

Personalities

Marcus Shearer was a visitor at The Dalles on Tuesday.

Billy Hunt took another load of lamb to his Tygh Valley ranch on Tuesday.

Estel Stovall and James Wray are at home from O. S. C. to spend the Thanksgiving vacation.

J. H. Conroy of near Shaniko passed through Maupin on Tuesday on his way to The Dalles.

Charley Pierce traded with The Dalles merchants on Tuesday, going down with George Mallatt.

George Mallatt came down from Bakeoven and proceeded to the county seat on a business trip Tuesday.

Julius Shepflin and wife met with the officials of the Mt. Hood Land and Water company last Sunday, at Pine Grove.

Walter Woodside and wife were among those from this part of the county who traded at The Dalles on Tuesday.

Ray Wittman and wife came up from Portland on Tuesday and will spend the Thanksgiving holiday with the latter's parents, Lester Kelly and wife.

Mrs. Maggie Ray is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Clark Richardson, after having been on the flat for a time. She is assisting in the care of her mother, who is quite ill.

Mrs. Marcus Shearer visited her friend, Mrs. McHenry, wife of one of the telephone surveying crew who was here early in the spring, at Cascade Locks a day or so this week.

Scout Executive Belcher was in town on Scout matters a short time on Monday. He is arranging for the annual meeting of this area, to be held at The Dalles on December 7.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MATTERS

Invitation Extended to All to Be Present at Meetings

You would enjoy the day better if you attend the Maupin Sunday school next Sunday. A change has been made in the preaching time services, the change taking effect this coming Sunday. On that day there will be no preaching service at Maupin, either morning or evening. The dates for preaching in Maupin will be on the second and fourth Sundays, both morning and evening; the first and third Sundays being devoted to Wapinitia. The fifth Sunday of the second and fourth quarters of the year will be given to Maupin. The above is word received by The Times from Clarke M. Smith, pastor.

Dr. Christiansen Moves

Dr. R. W. Christiansen has sold his practice at Dufur and on December 1 will open office at Redmond. Dr. Christiansen has made a great success at Dufur and that he is to leave this section is a cause for regret on the part of his many patients who have been brought to health by his treatment. The best wishes of a host of friends go with the doctor and his wife in their new location.

Teachers Vacationing

Dan Poling, with Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Joynt in his coupe, left for the lower country yesterday morning. Dan will visit with his folks at Corvallis while the ladies will spend the holiday at their homes in Portland.

PLAN FOR NEW RESERVOIR

Councilmen and Engineer View Site Toward Building

The mayor and members of the Maupin council went to the reservoir site yesterday morning, being accompanied by Thomas Baird, well known engineer of The Dalles. The visit was for the purpose of viewing the site with an idea of constructing a new reservoir.

Mr. Baird offered some valuable suggestions and he was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for a reservoir 75x75x10 feet in size. If built the reservoir will have a capacity of 300,000 gallons, be of concrete construction and will be large enough to satisfy the demands of Maupin for many years.

It is proposed to build the walls not less than six inches thick, sunk into the ground a distance of seven feet with three feet extending above ground, the whole to be covered. The reservoir will retain the same elevation and will have a tendency to lower insurance rates in this city.

As soon as the plans have been made bids are expected to be called for and construction work begun as soon as practicable.

Up From Florida

Harry Kelly and wife, the latter a daughter of Henry Holland, the well driller of Juniper Flat, have arrived from Florida and are occupying a cabin at Pine Grove. The Kellys tried Florida for a time but the salubrious climate and business invitations of Oregon proved too strong, so they migrated back to their original habitat.

Gardiner—Construction work being rushed on 53-acre mill site here for erection on 53-acre paper mill. Dufur—Red and White Chain Store opened for business in Walt Hanna building.

GLENN TRYON STARS IN "THE KID'S CLEVER"

New Star and Fine Cast at Legion Hall on Next Sunday Night

Glenn Tryon, one of the newer stars of the comedy screen, will be seen at Legion hall next Sunday night, starring in a hilarious comedy "The Kid's Clever," a vehicle built especially for him. The story of the play follows:

Bugs Raymond, owner of a garage has invented a fuelless motored combination automobile and speedboat. One night Ruth Travers, bound for a charity dance, stops at Bugs' garage and hears about his invention. She tells her father, a prominent motor magnate, about it.

Bugs attends a party at which Ruth is present and causes great hilarity by revealing every stunt done by a performing magician.

She advises Bugs to have his auto-boat ready for a demonstration the next day. When Bugs puts his invention through its paces it performs crazily, doing just the opposite of what it should. After Travers leaves in a huff they find out that the motor has been tampered with.

Ruth's father signs a contract with a rival concern, the salesman leaving hurriedly. All jump into the auto-boat and go in pursuit. The salesman grabs a speedboat and heads for a flying field. Bugs drives his auto-boat off the pier, through the bay, onto the flying field and up to the airplane just as the rival salesman is about to take off. They get the contract, tear it up, and Bug proceeds to collect a few kisses from Ruth.

Assorted fruits look well as a centerpiece for the table, and can be used as a desert. Centerpieces of flowers are best if arranged so as not to be high enough to obstruct the view.

Home For Holidays

The Misses Jean Wilson and Velma Crofoot are at home for the holidays, the former coming up from Portland and the latter from her school at Monmouth. Estel Stovall and James Wray are up from the Oregon State college and will remain during the balance of the week.

Pick Ups About Town

There is somewhat of a mystery in the air concerning a popular auto mechanic of Maupin. Recently he rented a house, bought furniture and now circulates the story that he is "going to back." Well, that story may go down with some but us old married folks will listen for those wedding bells we believe are due to ring about Christmas time.

It is reported that a certain public utility concern operating in this neighborhood is backward in paying wages due workmen. It is also reported that one of the workmen approached an officer of the company in Portland recently, asked for some money as he wanted it to eat on. The official dug down and produced the munificent sum of $1.85, of which amount he gave the young man a lone dollar. A big lift, surely.

Mac Holloman has opened a confectionery and pool hall in the building formerly occupied by Matt Busic at Wapinitia. Mac will also install gymnasium equipment in order to give his boys, Floyd, Nick and Doug, a place to indulge in training. Mac is personally popular and his friends are predicting success for him in his new venture.

John McMillan narrowly escaped being homeless on Tuesday. He had had his dinner at Johnny Williams' restaurant when an alarm of fire was turned in. When Mac, with the others, went out doors it was discovered that the front end of the cabin occupied by our popular sheepherder was on fire. The application of a few buckets of water sufficed to extinguish the blaze, which was caused by faulty wiring.

What with Joe Kramer's police dog, Pal, Signe Fischer's soup hound Maggie, Herbie Kramer's bone digger, Teddy, and our own feist, Pedro, The Times premises is about dogged to death. All the pups mentioned are playful, good natured and active, thus it is that our strawberry patch and imitation lawn are fast becoming things of the past. The dogs need exercise, so we will forgive their deprecations and will permit them to have their fun.

We feel constrained to again notify that certain bootlegger that his goods are a little too raw for Maupin consumption. A couple of his patrons were nearly stricken blind last week after partaking of a shot of two of his hooch. Either give your dope a third running or keep it out of this bailiwick. A word to the wise is sufficient and should work on bootleggers.

Estel Stovall is at home for the holiday. He is attending the Oregon State college and boarding at the college dormitory. He was invited to become flunkie at a sorority house when he entered the college but not having a liking for the work usually assigned a "plebe" cancelled the invitation by registering at the dorm. Estel says he enjoys reading The Times and has a chance to do so by going to the college library.
