REP. H. EGBERT PASSES ON

Died at The Dalles Home on Monday Buried Yesterday

Representative Herbert Egbert died at his home at The Dalles on Monday, after a comparatively short illness. His funeral was held under auspices of the Odd Fellows with interment in the cemetery of that order on Wednesday. Among the notables who attended the funeral were Governor I. L. Patterson and fellow members of the state assembly from various parts of that state. Among the honorary pall bearers were Hon. R. R. Butler, Judge F. W. Wilson, State Senator Henry L. Kuck as well as many former friends and neighbors of The Dalles and Hood River.

Building Garage—

Nick Karolus and Jack Berthala, with the help of Job Crabtree, are putting up a combination garage and woodshed. Since the boys have accumulated another car they realize the necessity of housing it, and at the same time object to having their wood exposed to the weather, hence the new building.

Mrs. Creighton Under Knife—

Mrs. A. S. Creighton, well known to many here, underwent an operation at the Mid-Columbia hospital on Monday. Her trouble was a minor one and was corrected by the surgeons at the hospital.

Dr. Kori ek's Stock Tonic, a good horse, cattle and hog conditioner, large size package $1.25 at the Maupin Drug Store.

TUM-A-LUM TICKLER

Vol. 1 Maupin, Oregon, October 17, 1929 No. 5

Education will really increase your earning capacity, unless you become an educator.

TAL
With The World Series over every one can settle down to work, except for occasional football games that come along.

TAL
Al Kennedy remodeled old Harris house by using Sterling Plaster Board. Carpenter Job Crabtree is doing the work.

TAL
A glassed in porch will really add an extra room to the house for the winter. Plan and cost will be gladly given.

TAL
You know we have quite a library of plans for all kinds of building. Come in and look them over there might be just what you want. The modern girl may break her word but she certainly sticks by her her compacts.

TAL
Happy thoughts. John J. Roskob says anyone can be rich. Isn't that rich.

TAL
The life of a paper dollar is less than a year. Did you ever have one die on your hands?

TAL
SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT
We are prepared to furnish Pioneer roofing and composition shingles at prices equal to, and in some cases less than those quoted by Mail Order Houses.

TAL
We give you the advantage of—
1. Getting the roofing when you ant it.
2. Privilege of returning unused portion.
3. The very best of chingles. Furnished by local yard. 4. The guarantee of a reliable manufacturer. 5. Prices as low as the lowest.

In other words—PRICE QUALITY SERVICE
Mrs. Laura Kennedy of Wamic re-roofs home using standard Pioneer slate surfaced materials.

TAL
We are offering a prize of $3.00 in merchandise to the person finding the misspelled word in this paper. Send in the word with your name to our office. All of the names sent in will be mixed and the lucky one drawn out. See further notice in The Maupin Times. It used to be that Mary was satisfied with a lamb. Now she gets your goat. TAL
That's all—see you next week.
