Maupin.
