Old Comrade Calls

James Chalmers was agreeably surprised yesterday when an old comrade of the late war alighted in front of Jim's shop. The man was John Coburn who lives at Bergen, New York, and who, with his brother was touring the west by auto. John Coburn and Chalmers served in the same outfit during the war and this visit was the culmination of a promise made to the Maupin man when the two were discharged from service. The visitors remained a short time, then proceeded on their way to the eastern coast.

Here From Salem—

Mike VanLannen and wife came up from Salem last Saturday and were guests at the Henneghan home until Sunday evening. When they returned they were accompanied by their little daughter, Amy Lou, who had been visiting at the Henneghan's.

Got Two Deer—

The hunting party headed by Bates Shattuck, and made up of "Kelly" Cyr, Joe Kramer and Art Morris, returned Sunday morning with two fine deer. The deer were killed by Kramer and Morris and were fine specimens.

Improving Stock Yards—

Oliver Resh has been making extensive improvements at his stock yards in Greene's gulch. He has constructed new hogs pens, new fences and is now applying a coat of paint to all buildings and fences.

Will Attend Hearing—

A number of Maupinites plan attending the hearing on the injunction recently issued by Judge Wilson restraining the state engineer from fixing up the water rights of the Juniper Flatters who have paid for water. The hearing will be held at The Dalles tomorrow morning, at the court house.

Rode on Speeder—

Mrs. Lucile Cantrell and little daughter were treated to a novel (for them) ride Sunday. They had been at the Peter on home at Sherara and in the afternoon Mr. Peterson conveyed them from the bridge to Maupin on the speeder. On the way up from White river the speeder picked up The Times man and carried him to Oak Springs, thus saving him many weary steps.

Large assortment of Halloween novelties, 5-10-15 cent each. Also an assortment of maps at the Maupin Drug Store.
