And the Rain Came—
 From June to December is a long stretch, especially when that stretch is one devoid of rain. Southern Wasco county wheat fields were parched while range pasture was as dry as the Vollstaad act purports to make the country. Last week the dry spell was broken. Rain began to fall and up to the time of our going to press the fields and range

Weather
 Unless it turns warmer we predict cooler weather with rain unless otherwise.

Sports

We will insist this year that our All American team have at least one American name on it.

Instead of the East-West game, why not the Irish coached by Al Smith and the Scotch by Premier McDonald. At least one line would not give much.

Stop at our office for a chat any time. Look around we have what you want.

Pome

A cow stood on the railroad track. The train came round the bend. She was never struck before. But she got it in the end.

HELPFUL HINTS

How to Catch Whifflepoofs

As the Whifflepoof is a very tasty morsel we all desire a mess of them and the editor has found the following method very successful: In July carefully cut a hole in the ice on any lake, dig in a hole in the water and line with bread and butter. Lay a banana peel in the hole and when the whifflepoof whiffles he will slip on the banana peel and is then ready to cook. Roast on an oak board in a cool oven and when done throw the whifflepoof away and eat the board.
